Roger And Go

It was precisely 12:41 and everything was go. The priest asked Pat how it was and he said roger. So in the end everything came out A-OK. They made it through the window and the rendezvous came of without a hitch.

It was the biggest wedding of the year, but the way the news media covered it you would have thought it was another spectacular space launch from Cape Kennedy—and there weren't even any Kennedys there.

Outdated

Received a letter from an outraged coed who didn't like being grouped in the low quality, quantity class of second session coeds.

Now I worry about their mental ability too. She dated the letter April 15. Shows you how far behind, or maybe outdated is a better word, they can get.

It Is An Attitude

If you want to be a big man with the girls on this campus read on, I learned the secret.

This young lady was telling her professor what she liked in a man, it was in a French class and the conversation was in français so it was not abnormal. Well, I couldn't understand what she was saying at first, but then I got a break—they started using English.

Well, she said she liked the usual things—tall, blue eyes, etc. Then she said something about fraternity. The prof asked her if she meant "belong to a fraternity."

She said oh no, she didn't mean he had to belong to a fraternity. "Fraternity is an attitude," she explained. "He just has to have the attitude."

I wanted desparately for her to go on to explain attitude. She didn't. I guess I would know what the fraternity attitude is if I had it. But I don't, sigh. But if you have it, or know how to develop it let me know and I'll find out the young lady's name for you. She is a winner.

Alias Grand Dragon

Don't let it shake you up, but Robert Jones, alias the Grand Dragon, is going to appear on WUNC's North Carolina News Conference Monday.

He must have demanded equal time after the appearance of Martin Luther King.

CONFIDENTIALLY,

Koretizing is open for a limited amount of work before their official opening.

Don't be disappointed if they can't handle too much work this week. But until their facilities are complete, they will not accept any work that can not be done perfectly.

One hour dry-cleaning — three hour shirt laundry.
