

Varsity Glee Club In Concert Tonight

The UNC Varsity Glee Club, which last summer placed third in world competition at the Llangollen Music Festival, Wales, will perform Nov. 22 at 8 p.m. in the Tuesday Evening Concert Series at Hill Hall.

The program will be divided into two parts — sacred and secular. The sacred numbers include: "If Ye Love Me," by Thomas Tallis; "Gloria," by Josquin DesPrez; "O Filii et Filiae," by Leising; and "Arise, O Ye Servants of God," by Sweelink.

The secular portion includes the following selections: "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," new arrangement by Heath; "Down in the Valley;" "Seeing Nelly Home," by Robert Shaw; and "Tee-Too."

The traditional closing number is "Hark the Sound." The Glee Club, made up primarily of non-music majors, now charges for its performances while traveling. "We're still trying to pay for that European Tour," said Lee Faulkner, the club's publicity director.

The charges for their services is $125.00 per concert. The group presented a concert at Vardell Hall College, Red Spring, on Nov. 16. Their latest concert was at Southern Pines, for the San Mills Music Association.

This year the Glee Club is under the direction of Robert Porco.

The Publications Board will be interviewing anyone interested in serving as Assistant business manager of The Daily Tar Heel on Nov. 30 at 4:30.

BE THE FIRST in your group to wear the most talked-about shirt on campus . . . It's the Eagle half-tromblee with button-down pocket and 3/4" collar. The distinctive styling of this shirt sets you apart from the crowd — tastefully, of course.

Dear Son:
Please stop sniffing and kicking the leaves on campus and watching the creeping nudity of Fall.
Come on home and help me rake our yard.
Love,
Mom

Liz bites Burton

Elizabeth Taylor bites Richard Burton. She pulls his hair, screams at him and spits in his face. This is the way Shakespeare wrote "The Taming of the Shrew," and this is the way Liz plays it in the movie the Burtons are making in Italy. Get an intimate, on-the-set peek—watch the tempers flare and feathers fly—in Russell Brandon's piece in the current issue of The Saturday Evening Post. Is Liz, the shrew, really overpaid, overweight and under-talented? Study her picture on the cover! Also read John Pfeiffer's account of his African visit to Drs. Louis and Mary Leakey, who are digging for traces of our pre-human ancestors of 15 million years ago. (This article is a short course in Prehistory and Paleontology.) Follow navy flier Lt. j.g. Dieter Dengler in his 22-day escape from a Vietnam prison camp. Wind up with the story of Joe Namath, the $400,000 Alabama quarterback of the N. Y. Jets, who at age 23 is thinking of retirement. All this and more in the December 3 issue of the Post. Buy your copy today.

Don't just sit there, Wallace Middendorp. Make a noise. Or drink Sprite, the noisy soft drink.

What did you do when Joe (Boxcar) Brkczpluj was kicked off the football team just because he flunked six out of four of his majors? What did you do, Wallace Middendorp?

And when the school newspaper's editors resigned in protest because The Chancellor wouldn't allow the publication of certain salacious portions of "Night In a Girl's Dormitory" you just sat, didn't you?

WALLACE MIDDENDORP SAT HERE

You've made a mockery of your life, Wallace Middendorp! You're a vegetable. Protest, Wallace Middendorp. Take a stand. Make a noise! Or drink Sprite, the noisy soft drink.

Open a bottle of Sprite at the next campus speak-out. Let it fizz and bubble to the masses. Let its lusty carbonation echo through the halls of ivy. Let its tart, tingling exuberance infect the crowd with excitement. Do these things, Wallace Middendorp. Do these things, and what big corporation is going to hire you?

SPRITE. SO TART AND TINGLING. WE JUST COULDN'T KEEP IT QUIET.
