Dolphins Torpedo The Chickens

By JOE SANDERS DTH Sports Writer

The UNC Dolphins showed strength, yesterday, when they drowned the South Carolina Gamecocks 69 - 40. Again swimming only half the squad, Coach Earey engineered his team to an early victory: UNC had already won when three events were still left to be swum. South Carolina failed to en-

Kentucky, Michigan, Duke Rated High In Respective Conferences

Last In A Series By KEITH DRUM

DTH Sports Writer Kentucky, champion of the Mid - East and runner - up to Texas Western, appears to be the cream of the crop in their region again. The Wildcats's All - American twosome, 6'3" Pat Riley and 6' Louie Dampier, return. Riley connected for 21.9 last year with Dampier close behind at 21.1. Coach Adolph Rupp has more height with 6'5" Thad Jaraez and 6'8" Cliff Berger in the ilne - up. Jaracz started last year and averaged 13.2. The other spot will go to 6'1" Jim LeMaster, 6'2" Bob Tallent or sophomore Phil Argento, 30.7 as a freshman. Rupp may hae trouble improving last year's 27 - 2

Cazzie Russell and Michigan dominated the Big Ten for three years, but their crossstate rival, Michigan State, should replace them at the top. Coach John Bennington has 6'7" Matthew Aitch, 6'3" Shannon Reading, 6' John Bailey and 6'6" Art Baylor (cousin of pro star Elgin Baylor) as returning lettermen. Again a sophomore, 6'6" Lee Lafayette, could be the star. In Bennington's first season as coach last year the Spartans were 17-7. Quite a difference from the previous year's 5-18.

A strong independent, as usual, will be Loyola of Chicago.

will divide the other positions. All - American Clem "the Gem" Haskins (20.4) leads the Hilltoppers of Western Kentucky, who are anxious to make up for a disputed lost to Michigan in the Mid-East Regionals. John Oldham's crew was 25-3 overall last year and should be as good. The Smith brothers, 6'4" Dwight (16.1) and 6'5" Greg (9.5) are back along wity 6'5" Wayne Chapman (13.3). Oldham hopes that 6'8" Willie Watson can supply some needed rebound-Outside shooting soph, 6'2" Rich Hendrick, 26.1 as a freshman.

> THE DEVILS FROM DURHAM

Duke, champions of the East Regionals three of the past four seasons, are the favorites once more. They face the stiffest challenge from their own conference, in the person of North Carolina.

Vic Bubas's Blue Devils were 26 - 4 last season and expect much of the same this year. All - American Bob Verga, 18-5, is the quickest gun in the South and should enjoy his finest year. Verga will do the George Ireland coached the scoring and 6'8" Mike Lewis Ramblers to a 22-3 season last will supply the rebounds. Bob year. Three of their starters Reidy, 6'6", will be at one for-ed by Joe Kennedy and Tim Kolodziej, both 6'6". Steve strong reserves. Opposite Verga at guard are 6'1" letterman Ron Wendelin and 6'2" soph Dave Golden.

BOB LEWIS played fine defense and poured in 18 points.

The Tar Heels of North Carolina are led by their one-two punch of Bobby Lewis (27.4) and Larry Miller (20.9). Coach Dean Smith must depend on sophomores for rebounding, but 6'11" Rusty Clark and 6'8" Bill Bunting have the size. Sophomore Dick Grubar, 6'4" playmaker, is the key to the Tar Heel offense. Bench strength is provided by 6'5" Tom Gauntlett, 6'5" Joe Brown, 6'3" Jim Bostick, 6'6" Mark Mirken, and 6' Gerald Tuttle. Depending on sophomores is dangerous but they are good and the presence of Miller and Lewis will make them better.

> JIM WALKER-NATION'S BEST

Pound for pound, inch for inch, the best college basketball player is Providence's 6'3" Jim Walker, All - American the past two years. He aeraged 24.5 for Coach Joe Mullaney last season, Mike Riordan, 10.3 and a defensive stalwart, is the only other returning starter. A junior college transfer, 6'8" Tony Koski, will provide the rebounds. Sophomores dominate the rest of the team and two should be good enough to start, 6'5" Bill Judkins (22.2) and 5'11" Al Hayes (20.8).

Boston College was 21-5 last season and Coach Bob Cousy expects this year's team to be his best ever. Record - setter John Austin graduated, but hope is high because of two season emergence of 6'6" Steve Adelman. Adelman ended the season at 20.3, but was over 30 the last ten games. Willy Wolters, 6'8", returns at center where he set a school rebounding record. Doug Hice, 6'2", and Jim Kissane, 6'8", are also back.

LaSalle had its finest frosh team in history and hopes to have its finest varsity team since the golden days of Tom Gola. Senior Hubie Marshall, 5'11", averaged 26.9 last year and is the only letterman sure of a job. George Paull (14.5) and Bill Ring (6.1) may be pushed aside. Sophomores sure to start are 6'3" Bernie Williams (21.8) and 6'5" Larry Cannon (20.9). Others like 6'8" Fran Scott, 6'5" Stan Wodarczyk and 6'5" Isiah King will see lots of action. Coach Joe Heyer expects much improvement on last year's 10-15 sea-
