GYPSY MUSIC COMPANY — Yep, that's what ole' never-say-die-Kemp Nye calls his new vagabond record company now operating in the dirt plot where his record store burnt to the ground this summer. "Keep Kemp Green," used to be the Franklin Street Frenchman's motto—so now he's back selling from beneath a luxurious green tent. (DTH Photo by Jock Lauterer)

-Football-

(Continued From Page 1) State's only three victories since 1960 have been by a combined margin of five points. The Wolfpack won 3-0 in 1960, 7-6 in 1962, and 14-13 in 1964. Then someone reminds you that four of State's regulars were hurt in the Michigan State game and the chances are they won't even dress today. All ACC defensive end Pete Stokalsky and linebacker Chuck Amato went out in the first quarter. The offensive losses were tackle Lloyd Spangler and fullback Bill Wyland. The Tar Heels may have had their pride hurt in Lansing, but they returned home physically sound. So you think that maybe the bugs in Carolina's offense have been corrected this week in practice. And you know the team will be fired up when they play an arch rival before a hometown crowd. If you're a sportswriter you've weighed the facts and you begin flipping a coin. Heads Carolina-tails State. And you flip two out of three and three out of five. And you're forced to think about the woman who dreams and the history majors. And you wish it was that simple.
