UNC debaters won five matches and lost three at the Georgetown Invitational Debate Tournament held last weekend at Georgetown University.

Craig Bradley, president of the team, said over 130 teams attended the tournament. The teams represented most of the major colleges and universities in the U. S.

Bradley described it as a "flip-flop" tournament with a team taking the affirmative side one time, and the negative side at another time. The teams debated the topic, "Resolved: That the U. S. should substantially reduce its foreign policy commitments."

The UNC team beat Stanford, Illinois, Vermont, Temple and Marietta of Ohio.

A blindfold test for beer.

If anybody ever says you can't pick Budweiser with your eyes shut, you can call his bluff.

First, stick your nose close to the foam of each glass of beer and take a sniff. Notice a difference? The one with the clean, fresh aroma is Budweiser.

Now taste. This gets a bit tricky. But the one beer that tastes like beer without any one flavor jumping out at you (like hops, or an extra sweetness, or sometimes a sour or sharp taste) is Budweiser. That's because Budweiser is blended—by our Beechwood Ageing. We want you to taste the beer, not the recipe.

If anybody pulls a beer-tasting test on you, now you know how to win. Just follow your nose.
