

ABOUT THE MOST different item in this year's parade were the floats. It was enough to make some townspeople shudder. the convincing herd of "Hells Angels" that thundered about Here's a float in tribute to Uncle Jesse. The whole street

(Continued from Page 1) son his name is high on the than they have on the field.

The Blue Devils' injury list is as long as that compiled by the Tar Heels. Center Mike Murphy, an All - America certainty when the season began, is out for the season with an injured knee. Then there's offs tight end Henley Carter, linestarters and all have missed games this fall.

But in all football games, and in today's in particular, all the injuries become just excuses. When the opening gun sounds, both teams will be playing with what they have. And they will both be playing

The Blue Devils and the Tar Heels have fine individuals who are capable of carrying the football into the endzone today and capable of providing exciting football for the packed crowd of 47,000 in Kenan Stadium.

Larry Davis is now Duke's number one quarterback. He began the season as a defensive back.

Three weeks ago he didn't even know the offensive plays. But now he has developed into a fine srambing quarter-

Jay Calabrese is the hard running fullback who has the their pride this fall. They are

Duke-UNC: Mirror Images Durham a year ago. This sea-

> list of ACC rushers. Calabrese, responsibility of running the ball is shared with halfback Andy Beath. Beath is a fine rusher, and he also returns punts and kick -

Split end Dave Dunaway is backer Glenn Newman, guard a great receiver. He has given Jerry Barringer, and tackle Duke its aerial attack. He has Malcom Travelstead, all are caught 40 passes for a 38 yard average. Injured Danny Talbott will forced to vacate the quarterback spot and his roommate, Jeff Beaver, will start today's game for the Tar Heels. Last Saturday against Air Force he proved that he can do the job, and do it well.

Carolina probably will move the ball in the air with Jeff Beaver throwing new records to Charlie Carr.

Dave Riggs and Dick Wesolowski gave the Tar Heels a running game last week, and they should be able to get the ball over the goal line today. Today at 1:30 a story will unfold in Chapel Hill. The story involves two teams which are mirror images of one an-The story's ending can't be confidently predicted because that's the way it is whenever Duke and Carolina do battle on a football field. The Tar Heels have lost hero of the embarrassment in capable of regaining it today. Harold Howe.

Campus Briefs

APO Honors Bennett

Long-time supervisor of Operations for UNC John S. Bennett was honored recently by the Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity for his be allocated by the next ses-'years of unselfish support, sion of the general assembly assistance and service to to continue the services of the the University and to the fra- two schools. ternity."

Bennett, who has retired as maintenance supervisor and is now in an advisory capacity, was awarded a plaque by in Winston-Salem. the fraternity.

"The APO fraternity is grateful to Bennett," Director of Housing James Wadsworth. faculty advisor for the group, said. "He has helped provide equipment and a good place for us to meet in the basement of Smith Dormitory and has served the University

McAndrew Is Guest

Dr. Gordon McAndrew, acting director of the Learn-Institute of North Carolina, will be the featured guest on North Carolina News Conference Monday.

Dr. McAndrew is former director of the N. C. Advancement School, a position to which he was appointed by U.S. Commissioner of Education

Both the Learning Institute and the Advancement School are projects initiated during the administration of former governor Terry Sanford. Gov. Dan Moore has said that a committee is studying the two schools to see if money should leader Dick Starnes led the post-parade pep rally from top

The Learning Institute is located at Quail Roost Conference Center, Rougemont, while the Advancement School is

Companies Interview

These companies will interview on campus the week after Thanksgiving:

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28 -Columbia University School of Law; Deering Milliken; Gillette Safety Razon Co. (summer work also); John C. Muse & Co.; U. S. Naval Propellant Plant (summer work also); Wohl Shoe Company.

TUESDAY, NOV. 29 - Bank of Virginia (summer work also); Bureau of the Budget (summer work also); M. W. Kellogg Co.; Owens - Corning Fiberglass Corp.; Vestal Labs; Burlington Industries.

Wednesday, Nov. 30 - Vestal Labs; Burlington Industries; First Union National Bank; Communicable Disease Center, U. S. Public Health Service; Corning Glass Works.

> While in the program, a cadet will receive a $40 per

Sweaters Make

Anytime

The perfect complement to any fan wardrobe is an elegant sweater from THE HUB . . .

Only the finest weaving could produce such pleasing blends, which includes autumn gold, antique, and dawn.

The finest tailoring available insures that the saddle shoulders are snug and not binding; that the arms and body will never ride up . . . From 12.95.

