

Drysdale Versus McNally Series Begins Today Dodgers 8-5 Favorites

LOS ANGELES AP - Don Drysdale, who has Dodger Stadium on his side, will pitch the opening game of the World Series for Los Angeles today against Baltimore's Dave McNally, who has a telegram with 7,000 signatures on his.

Drysdale's weapon, the same one that will serve Sandy Koufax and Claude Osteen, undoubtedly is more effective and is one of the major reasons Los Angeles' National League champions have been established as 8-5 favorites over the American League champion Orioles.

In five previous World Series games at Dodger Stadium, Koufax, Drysdale and Osteen have allowed just three runs, with each showing one shut-out. The almost perfect pitching has brought the Dodgers' five victories and an unbeaten Series record at home.

McNally will have to match pitches with Drysdale, armed with a much less effective weapon - a telegram of good wishes being sent by 7,000 of his hometown friends and admirers in Billings, Mont.

But, oddly enough, McNally got an unqualified nod from Manager Hank Bauer for the important opening game assignment while there's little doubt that Walt Alton, the Dodger manager, would have preferred to go with his 27-game winner, Sandy Koufax.

"Davey has the soundest arm on the staff right now," said Bauer. "If it goes seven games, we can give him three starts."

While Bauer could choose from a well-rested crew of starters since the Orioles clinched the AL pennant on Sept. 22, Alton's choice was dictated by the National League pennant race which didn't end until the final day of the season Sunday.

Both Drysdale and Koufax worked against the Phillies in a doubleheader wind-up to the tight NL pennant struggle, but Drysdale left early in the game while Koufax had to pitch a full nine innings to nail the Dodgers' second straight National League flag.

So Alton tapped Drysdale, 13-16 on the season, for the key opening game assignment.

Koufax likely will work the second game, with Osteen, 17-14, the third. Alton can juggle Koufax into three starts if the Series goes the full seven games by working him with two days rest in the final game just as he did in beating Minnesota last year.

Following McNally, 13-6, to the mound for the Orioles will be Jim Palmer, the Orioles' big winner at 15-10, and Wally Bunker, 10-6.

But while the Dodgers have the bombers - and the No. 1 man of the year in that department in Frank Robinson.

Robinson, who hit against Koufax, Drysdale and Co., last year as a member of the Cincinnati Reds, won the triple crown of batting this season in the American League with a .316 batting average, 49 homers and 112 runs batted in.

First baseman Boog Powell also drove in more than 100 runs while third baseman Brooks Robinson knocked in 99. In addition, Powell hit 34 homers and Brooks Robinson and outfielder Curt Blefary 23 each.

Hathaway has an offbeat interview with Stan Getz

Hathaway: Mr. Getz, what do you think of the new Hathaway Club shirt?

Getz: I think you've made a ghastly mistake.

Hathaway: How do you mean?

Getz: I used to wrap my laundry in a Hathaway shirt. Those shirts of yours were so big—especially around the middle—that I could get a whole week's laundry into one shirt.

Hathaway: Excuse me, Mr. Getz, but I don't think that's what we want to talk—

Getz: Now, the new Club shirts, you've made them so darn lean around the middle that I had to go out and buy a laundry bag.

Hathaway: Well, we're sorry about that but—

Getz: And the laundry bag is pure fluff. Not nearly as strong as that fat, old Hathaway.

Hathaway: But our shirts look a lot trimmer now.

Getz: That's true—but consider this.

Hathaway: What?

Getz: You ever thought about making laundry bags?
