

Frosh Footballers Edge By Cavaliers

By OWEN DAVIS
DTH Sports Writer

Doug David redeemed himself after dropping two open passes and scored one touchdown and set up another in the second half as the UNC Tar Babies defeated Virginia in an unimpressive 13-0 victory. Both freshman squads were very sloppy on the field and committed numerous mistakes. Carolina played without six starters.

The two teams combined had five passes intercepted, lost three fumbles and were penalized 186 yards in the comedy of errors. Frequent penalties nipped many drives in the bud and the 18 punts in the game were indicative of the lackluster performance.

Carolina scored its two touchdowns in the second half on drives of 60 and 63 yards. David sparked the initial march with a 33-yard pass reception which put the Tar Babies at the Virginia 5-yard line and then culminated the latter advance with a 9-yard reception in the end zone.

The first half consisted of a constant exchange of punts and 11 boots were recorded.

Carolina made the only serious threat in the closing minutes of the half after recovering a fumble at the enemy 19. From there, the Tar Babies moved to the 6 before a missed field goal ended the threat.

Carolina scored the second time it got possession in the second half but only a fluke permitted the score. Starting from its 40, UNC gained only seven yards in three before being forced to kick. But Virginia was charged with roughing the kicker and the Tar Babies got the ball at the enemy 38 instead of losing possession.

From the 38, Garry floated a 33-yard bomb to David who fell out of bounds at the five. After one down, Garry proceeded to sweep left end and ran into the end zone untouched. Jimmy Sandlin added the extra point with 3:25 remaining in the third period and UNC led 7-0.