Make your shopping a one stop pleasure instead of an all-day venture at

Of Chapel Hill

AFROTC Begins Campus Recruiting Recruiting for the new two- month subsistence allowance

a private pilot license.

material and uniforms are fur-

A cadet must complete two year Air Force ROTC program which is tax free. All books, at UNC begins this week.

The two - year program was nished, Chaffin said. authorized under the ROTC Vitalization Act of 1964. It per- years of Aerosapce Studies. At mits students who are enrolled Carolina three course credits in colleges offering AFROTC and 12 hour credits are given and have two years of aca- for the courses, Chaffin said. demic work remaining to enter the officer training program and compete for commissions in the Air Force.

Also eligible for the program are junior college stu- program qualifies a cadet for dents who plan to transfer to a four - year college offering

Air Force ROTC. To be eligible for the program, a student must have a 2.0 average, be physically qua- on active duty or five years lified and make an acceptable if he is a pilot or navigator. score on the Air Force Officer Qualifying Test. He must be at least 17 years old and not more that 28 upon graduation and commissioning. He also must have two years remaining of either undergraduate or graduate work, and he must attend a six - week Field Training Course in the summer at an Air Force base.

"For the six weeks, a cadet will be paid $120 plus travel pay to and from the base," Cadet Bill Chaffin, head of the recruiting program, said. If accepted, a student will be enrolled in the Professional Officer Corps (POC) for two years. He will be given a until graduation.

You're Way Ahead Of The Crowd!

All the other guys in your group are still behind the times with their old flat faced suits. You know that the big look is texture, and your new University Oxford weave suit in great heather colorings sets an example in good fashion know-how. Vested suits start at 69.50

Harsity Men's Wear

Clothiers of Distinction FRANKLIN STREET

Go Bowling Tonite! ALL STAR LANES

-DTH Photos by Jock Lauterer

Eastgate Shopping Center 968-4404

Wenn Sie 18 Jahre oder älter sind und einigermassen mit Ihrem Deutsch zurechtkommen, dann senden Sie diesen Gutschein ein. Er könnte Ihnen Vergnügen und vielleicht sogar Nutzen bringen!

Please send me an application form and brochure about Student Summer Jobs in Germany for 1967.

University: Semester: Address:

Lufthansa

If you ever write

send it to us

best-reviewed book

THE PAINTED BIRD

"memorable . . . searing . . . vivid . . . '

'stunning . . . a brilliant maverick . . . '

"extraordinary . . . literally staggering

NOW AT YOUR 95¢

POCKET BOOKS

a division of Simon & Schuster, Inc. 630 Fifth Avenue, N.Y., N.Y. 10020

... one of the most powerful books

-Richard Kluger, Book Week

"fascinating . . . astonishing . . ."

-New York Times

-(London) Sunday Times

-(France) L'Humanité

I have ever read ...

in the world in 1966

probably the

a book this good...

The prime contender for the leadership in fall fashions is the tasteful collection of dress shirts at THE HUB . . .

wo Fa me CE St.,

tive

ply Offi Cha

roll to see continued and relegion p.m. ROO strice

local

Tailored to a man's comfort, in traditional button down with tapered body, box pleat and locker loop in back.

A wide variety of subtle shades, pleasant paisleys and stunning stripes insures your pleasure . . . From 5.95,

Of Chapel Hill

LONG TERM OR SHORT TERM CALL US AT 942-2920 For Details

EASTGATE HARDW*i*

EASTGATE

After Shave Lotion Cologne for Men

Deluxe Gift Set

$3.75 $5.00 $8.75

Campus Calendar

SATURDAY Combo Party in front of Graham Memorial, 4-6 p.m. The Magnificents play. Hillel Sabbath Service 9:30. There will be no Sunday

Supper social at Hillel House. Next social is Dec. SUNDAY

Holy Communion Service 11:00 at Wesley Foundation, 214

Pittsboro St. Rev. Bill Weber will preach. He will speak at symposium at Wesley Foundation, 4:00 p.m.

LOST Pair of black rimmed glasses around Joyner or Conner. Reward. 406 Mangum. German Shepherd, brown markings. Last seen at DU House, Reward, 942-3486.

The

PINE ROOM

WILL BE OPEN BEFORE THE GAME TODAY FROM 7 A.M. - 1 P.M.

STOP BY before the game and pick up one of our REDDI-MADE

CHICKEN BOXES

And Get One For Your Date-

Only

Each

GET A GOOD SEAT AND EAT IN THE STANDS

THE

PINE ROOM

The Place To Eat, Dine, And Snack