GOOFED ALREADY
The advertisement that appeared in the Daily Tar Heel for Lacoek's Shoe Shop September 13th, contained the wrong prices. This mistake was due solely to a mistake by the advertising department and not in any way to Mr. Lacoek. The correct prices for Bass Weejuns are $13.95 for women and $17.95 for men. The DTH regrets this mistake and hopes that any student wrath will be directed at us and not at Mr. Lacoek.

Nothing Could Be Finer Than To Be At Carolina With An M2a In The Morning!

Milton has come up with his most important exclusive in 18 years—our new fabulous M2a perfect roll button-down collar—a new inner lining keep this shirt rolling all day long. You've never seen anything like it and you should try it, even if your shirt wardrobe is adequate. We are inserting five costly M2a shirt ads in the New Yorker this fall since there is not another shirt like this one throughout the land.

Now don't panic with thoughts of an expensive price tag — Solids from $6.50; stripes from $7.95. This is but one of the distinguishing differences that sets Milton's Old School apart from other natural shoulder shops everywhere.
