TALBOTT IS MR. THIRD DOWN

North Carolina's Danny Talbott, long regarded as one of the nation's great clutch players, has become a master of the tricky third-down play when there's nothing to do but put up or shut up. . . or punt.

So sensational has Talbott performed on the key plays that Tar Heel fans now call him, "Mr. Third Down."

Sports writer Harry Lloyd of The Charlotte Observer kept tabs on Talbott's third down record in the 21 - 7 Carolina victory over Michigan. He came up with these figures.

The Tar Heels faced 21 third down situations against the Wolverines' big defense, and only five times did they fail to get the necessary yardage to keep the football.

As a third - down passer, Talbott was five - for - eight. He ran the ball himself eight times on third downs and made the necessary yardage on seven occasions.

The third down dependability of Talbott enabled Carolina to control the ball almost mechanically for the last three quarters of the game.

No wonder the honors keep pouring in for Talbott. The latest is his selection as winner of the coveted Lewis E. Teague award as North Carolina's top athlete of 1965.

Talbott was voted Atlantic Coast Conference Athlete of the Year last season and swept the same award in football. He's sure to win plenty more honors before he completes his Tar Heel career next spring.

Right now, Tar Heel fans are counting on Danny to have a big day Saturday when Carolina faces mighty Notre Dame at South Bend.

THE ROLLICKING IRISH

Three Carolina coaches, Joe Mark, Bob Thalman and Emmett Cheek, scouted Notre Dame last Saturday in the Irish's 35 - 0 blitz of Army. They came away highly impressed.

A NOISY BOWL IN INDIANA

Most coaches claim it's a nightmare to play in the big Notre Dame bowl because the fans there are the noisiest anywhere. But Carolina Coach Jim Hickey says this doesn't concern him.

A NEW ROLE FOR TIM KARRS

Tar Heel fans are buzzing about the switch of third string quarterback Tim Karris to fullback. Coaches say he has performed well at his new post in practice.

"This doesn't mean that Karris is going to move in and take over Mark Mazza's job," Hickey said.

A "SLEEPER" HAS ARRIVED IN CHAPEL HILL

Yes, "The Wrong Box" was not supposed to be a BIG picture, but overnight, it turned out to be one of the year's big Attractions, playing to tremendous crowds across the nation. The Reason? . . . People like to laugh and "The Wrong Box" is a laugh a minute picture, it's wild! Peter Sellers and Michael ("Ippress File") Caine are simply hilarious and you'll fall in love with lovely newcomer Nanette Newman (WOW!) P.S. It's funnier than "Pink Panther" and "Shot in the Dark".

Hathaway is a division of The Warner Brothers Co.

You can hear Woody Allen on subjects other than shirts on his latest Colpix album, Woody Allen Volume 2.

His shirt, incidentally, is one of Hathaway's new Club Ocean Stripes - with alternating blue and green stripes on a solid Weathered Blue Oxford cloth. About $8.00.

Hathaway Hallmarks (Or what we hoped Woody Allen would mention)

1. A tag for your name: Sewn on the shirt tail of every Hathaway Club. Helps keep your Hathaway shirts out of envious hands.

2. Traditional button-down collar: Hand-turned for a soft roll, comfortable fit and casual flare. Result: Every Hathaway Club button-down looks equally well with or without a tie.

3. Three-hole button: Used exclusively by Hathaway. It is much stronger than the four-hole kind. (Euclid and your Math. professor know why.)

4. Tapered body: Hathaway trimly tapers each and every Hathaway Club. This means that the body won't bag, billow or bulge over your waistline.

5. Lap seams: All seams on a Hathaway Club Shirt are "lapped" - much like the seams on a traditional jacket. This makes the seams extraordinarily strong and flat and neat.

6. The Red "H": Found on every Hathaway Club where the tails meet - but only when the shirt has passed 18 inspections.
