Wednesday, November 9, 1966

THE DAILY TAR HEEL

Campus Briefs

Paull Case Featured

"The course is freshman English, the poet Andrew Marvell, and the poem one of the finest and most quoted in English literature, 'To His Coy Mistress.' The subject is seduction. .

This is the way the current issue of Life magazine, which went on sale locally yesterday, begins its story of "The Coy Mistress Caper."

The magazine devotes four pages to the still unsettled controversy arising from the reassignment of UNC English instructor Michael Paull because of a controversial class assignment.

Final action by the English Department is expected soon. Photographs of Raleigh television commentator Jesse Helms who instigated the controversy, Paull, Chancellor Sitterson and others who have been involved in the controversy accompany the article.

Labor Topic Set

The first in a series of forum - discussions on labor problems in the South will be held Friday at the Wesley Foundation.

Paul Swaity, vice president and Southern Regional Director of the Textile Workers' Union of America, will speak on the need of labor unions in the south.

Jointly sponsored by the North Carolina Chapter of the League of Industrial Democracy and by UNC Students for a Democratic Society, the meeting begins at 4. Swaity began his career as a textile organizer in the South. He later became Canadian director of the Textile Workers Union, and then advisor to William Pollock, president of TWUA.

Since 1964, he has been Southern Regional Director, with offices located in Charlotte.

Combo At Craige

Craige Residence College will present a combo party featuring the Monzas Friday night.

The dance will be held from 8 p.m. to midnight in the Voodoo Room in Craige with an admission charge of $1.50 per couple

The dance is part of a weekend of scheduled activities at Craige for "Winter Mavericks"

There was massive ballot-box stuffing this election -Photo by Jock Lauterer

New Literary Mag Sells December 10 By DIANE WARMAN

DTH Staff Writer

The first issue of a new quarterly literary magazine, "Lillabulero," will go on sale on December 10.

Editing the new publication is Russell Banks, a senior from Concord, N. H. Associate Editors are William P. Matthews, III, a graduate student in English from Cincinnati, Ohio, and David W. Malli-

Valkyries Select Ten

(Continued from Page 1). University through her high scholastic achievement. Miss Price's high character and warm personality have earned her the respect of all those who know her.' Miss Witt . . . "One who has combined academic endeavor and service to the University in a unique manner. Miss Witt has achieved excellence in her academic scholarship and has correspondingly served the University by her contributions to the YWCA, Carolina Forum, Carolina Political Union, Women's Honor Couhcil, and her sorority. Her pleasant personality, dependability and steady purpose exemplify her outstanding character.'

Mrs. Allcott . . . "One who has demonstrated an inspiring vitality for life in her home and in her work as a counselor for the Testing Service. As a member of the Women's Planning Board, she has given willingly of both her time and talent. Mrs. Allcott's warm and tolerant personality, her originality and her strong personal commitment have earned her the friendship and admiration of her associates in all levels of uni-

NOW PLAYING THE CITY THAT BECAME A TORCH — THE TORCH THAT FIRED THE WORLD

ary organization. They are versity work." Mrs. Forrest . . . "Опе Susan Gertrude Gretz, Henwhose life at the University dersonville; Mary Susan Kirk, Raleigh; Anne Marie has been devoted to the stu-Peacock, Charlotte; Mary dents. As hostess of West Cobb, she has served with Joan Woodworth Walls, Chapel Hill, Madeline Dell Gray, kindness and love. Her sin-

Charlotte, and Sharon Marie cere interest and concern is evidenced by her unequalled O'Donnell, Annandale, Va. willingness to be available to the girls at anytime, night or day. She is one who has truly earned the respect and admir-ation of the University and its students."

The new tapees join seven 151 E. Rosemary 947-3173 other members of the honor-

Page 3

Would you believe

"College Men Only"?

COLLEGE LIFE INS. Co.

they can't put you up this Thanksgiving at Maxwell's Plum or Friday's in the new East-Sixties scene, or at Arthur or The Rolling Stone ... but there's a place down the street that can!

