WE CATER TO THE INDIVIDUALIST

BUT RESPECT THE TRADITIONALIST . . . And that is why every item at THE HUB has a distinctive quality about it that says it is YOUR shirt, and not just A shirt . . . But simultaneously each garment is molded in the same fine traditional lines that have become the byword for the young man on the way up . . . Our sport coats reflect a wide range of tastes and styles from the boldest in plaids to the most stunning in blazers, all tailored in the fine natural tradition . . . From $5.00 . . . Each suit, whether two piece or three, reflects the same casual elegance of garments two and three times their price . . . A wide selection of heather tones, solids, and a tasteful collection of glen plaids make these suits a commodity your wardrobe cannot afford to be without . . . From $9.95

Don't just sit there, Wallace Middendorp. Make a noise. Or drink Sprite, the noisy soft drink.

What did you do when Joe (Boxcar) Brkoczpaluj was kicked off the football team just because he flunked six out of four of his majors? What did you do, Wallace Middendorp?

And when the school newspaper's editors resigned in protest because The Chancellor wouldn't allow the publication of certain salacious portions of

WALLACE MIDDENDORP SAT HERE

"Night In a Girl's Dormitory" you just sat, didn't you? You've made a mockery of your life, Wallace Middendorp! You're a vegetable.

Protest, Wallace Middendorp. Take a stand. Make a noise! Or drink Sprite, the noisy soft drink.

Open a bottle of Sprite at the next campus speak-out. Let it fizz and bubble to the masses.

Let its lusty carbonation echo through the halls of ivy. Let its tart, tingling exuberance infect the crowd with excitement.

Do these things, Wallace Middendorp. Do these things, and what big corporation is going to hire you?

SPRITE. SO TART AND TINGLING. WE JUST COULDN'T KEEP IT QUIET.

Nine Grads Study On

Nine Carolina June graduates are studying this year as Woodrow Wilson Fellows at colleges and universities throughout the United States and Canada.

These include, from Raleigh—Brenda G. Bethel, English, Indiana and James D. Hartman Jr., French, Yale; Wilmington—George N. Buck, English, Harvard; Chapel Hill—William A. Graham Jr., Comparative Religion, Harvard; Newton—Kenneth R. Henry, Psychology, Wisconsin; Durham—David A. Lane, History, Harvard; Whitmore, S. C.—William P. Robinson, Musicology, Yale; Asheville—Penn R. Szitty, English, Indiana; and Charlotte—Spencer F. Tinkham, Mathematics, University of Illinois.

Alexander B. Holmes IV of Charleston, S. C. and Miriam R. Lane of Durham were offered Wilson Fellowships for graduate studies in economics and political science respectively but accepted other fellowships. Mary E. Daniell of Chapel Hill, comparative literature, declined the fellowship because of the need to postpone her graduate studies.

The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation strives to attract men and women to the college teaching profession. The Foundation annually awards fellowships to 1,000 prospective first-year graduate students and honorable mention to another 1,500. They are chosen from about 11,000 scholars.

Any member of the academic profession in any educational institution in the United States or Canada may nominate a candidate for a fellowship.

Through funds granted by the Ford Foundation, a Fellow is fully supported for one academic year. He receives a living stipend of $2,000 for one academic year.

Twelve men and women from other universities in the United States and Canada are Wilson Fellows here this year. These include, in the Department of English—Mrs. Leslie Smith Bretz, Pomona College; Dennis Merrill Goldsberry, Utah State University; Leroy Martin, Clark College; William Duncan McArthur Jr., University of the South; Nancy Jane McCaskey, Marshall College; Lee Ann McGraw, Newcomb College; Alfred Post, Abilene Christian College; and Robert Emerson Tiller, Louisiana State University.
