Fruits Of Victory Will Get Sweeter

"The first plum off the tree was sweet, but there's a sweeter one higher up and we want to get it, too."

Chuck Erickson, UNC athletic director, summed up his feelings about Carolina's great 21-7 victory over Michigan last Saturday. But a football team cannot afford to bask in the light of one victory. Hence, the reference to the "higher plum" — Notre Dame on Oct. 15.

The Tar Heels have this Saturday off, which gives them plenty of time to prepare for the Fighting Irish. The coaching staff will take advantage of the break to scout three teams — Notre Dame against Auburn, Wake Forest against Auburn and Georgia against Mississippi.

Carolina did not come out of the Michigan game unscathed. Regular offensive tackle Tom Ingle broke a bone in his leg and is probably lost for the rest of the season.

"He was playing good ball this year," Coach Jim Hickey said, "and he was having a great day against Michigan."

Ev Cowan, the number two tackle, will step into Ingle's starting position. Mike Richey, the right guard, will move over to back Cowan up. Replacing Richey will be Mike Smith, who has been used as a swing man on defense.

Smith, a sophomore, had a knee operation after the Wake Forest freshman game last year and did not go out for spring practice.

Hickey praised the cheerleaders and student body for supporting the team. A sizable crowd greeted the players in Rams Head parking lot when they returned Saturday night.

"We had telegrams from almost every fraternity and sorority on campus before the game," Hickey said. "It's little things like these that are just as important as anything else in winning a football game."

The official statistics show Danny Talbott still the leading rusher after three games with 110 yards. Dick Wesolowski has 71 yards, Dave Riggs 67, Tom Lampman 57 and Mark Mazza 52 yards.

Talbott has hit 30 of 53 passes for 300 yards and two touchdowns. Tom Lampman is his leading receiver with seven catches for 113 yards and both scores.

HICKEY'S DOUBLE SUCCESS

Jim Hickey finally did it! After many weeks of trying, he won top honors last weekend in the office football pool in which members of the coaching staff vie for free cups of coffee picking the winners.

But Hickey's success as a forecaster went unnoticed. Everybody was too busy talking about the magic of the victory that he and his North Carolina Tar Heels scored over Michigan, 21-7, before 88,232 fans at Ann Arbor.

"That was the biggest win I've had in 21 years of coaching," Hickey said. "I've never had a team to play a second half like my boys did out there Saturday."

Modest as always, Hickey takes no special credit for the great Carolina victory. "There were no pep talks, no gimmicks," he says. "The boys just went out there and played a game of football the way it's supposed to be played."

But the fact remains that it is Hickey who holds an amazing mastery over Big Ten teams. He's faced them four times in the past three years and has three victories. Believe me, that's much better than par for the course.

THE GO-GO BOYS:

The thing about the victory that pleased the Carolina staff most was the way the Tar Heels ran with the football. Carolina's running attack had been criticized after opening games against Kentucky and North Carolina State.

But Danny Talbott, Dick Wesolowski, Dave Riggs, Tom Lampman and Mark Mazza ran a long way Saturday. They combined their talents in a ground march that consumed seven minutes in the final quarter and produced the clinching touchdown.

MICHIGAN WAS CONVINCED

Wolverine Head Coach Bump Elliott was highly complimentary of the Tar Heels. "Wesolowski was good," he said, "but Talbott was great. He's by far the best quarterback we've been up against. We just couldn't stop him and we knew before the game that was what we were going to have to do."

Elliott said, "We just got beat by a better team."

Carolina Students Choose L.A. Bums Over The Birds

By OWEN DAVIS

If Carolina students have their way, the Dodgers have the World Series wrapped up. A sample of opinion has given Los Angeles a definite advantage over the slugging Baltimore Orioles. Comment on the outcome of the series was diverse and many times illogical.

A typical reaction to the question was "Who's playing?" Several coeds shied away from any comment at all with a cursory "I don't even know who is in the game." Male response was much more definite.

"I'm for Baltimore because they never have won before," said one lounge in Graham Memorial. A fellow lounge said, "The Orioles will win because they are from the East Coast." One coed stated that she knew for sure Baltimore will win. "They have to because that is where my family is from."

Affection for the Dodgers was much greater. "The Dodgers are better," said one female, "because I have an enormous bet on them."

The choicest comment came from a coed at the Y-Court Mays will win by himself," she who professed to know a great deal about baseball. "Willie said. But Willie will be watching it on television.

His shirt is Hathaway's Classic Oxford Club. $7.50.

Hathaway is a division of The Warner Brothers Co.

Hathaway Hallmarks (Or what we hoped Stan Getz would mention)

1. A tag for your name: Sewn on the shirt tail of every Hathaway Club. Helps keep your Hathaway shirts out of envious hands.

2. Traditional button-down collar: Hand-turned for a soft roll, comfortable fit and casual flare. Result: Every Hathaway Club button-down looks equally well with or without a tie.

3. Three-hole button: Used exclusively by Hathaway. It is much stronger than the four-hole kind. (Euclid and your Math professor know why.)

4. Tapered body: Hathaway trimly tapers each and every Hathaway Club. This means that the body won't bag, billow or bulge over your waistline.

5. Lap seams: All seams on a Hathaway Club Shirt are "lapped"—much like the seams on a traditional jacket. This makes the seams extraordinarily strong and flat and neat.

6. The Red "H": Found on every Hathaway Club where the tails meet—but only when the shirt has passed 18 inspections.

"Never wear a white shirt before sundown!" says Hathaway.

1. How come you've been getting such swinging computer dates?
I guess you haven't seen my personality questionnaire.

2. "Five foot two. 113 pounds. Nearsighted."

3. "Play the ocarina."

4. "Like cucumber sandwiches."

5. You mean to tell me those great-looking girls go for these things?
It's the last item that really clinches it.

6. "Stepping into swell job with Equitable Life. Good pay. Fascinating work. Plenty of chance to move up."