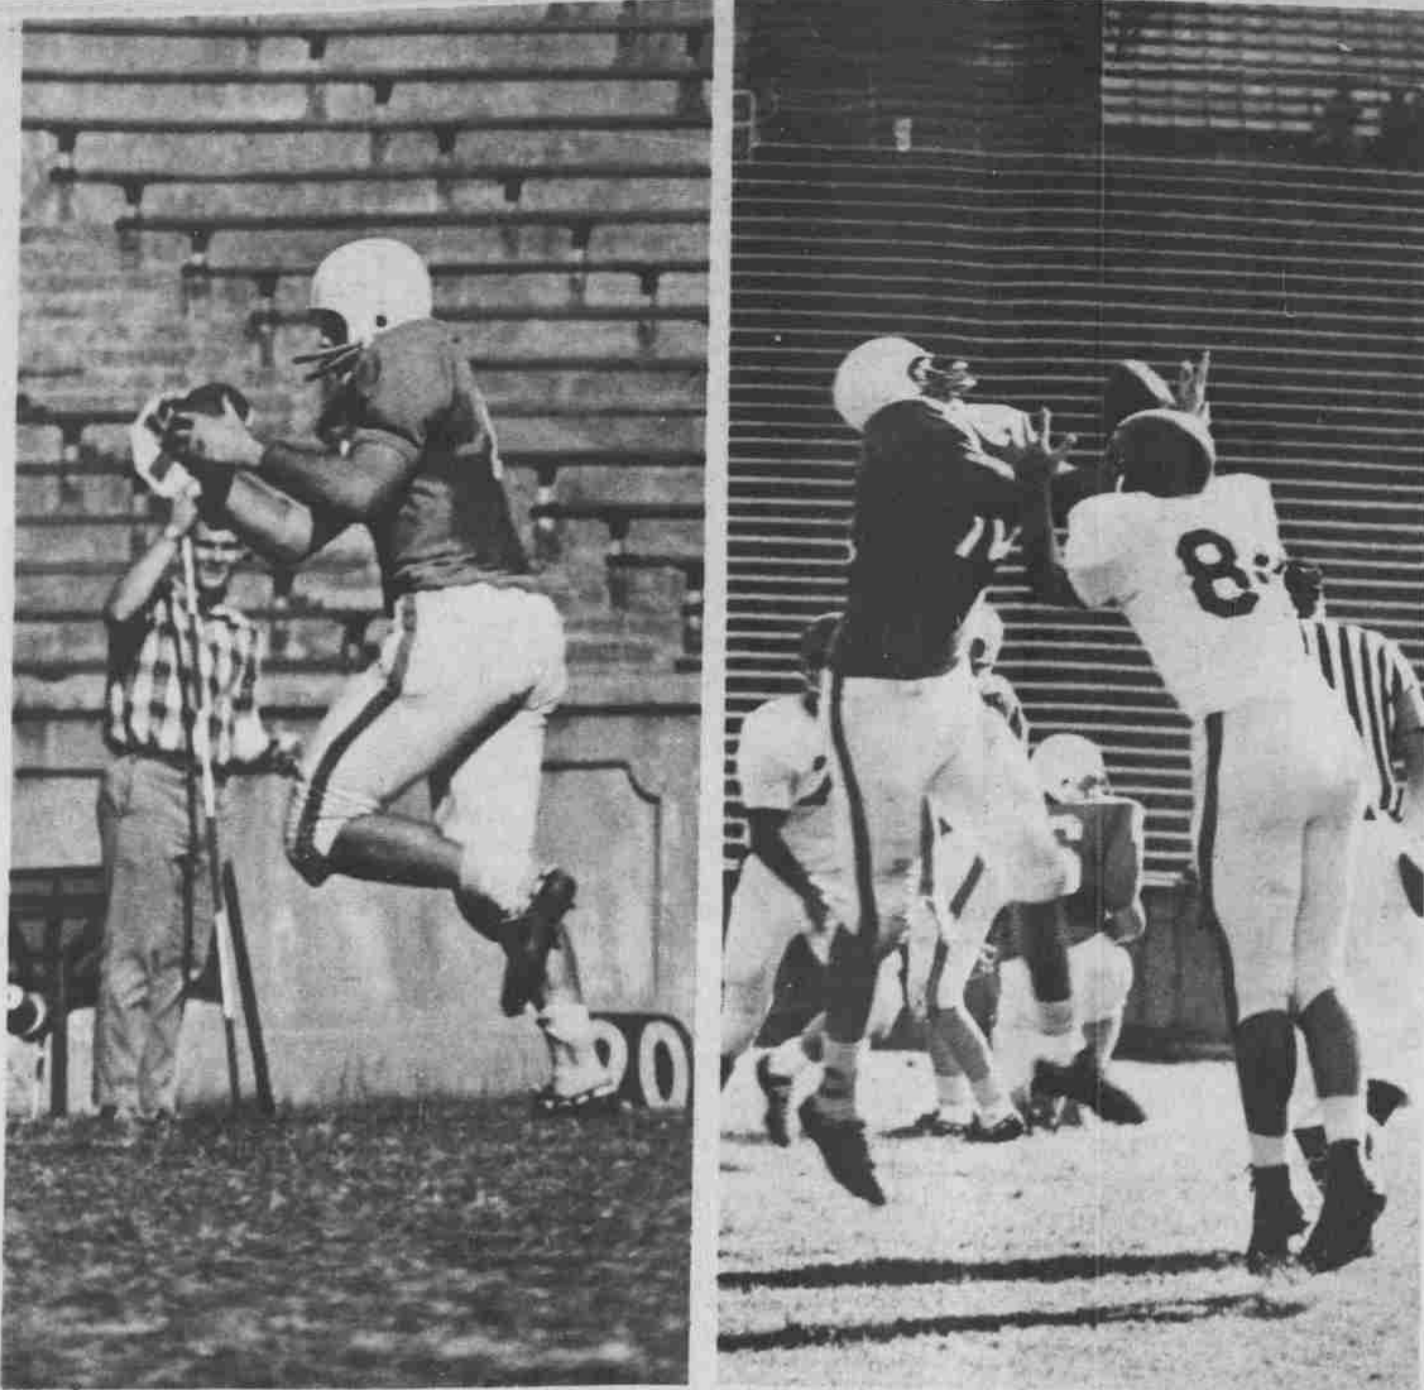

Quarterback Garry then found David open on passes of 21, 16, and 6 yards and with four short running plays UNC was camped on the Virginia 9. At the 9, Garry scrambled out of the pocket on a pass attempt and spotted David open over the middle.

He fired a perfect strike and the Tar Babies extended its advantage with 3:49 left in the game. The PAT was wide and the margin increased to 13-0.

Carolina staged a final threat late but an interception thwarted the effort at the 10-yard line.

The Carolina freshman defeated Virginia in a poorly played game by the final score of 13-0. The Tar Babies found the going rough in the first half, out in the second half quarterback Ken Garry started connecting with end Doug David to lead the team to victory.

Harriers Are Victorious

Carolina's highly touted cross country team swept to an impressive victory over N. C. State, Virginia, and East Carolina, Friday at Raleigh.

The Tar Heel distance runners took seven of the first ten places. Leading the way was UNC junior Mike Williams who placed first over the 4-mile State course in the time of 20:37.5. Second was East Carolina's Don Jayro.

Williams and Jayro staged a head-on battle for the first three miles but the Carolina thinclad ran a sub-5 minute last mile to win easily.

Paced by four outstanding sophomores UNC took third through seventh place to completely dominate the meet.

Truett Goodwin place third, followed by Joe Lasich, Steve Williams, and Jim Hotelling. Senior co-captain Trip McPherson was seventh.

Coach Joe Hilton's harriers face their toughest competition of the season next Saturday when they run defending ACC champion Maryland at Chapel Hill. Yesterday's victory was UNC's second. They beat USC last Saturday.

Carolina's unbeaten freshman distance runners also ran, picking up their second win of the season. Tar Heel Robert Frederick was the individual winner with a time of 13:17.8.