THE WALDORF-ASTORIA

Park Avenue between 49th and 50th Streets. For Thanksgiving Weekend, the place to be is the East Side, from 48th to 63rd Streets, and all the disco-stops in between. So why spend half your vacation shuttling back and forth across town? New York's best hotel just happens to be right next door to practically anywhere you want to see or be seen. And the student rates are really something

Compute-A-Date DON'T BE STUCK WITH POT LUCK

You too can take part in the new scientific match game. Be linked with someone in your area who shares your likes and dislikes by Compute-A-Date, the only scientific matching system exclusively serving the southeastern region. For free computation sheet, write:

> Compute-A-Date, Inc. Southeastern Regional Office P. O. Box 9176 Asheville, N. C. 28805

DAILY CROSSWORD 2. Member 19. Breeze ACROSS 20. Lettuce 1. Kill ofa 22. Two-Las Vegas 5. Red-bellied majority yearwoodold 3. Greeting pecker 9. Cooking 4. Affirmasalmon 23. Gridtive apparatus 10. Helpers reply iron 5. Container shoes 12. Relieves 24. Cavifor 13. Apporties tioned, tea 6. Hastens 25. Affix Yesterday's Answer asa 7. Ohio 32. Am. preach bridge hand to 26. Discollege and writer 14. Before (1759-1825) town figure 15. Public 33. Capitol 28. Cat's 8. Capital notices of No. foot fellows: 16. Music note 30. Author Ireland abbr. 17. Uneven, 35. Wagon 9. Observes of as in "The 38. Female 11. Gazes quality 15. N.Z. vine Highdeer 20. Vehicle 18. One 39. Am. wav-21. Narrow of the man" humorist inlet Great Lakes 31. Stranger 40. Meadow 22. Posture 23. Seat 26. Spars 27. Veinlike deposit 28. Parity 29. Ancient times 30. Becomes less wide 34. Man's nickname 35. Farm animal 36. English river 37. Now 39. Wellknown Pilgrim 41. Took an oath 42. Supposes 43. Places 44. Organs of hearing DOWN 1. Begin son, of Greensboro, who graduated from U.N.C. in June with a degree in English.

The purpose of the magazine, as expressed by its editors, is "to act as an outlet for writers who, for various reasons, cannot get their material published by a major publishing company.

"We are aiming for a high-literary audience whose response to literature is not going to be dictated by any particular school of writing.

"We are neither 'beat' nor 'academic.' We judge on the merit of the individual piece.

"'Lillabulero' is not intended as competition for the 'Carolina Quarterly,' " Banks continued. "We supplement each other.

Plans for distribution of the magazine include such places as Chapel Hill, Boston, New York, Iowa City, Albuquerque, London, Oxford, Copenhagen, Paris, Rome, Benares, and many other cities in America and abroad.

The decision to start the magazine grew out of an informal discussion which took place between Banks, Matthews, and Mallison last February.

"It was in response to a challenge-that you couldn't turn out a high-quality literary magazine for less than $20,000 an issue. And we've done it," the three stated proudly.

Financing for "Lillabulero" comes primarily from patrons, "people who believe that there is room for one more literary magazine, especially one that is fair to the authors," said Russell Banks.

"We will publish as long as we are financially able. We cannot, and do not, expect to make a profit.' The price of the magazine will be 75 cents a copy.

There are no special standards for student contributors.

"We would read a manuscript by John Steinbeck with no greater leniency than we would read a manuscript from a student in Peachfuzz Dorm. We are aware that the great American novel may well be written by someone under 21."

Material selected for the first issue includes poetry, fiction, non-fiction (primarily reviews by staff members), and a photographic essay.

Authors represented range from Lucius Shepard, a U.N.C. junior, to Nelson Algren, who is a National Book Award winner and has been translated into 14 languages.

Persons wishing to contact the staff of "Lillabulero" may visit their offices on the second floor of the YMCA Building or write to P. O. Box 1027.

ments in the last few weeks. Yet, Jones said he would speak to "any group but that bunch at the University of North Carolina." His reference was to students at Chapel Hill.

know a barber."

is immediately string

Dragon Hits

'Mangy' UNC

CHARLOTTE (AP) - J.

Robert Jones, grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan in North Carolina, complained of weariness from his

ments during a visit to

"It's 607 miles from one end of this state to the other," he said, listing his

several speaking engage-

Charlotte Monday.

many

speaking engage-

301 Park Avenue, New York, New York, (212) EL 5-3000.

Pre angles

1051. C 10 - 10 - 10 - 21 170

cal skalch, the article stated that THE WEAT INTRINUT ANW AN

GETWITH THEACTION

GO OVER THE CALF WITH SLIP-NOT