Don't Discard Old Wine Bottles

If you can't decide what to do with all the wine bottles lying about the dorm after a weekend of partying, just leave them there.

The days of wine and roses, daisies, tulips and feathers can be yours if you know something about how to use wine bottles to decorate your room.

It really gives a drab old dorm a lively, romantic touch at practically no cost.

For example, take two empty bottles of the wine of your choice, decorate a bit, and you'll have a handsome pair of soldier lamps, ideal for a library or a den like the one shown in the picture. Here's how:

1. The wiring: A "Make-A-Lamp" kit costs under $2.00 and is a snap to install.

2. The soldier's head: Cover the entire neck of the bottle extending up past the base of the socket with paper-mache — made from paper — up bits of newspaper, soaked in a flour - and - water mixture. This must be thick enough so that the paper-mache does not slide down the bottle when applied. If the Paper-mache is not smooth enough, fill in the crevices with "Spackle," which can be found in any hardware store. Form a papier-mache nose by applying several thicknesses of paper, shaped into a triangle. After the papier-mache dries, paint it with white enamel.

3. The soldier's uniform: Cover the bottle from neck to base with bright orange or red crepe paper, folded double and tucked slightly under the base.

4. The uniform's trimmings: Decorate the uniform with a wide blue velvet ribbon. Add the tips of two gold-colored feathers to the shoulders for epaulettes and trim with gold ricrac and buttons on the coat.

5. The soldier's face: Cut his eyes, mouth and handle-bar moustache from black felt and apply with glue.

6. An 8-inch white lampshade of the sort found in any ten-cent store is all that is needed to complete the soldier lamp.

Wining and dining takes on a new sophisticated approach when wine bottles are used as candleholders for small, intimate dinners. Eschew the bottle-plastered-with-wax drippings approach and try something different by using paint and glass nuggets. Here are the instructions:

1. Purchase a small jar of blue transparent paint at your local hobby shop. Paint a Chateau La Salle wine bottle with it, and before the paint dries, smear in an abundance of cement glue, using small, circular motions.

2. Polish glass nuggets in varying sizes and shades of blue can be applied to the bottle with glue.

For decorations that reflect today's gracious and sophisticated living, for last-minute or special occasion gifts, wine bottles are becoming more and more popular in the creation of home boutique art. For other unusual ideas, a free booklet is available that gives instructions on creating nine different wine bottle decorations. Just write to Brother Timothy, Cellarmaster, The Christian Brothers of California, Dept. Bd, 1225 Post Street, San Francisco, California. It'll help you un-bottle some "corking" good decorating ideas!

This is Russ Kennedy of Balboa Island, California, on an in-port field trip as a student aboard Chapman College's floating campus.

The note he paused to make as fellow students went ahead to inspect Hatshepsut's Tomb in the Valley of the Kings near Luxor, he used to complete an assignment for his Comparative World Cultures professor.

Russ transferred the 12 units earned during the study-travel semester at sea to his record at the University of California at Irvine where he continues studies toward a teaching career in life sciences.

As you read this, 450 other students have begun the fall semester voyage of discovery with Chapman aboard the s.s. RYNDAM, for which Holland-America Line acts as General Passenger Agents.

In February still another 450 will embark from Los Angeles for the spring 1967 semester, this time bound for the Panama Canal, Venezuela, Brazil, Argentina, Nigeria, Senegal, Morocco, Spain, Portugal, The Netherlands, Denmark, Great Britain and New York.

For a catalog describing how you can include a semester at sea in your educational plans, fill in the information below and mail.

PEANUTS

HELLO, LINUS? I HAVE A PROBLEM... YEAH, IT'S ME... PEPPERMINT PATCH...

NOW, YOU TOLD ME THAT THE "GREAT PUMPKIN" WOULD APPEAR IF I HAD A VERY SINCERE PUMPKIN PATCH... NOW, YOU ALSO KNOW THAT I DIDN'T HAVE A PUMPKIN PATCH...

WELL, I WENT OUT AND BOUGHT TEN PUMPKINS AND TRIED TO FAKE IF YOU'LL PARDON THE EXPRESSION, A PUMPKIN PATCH... NOW, YOU TELL ME, AND TELL ME STRAIGHT... AM I A HYPOCRITE??!

WHAT DO I TELL HER? DON'T ASK ME, YOU'RE THE THEOLOGIAN!

DIDN'T I MEET YOU IN THE STAR AN' GARTER LAS'NIGHT? I DON'T THINK SO, MATE, I NEVER GO IN THE STAR AN' GARTER.

NEITHER DO I... IT MUST'VE BEEN TWO OTHER FELLERS.

YEAH, MUST'VE BEEN
