

Orioles' Drabowski Sets Strikeout Record In 5-2 Win

LOS ANGELES AP — Moe Drabowski, an obscure, 31-year-old hand-me-down, set a World Series record for a relief pitcher with 11 strikeouts and hurled the Baltimore Orioles to a 5-2 first game victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers Wednesday.

Taking over from starter Dave McNally in the third, after the Robinson boys bombed Don Drysdale with first inning homers, Drabowski allowed only one hit in 6 2-3 innings. He struck out six in a row at one stretch, tying a Series record.

When he struck out the side in the fourth and fifth the Polish-born part time stock broker tied a 47-year-old mark put in the books by Cincinnati's Hed Eller against the Chicago White Sox in 1919, the scandalous Black Sox series.

Frank Robinson's two-run homer, following a walk to Russ Snyder, got McNally off to a good start in the first. Then Brooks Robinson, the other half of the Orioles' one-two punch, followed with another homer into the same lower left field stands.

Despite Jim Lefebvre's homer in the Dodger second, McNally held a 4-1 edge going to the last of the third because Andy Etchebarren walked in the second, took second on a sacrifice and scored on Snyder's single to left.

McNally suddenly lost all control in the third. After getting Willie Davis to fly out, he walked Lou Johnson, Tommy Davis and Lefebvre, loading the bases.

Hank Bauer strode to the mound and waved to the bullpen for Drabowski. Moe relieved some of the pressure by striking out Wes Parker but then got too careful with Jim Gilliam and lost him on a 3-2 count, walking in a run.

Drabowski went to 3-2 on John Roseboro before he made him foul out to Etchebarren, leaving three frustrated Dodgers on the bases.

Moe mixed a fine breaking ball with an assortment of soft stuff and some quickies to strike out pinch hitter Jim Barbieri, Maury Wills and Willie Davis in the fourth.

He followed this by whiffing Lou Johnson, Tommy Davis and Lefebvre in the fifth. Parker finally broke the strikeout string by lofting a fly ball to Curt Blefary opening the sixth.

pen save, and the power lived up to its advance billing.

After the home run bombs by the Robinson boys in the first, the Orioles picked up one in the second on a walk, a sacrifice and Snyder's single, then added their fifth and final run in the fourth on Dave Johnson's double, an infield out, a walk to Drabowski and a force play.

Johnson scored while Aparicio was forcing Drabowski at second.

Last year, he toiled in Vancouver but wound up on the Cards' Jacksonville roster from which he was drafted by the Orioles last Nov. 29.

When Bauer's pitching woes became serious in August, Moe was drafted for starting duty. He won one as a starter and five more on relief for a 6-0 season record.

Drysdale, the No. 2 boy of the Dodgers' pitching staff, was removed for a pinch hitter after giving up four runs and four hits in two innings. Joe Moeller, Bob Miller and Ron Perranoski followed in that order.
