Gail Lynch, music chairman sponsors small concerts, ranging from classical to folk, as well as jazz.

Gail audits a new LP release.

Publicity Chairman Nat Norton's job is to herald all coming attractions in duo-glide style using the DTH, radio, T.V., and posters by his apprentice finger painters. He is the idiot responsible for the drivel on this page.

When not smuggling stag films over the border, Films Committee Chairman Mike League arranges the weekly FREE FLICKS in Carroll Hall.

One of Charlie's dances in the Rendezvous Room.

For any GM sponsored combo parties, the man responsible is Charlie Evans.

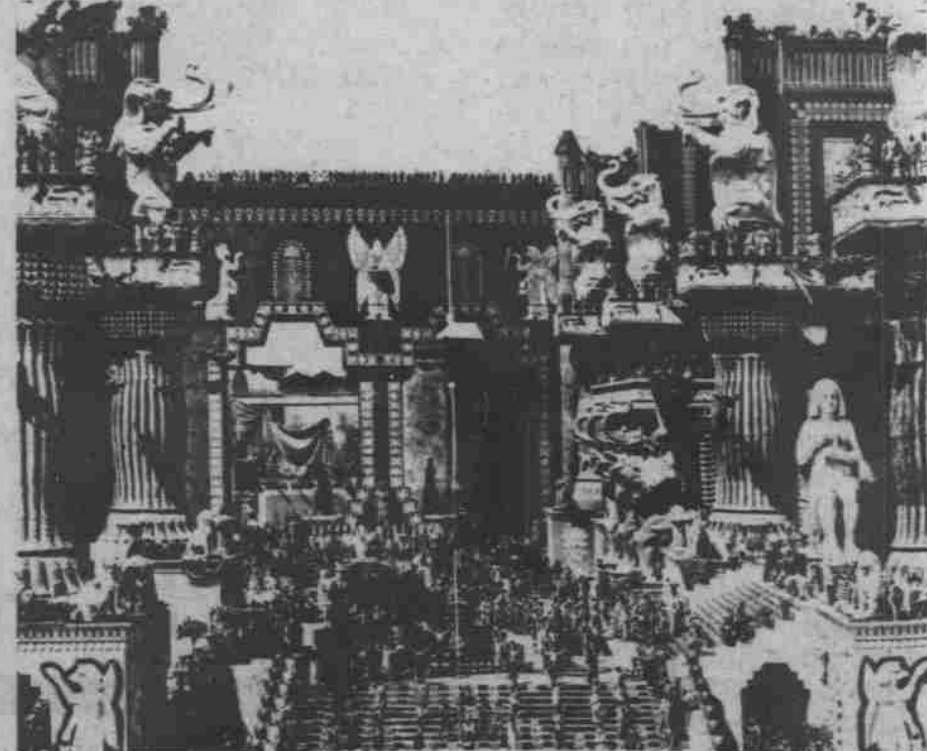

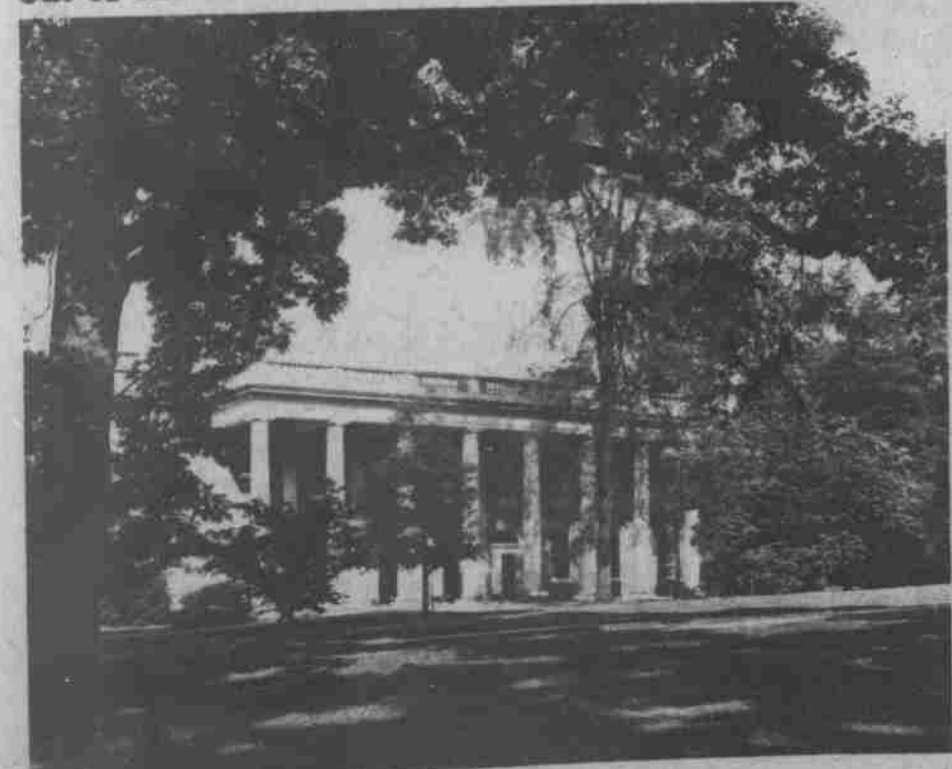

Al Ellis and his Current Affairs Committee sponsor lectures, debates, forums, and outside speakers on topics of current interest. He starts most of the fights.

Drama Chairman Anne Peacock offers workshops, one-act plays, dramatic readings, and full length productions, and has been known to do a little acting himself.

... And by the way, if you ever find your way out of the Arboretum, you might stumble across that large shack we call GM which looks like this.
