

Hickey Says Talbott Did His Best To Win

"Talbott did his best to pull it out for us," Jim Hickey said in the Carolina locker-room after his teams 3-0 loss to Wake Forest. "It would have been wonderful if he'd done it for us."

Jim Hickey

A reporter asked Hickey about his decision to go for the first down in the closing seconds of the ballgame.

"Dodson got hurt," Hickey replied. "A new boy would have had to try for the field-goal. But even if Bill had been all right, I would have gone for the first down."

Then someone asked about the condition of Talbott's ankle.

"I don't think he hurt it. I was surprised that he ran on it as well as he did. Tim Karrs did well considering how much he's played."

"We must give Wake Forest credit for playing a good ball game."

The Coach summed up the conference. "I don't have much to say. It was all pretty obvious."

Lead by co-captains Jim Hammer and Bob Johnson the bootmen have two of the finest defensive players in the nation. Backing up Johnson in the goal will be left fullback Jim Johnston, who played in the center forward position earlier in the season, Terry Henry, who played one of his best games against the Wolfpack and at right fullback will be Bronsan Van Wyck, who after being moved from forward has developed into a good defensive player.

Harriers Win Again

By DRUMMOND BELL
DTH Sportswriter

Carolina's harriers posted their fifth win of the season yesterday before Homecoming festivities had begun by shutting out the Clemson Tigers 15-0 on Finely Golf course.

Once again junior Mike Williams lead the way over the four mile course in the respectable time of 20:30. However, he wasn't the only winner since Hilton's eager harriers took the first twelve places to humiliate the Tigers.

The sophomores, lead by Truitt Goodwin, who finished four seconds behind Williams, showed their potential and ability as the quartet of Goodwin, Jim Hotelling, Steve Williams and Joe Lasich completed the thirteenth sweep of the first five places.

Co-captain Trip MacPherson and sophomore Kent Atry finished sixth and seventh to round out the top seven and give Hilton his fourth shutout of the year. The sweep was wrapped up by co-captain Chairlie Worey, Fred McCall, Wayne Franklin, Bill Bassett and Ed Daw.

The major bright spot for the harriers was their ability to run as a team and have their first five finishers cross the only thirty seconds apart. Last week against Maryland they had not stayed together and were almost shut out for the first time in their history.

Carolina's next meet is against Wake Forest at Chapel Hill on Tuesday.

State Routs Blue Devils With Second Half Surge

DURHAM (AP) — Duke North Carolina State's 33-7 rout of his Blue Devils by saying, "We just got the daylight's beat out of us."

"State did a great job on our receivers," Harp said. "It was the best job of defending us that anybody has done."

State, ahead by 10-0 at half-time, turned the game into a runaway with a field goal and three touchdowns in the final period. Not in 35 years had the Wolfpack defeated Duke on its home grounds.

The Wolfpack dressing room was the scene of bedlam. Coach Earl Edwards said, "This was a long time coming. That long run by Don DeArment helped us very much." He was referring to a 61-yard touchdown run by DeArment in the fourth quarter.

"His run relieved a lot of pressure," Edwards said. Until then there was no relief. It was a tight one, closer than the score indicated."

State kept the blitz on Duke quarterback Al Woodall most of the afternoon. On one play he was thrown for a 32 yard loss. Edwards said, "He's a good passer, a fine football player and will get better. He'll be a good one."

Edwards termed it "a great victory—one our boys wanted and played hard to get. I was afraid Duke might control the ball on us, but we put a pretty good rush on Woodall and our defense did a pretty good job of controlling their runners."

Harp said, "State has a fine team. They were sky high and we didn't play very well. We just went flat."

Duke Center Mike Murphy sustained a knee injury and was taken to a hospital. Harp said, "It isn't known how serious the injury is but he may be out for some time."

Tate Calls Wake Defense Fantastic

By DRUMMOND BELL
DTH Sportswriter

"Generally, teams score on us from the thirty," commented head coach Bill Tate of the Victorious Demon Deacons of Wake Forest. However, today his squad had come up with a fantastic defensive performance highlighted with three goal line stands.

As he stood talking to reporters and accepting congratulations, Tate's players were enjoying their sweet victory amidst scattered equipment and Deacon well-wishers. After losing four games the players had shown determination and courage in blanking their oldest rival.

In between sips of Coke, Tate continued to speak to the newsmen without hesitation. "It was a real defensive battle. They shut us off in the second half, but our defense was outstanding."

"When Talbott came in, we told our defensive ends to ignore all of Carolina's backs except for Talbott. Sloane and White, who were subbing for our first string defensive ends, did a great job. However, the boys are conditioned to going all out and proved it today."

The coach was a happy man and for good reason. As he said, "the game could have gone either way." Fortunately, for the Deacons and their fine coach they were on the winning end.

Johnson to move the ball into fieldgoal range. On a 4-16 situation with the ball resting on Carolina's 24 yard line Chick George kicked the ball through the goal posts. The field goal came with 7:01 remaining in the first quarter.

Carolina's first scoring opportunity came in the closing minutes of the first half. Quarterback Tim Karrs employed Dick Wesolowski, Tom Lampman, and Dave Riggs for long gains. Riggs' explosive 32 yard romp on a draw play set up a Dodson fieldgoal attempt from the 26 with 7:40 remaining. The ball was short and to the left.

Karrs moved the Tar Heels deep into Deacon territory three times in the second half.

News from the Old Book Corner

This Week Features Psychology

In the feature case at the intimate this week, there is a small but rather lively collection of books on psychology and psychiatry. This collection was brought together by a graduate student in a different field, and the result is an intelligent collection, but one not too technical for us non-professionals.

Look it over. We think you'll find yourself reading just as happily as if you were at home.

BUT THERE'S OTHER TREASURE

These special collections that fill the feature case week after week don't vanish when their day in the sun is over with. They move around the corner and go right on selling. That exciting collection on AMERICAN LITERATURE that has been creating a small sensation with scholars around the state for the last two weeks, for example, is still full of juicy morsels, but it is now back in the special collections case. So is the collection on the OCCULT, which includes some good parapsychology items, and a wonderful spread of CIVIL WAR titles.

Join the aristocrats of the book world. Enjoy a weekly treasure-hunt in The Old Book Corner.
