

THE ROLLING STONES

goings on

BY AVON PRIVETTE

Would you believe the Howell Savitz Sextet minus one? I thought not. In case you are having difficulty in identifying these five honeys, they are Brian Jones, Keith Richards, Bill Wyman, Mick Jagger, and Charlie Watts. Natch, the Stones.

In a whirlwind of term papers, outside readings, piled up quizzes, cold noses and things, Christmas time is drawing nigh. In these hectic two and a half weeks that remain, flicks, ball games, parties, the tube, friends, and buying gifts will help relieve the "tension."

The gaily decorated Franklin street boasts oodles of shops hoarding all kinds of goodies. Troy's stereo and tape center features brand names like the Fisher, Sony, and Ampex. The array of cameras and accessories at Foisters will fill Jock Lauterer with envy. The reliable Record Bar has many stereo tapes of swingin' albums. Many artists have released Christmas albums. Johnny Mathis, Ramsey Lewis, and The Four Seasons are just a few. Also a batch of new releases are in. Included in these are "The Four Tops—Live," "The Rolling Stones, 'Got Live,'" "Hums of the Lovin' Spoonful," "The Temptations Greatest Hit," "The Four Seasons Look Back," and the Miracles' "Away we a-go-go."

Last night, the Embers had their club a-swingin' and the Marilyn Monroe Spectacular on ABC television had all the tubes a-sizzlin'. Tonight we are going to take those pussy cats from Death Valley and stuff 'em in a cage 'n send 'em to the Bronx zoo.

It's happening over at Raleigh's Embers Club. Tomorrow, the Satans from Winston-Salem will be featured. Saturday, the Embers will be on hand to do hits from their new album, "The Embers Lucky Thirteen." Comin' up there in the next few weeks will be the Catalinas, the Tams, and Wilson Pickett!!!

Saturday, the Stardams will be on hand at the Craigie Red Garner Room for a crazee combo party. Saturday week, Granville West has a spectacular extravaganza planned featuring the mighty Monzas and the Showmen.

The fabulous Ray Charles will be starring in a big show at the Greensboro Coliseum on Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. Advanced tickets can be purchased at the Record Bar.

Flicks are in, you know. "Dean John" excited some and disappointed others. None the less, I guess everyone dug Thomas' part. "Poppy is also a flower" is currently playing at the Carolina. "The Professionals," one of the better flicks I've seen all year, is at both Durham's Center and Raleigh's Colony. Its star student cast includes Burt Lancaster, Lee Marvin, Jack Palance, and Claudia Cardinale. Raleigh's Village and Durham's Northgate are running Elvis' "Spinout." "The Fortune Cookie" is playing at Raleigh's State and "Hotel Paradiso" is playing at the Rialto.

Endless summer—a movie? An album? A dream? One of the greatest...breath-taking...and unbelievable. You will hear more later.
