- Erhard -

Such purchases help to offset the dollar drain in the maintenance of American Armed Forces in Germany.

A squabble over the taxes led to the resignation of four free Democratic Party ministers from Erhard's coalition government last week, leaving only Christian Democrats at the helm. They lack a majority in Parliament and it is uncertain whether new levies can be approved.

Erhard, now 69, told a closed-door meeting of party leaders that he would not stand in the way of formation of a new government.

Will Rasner, the Christian Democrats' floor manager in the Bundestag, relayed that statement to newsmen after a caucus of the party's Bundestag membership.

Then Erhard showed up before the newsmen and repeated it. The plump former economics minister was his usual serious self, but did not seem especially depressed.

He said that he also intended to take part in further negotiations as chairman of the party. Apparently he was thinking about the formation of the next cabinet.

An informed source said earlier that Erhard had agreed to resign if he could take part fully in selection of a new government chief. It has been widely reported that he favors Gerhard Schroeder, the foreign minister, as his successor.

Here. The frosty taste of Fresca. It's a blizzard.

Fresca is the new cold drink with the frosty, cold taste. And of course, it's sugar-free.

Just how refreshing is Fresca? This refreshing: Icy, biting, bold, cold, frosty, wintry, breezy, shivering, shimmering, shuddering, stinging, springy, sparkling, splashing, nipping, chilling, lively, light, bright, brisk, bouncing, bubbling, piercing, nearly freezing, and almost shocking.

There's never been a taste so refreshing. It's a blizzard.
