

Does beer improve with age?

definitely definitely not not indefinitely

Some people have the notion that the longer beer is aged, the better. But ask our brewmaster and he'll say, "Only up to a point."

He puts it this way: "Just continuing to store beer in lagering tanks at a brewery will make it continually older. But not continually better. Storing a case of beer in your basement for a couple of months won't help it any either. What's really important is how the beer is aged."

If it's Beechwood Aged, it's beer that can't get any better.

Of course, that rather limits the number of beers that qualify. In fact, you can count 'em on one finger.

Library Gets Grant

The U. S. Office of Education has awarded two grants worth $117,000 to the University's School of Library Science and Bureau of Audiovisual Education.

Announcement of the National Defense Education Act grants was made by Dr. C. Hugh Holman, Provost of the University.

The $95,000 grant to the School of Library Science will support an institute for elementary and secondary school librarians in school librarianship.

Librarians admitted to the institute will receive a stipend for their subsistence and support for each dependent. Participants must have fifteen semester hours credit in Library Science in order to be eligible to participate in the Institute.

The $58,000 grant to the Bureau of Audiovisual Education will support an Educational Media Institute for elementary and secondary school teachers or librarians.

The institute program will be conducted in cooperation with the School of Library Science and is designed to upgrade the knowledge and skills of persons working for the professional application of instructional materials including motion pictures, film strips, graphics, programmed instruction and other video and audio materials.

Electronics Van Here

A van from Schafer Electronics will be parked behind Swain Hall today demonstrating automatic broadcast systems.

Dr. W. H. Wallace, of the Radio, Television and Motion Department, arranged for the van to be here today. This will be the only time the van will be in this area during the year.

Concerning the demonstration, Dr. Wallace said:

"Through the proper use of automatic devices, creative people have more time in radio to do those special tasks where originality is important and the machines take over the drudgery and routine."

The demonstration will show the ways complete program flexibility can be built into a machine.

Wiley Named

W. L. Wiley, Kenan Professor of French, has been named chairman of a committee to select the first winners of fellowships to be awarded by the newly established National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities.

Dr. Barnaby Keeney, former president of Brown University who is chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities, an agency of the Arts and Humanities Fnd. in Washington, D. C., appointed Prof. Wiley to the selection group in the southern states region.

Two kinds of awards will be made: academic year post-doctoral fellowships and summer school stipends for younger teacher - scholars in the Humanities.

Weinrib To Visit

The Art Department has announced that David Weinrib will be visiting sculptor on December 2.

He will speak in 115 Ackland at 8 p.m. that night. The public is cordially invited.

Weinrib is one of the foremost contemporary sculptors today, and has exhibited in numerous shows around the country, perhaps the largest being the Whitney Museum of American Art's 1964 Annual Exhibition of Contemporary American Sculpture from December 9, 1964.
