

Team Chooses Tri-Captains; Hume, Sadler, Talbott Lead

Quarterback Danny Talbott, end Bob Hume, and tackle Hank Sadler have been elected tri-captains of North Carolina's football team this year.

The three seniors were chosen by a vote of their teammates. Coach Jim Hickey praised the selections, saying, "All three are fine young men and have outstanding leadership qualities."

Talbott, one of the most versatile athletes in Carolina history, was ACC Player of the Year in 1965. He passed for 1080 yards, ran for an additional 397 yards, and kicked field goals and extra points. The Rocky Mount, N. C. native led the conference in scoring with 70 points. He also averaged 38 yards a kick as a part time punter.

job last fall when starting flanker Bud Phillips was injured. Once established as a starter he became an intricate part of the Tar Heel offense, snaring 30 passes to lead the team. This year he's been switched to tight end to replace graduated John Ather-ton.

Sadler is a 230-pound stalwart of the defensive line. He's got the size and speed to make him one of the best in the ACC. He's from Charlotte, N. C. where he was a 180 pound guard. Once at Carolina he kept growing-right into his present tackle position.

The tri-captains will lead the Tar Heels into battle Saturday against Kentucky in the season opener.

Jack Cobb Was Mr. Basketball At Carolina

Jack Cobb played the field. He knew all about headlines, hurrahs and heartbreak, and he had the darn good sense to treat all three of them sanely.

Cobb was Mr. Basketball of the 1920s, perhaps the greatest native North Carolina player in the history of the game. The things he accomplished at the University of North Carolina will be recorded forever in the record books.

For three straight years (1924-25-26), the sharpshooter from Durham led Carolina to the Southern championship and in 1924 was such a dynamic performer that Carolina went through a 23-game schedule unbeaten.

He made the Helms All-American team and in 1926 was selected as Helms' national Player of the Year, the only native Tar Heel in history to be so honored.

Those were the wild and wonderful years. Some others were not.

Soon after he graduated from Carolina, Cobb was involved in an automobile acci-

UNC Baseball Team Begins To Practice

The Carolina baseball team became the pride of Chapel Hill last year.

After a slow start Coach Walter Rabbs' boys earned one honor after another. They won the ACC crown with a 12-2 record. They went on to become the South Eastern Champions by defeating powerful Florida State. They closed out their season at the College World Series in Omaha with a ranking of fourth in the nation.

Now Rabbs looks toward this year, and this year baseball at Carolina should be even more successful.

The long road back to Omaha commences on Tuesday, September 20 at two in the afternoon when fall practice begins.

Members of last year's freshman and varsity squad will be issued equipment that morning in Woolen Gym.

All freshmen candidates should be at the baseball field with gloves at two o'clock.

...The average graduate of Evelyn Wood

READING DYNAMICS READS 4.7 TIMES FASTER

THAN HIS BEGINNING SPEED WITH EQUAL or BETTER COMPREHENSION

HOW IS THIS POSSIBLE?

Eighteen years ago Evelyn Wood, a Utah school teacher, made a startling discovery that led to the founding of Reading Dynamics. While working toward a master's degree, she handed a term paper to a professor and watched him read the 89 pages at 6,000 words per minute—with outstanding recall and comprehension.

Is It Simply A Promotion Stunt?

Over the past eleven years more than 160,000 graduates have been convinced that Reading Dynamics is a proven method. About Reading Dynamics' impact on our nation's legislators, Time Magazine said "Washington has seen nothing like it since the days when Teddy Roosevelt read three books a day and ran the country at the same time."

Conventional rapid reading courses aspire to 450-600 words per minute. Most Reading Dynamics graduates can read between 1,000 and 3,000 words per minute, and many go even higher.

Money-Back Guarantee

We guarantee to increase the reading efficiency of each student AT LEAST 3 times with good comprehension. We will refund the entire tuition to any student who, after completing minimum class and study requirements, does not at least triple his reading efficiency as measured by our beginning and ending tests.
