A film version of "Die Letzte Tage der Menschheit" (The Last Days of Mankind) by the Viennese satirist, Karl Kraus, will be shown in the Faculty Lounge of Dey Hall on Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. Newspaper war-reporting is Kraus' main target in the play, a series of scenes showing the irresponsible little people in Vienna as they were and as the journalist presented. Much humor is produced by a confrontation of early dialect and pompous high German. The style combines aspects of realism, expressionism and theater of the absurd. Admission free.

Majors Talks Set

Majors seminar will sponsor the following professors from the Humanities Departments to speak at 7:30 p.m. in Gerard Hall: History, Dr. Barbara Schorrenberg; Religion, Dr. Sam Hill; American Studies, Dr. Richard Lyon; Journalism, Dr. Walter Spearman. Everyone is invited.

SP Group Meets

The Advisory Board of the Student Party will meet Tuesday at 3:00 p.m. in the Woodhouse Room, 2nd floor G.M. All members are requested to be present since this will be the last meeting of the fall semester.

ACM Chapter Meets

On January 12 there will be a joint meeting of the Central Carolina ACM Chapter and the UNC Student ACM Chapter.

Professor Jerome A. Feldman of Stanford University will talk on "Computer-Compilers in Time-Sharing Systems." The talk will cover the uses of a single computer-compiler in a multi-access programming system. Specific examples will be cited from the MIT Lincoln Laboratory System. The meeting will be at 8:00 p.m. in 265 Phillips Hall. Professor Feldman is now a member of the faculty of the Computer Science Department at Stanford University.

—Wrestlers Win—

But the reversal was followed with an immediate crossbody by Wanzer which got him in a vulnerable position on his back. It was only a matter of seconds before Hicks was able to slide Wanzer's shoulders to the mat for a rather unorthodox pin at 4:07.

The pin again put State ahead at 14-9, but those five points were the last State managed.

Fred Priester (C) raised UNC's score to a more favorable 12 in 177, coming from a one-point deficit to win 6-2. With the team score standing 14-12, State, the outcome of the match depended on heavyweights Steve Lister (C) and Gary Whitman (S).

An illegal hold was called on Lister while the wrestlers were tying-up, giving Whitman a beginning one-point advantage.

A reversal and a predicament soon put Lister ahead at 4-1, but an escape by Whitman and another foul called against Lister put Whitman back in a threatening position at 4-3.

At this point Lister seemed hesitant to try holds he had been caught on in Carolina's last two meets, but instructions from Coach Sam Barnes were, "Steven, you throw a takedown!"

Lister got the takedown with 20 seconds left in the match, putting it out of reach and winning the meet for UNC with a 15-14 score.

Carolina now stands 4-2 overall and 1-1 in the ACC. State is 1-3 and 0-3 in the conference. In the preliminary freshman meet, State freshmen downed UNC 26-11.

STATISTICS:

—Tar Babies—

The Pirates narrowed the gap at the end of the half and left the floor of its cracker-box gym with only a 35-29 deficit, outscoring UNC 11-2 in the closing minutes.

Inspired by its comeback, Each Carolina closed to within three points at 36-33 at the start of the second half. The Tar Babies appeared to be in serious trouble with three of its starters in an unhealthy foul situation. Brown called a timeout at that juncture and switched to a 1-3-1 zone.

From that point on, Carolina pulled away. Scott was obviously given the word to shoot after only three first half attempts and he responded with six field goals. Delaney added four fielders and the Tar Babies were on their way.

Carolina quickly ran up a 52-38 lead and gradually expanded it to 20 points. UNC's largest advantage of the night was a 72-50 score.

Brown switched back to a man-to-man defensive setup after the resurgence and Delaney followed Fogler from the contest with five fouls.

With 1-2 minutes remaining, the UNC bench was empty. Like Red Auerbach's victory - lighting cigar, a vacated bench is Brown's symbol of an assured win.

Dolphins Dunk Virginia Tech

The UNC Dolphins defeated the Virginia Tech Gobblers yesterday 65-29 at Bowman Gray Pool. It was Carolina's seventh win in eight meets.

The 400-yard medley relay remained undefeated with senior Jack Hayden turning in an outstanding :54.1 on the butterfly leg.

Joe Sanders won the 200-yard freestyle with Bill Stromeyer in second place. Strud Norfleet and Steve Hildenbrand followed with wins in the 200-yard individual medley and 50-yard freestyle.

SG 'Tiring' To Students Says Travis

"Students are tired of too much student government," Student Party chairman Bob Travis told his party Sunday.

Travis said students are tired of "a student government that is top-heavy with administrative paraphernalia — dealing often in esoteric debates rather than responding to do the essential needs of the students."

The educational reform movement is an example of a "new mood of change" on campus, he said.

The last two SP administrations have dealt with many of the toughest issues the campus has ever faced, Travis said.

"But all student government in recent years has gotten less personal and further away from the individual students," he said. "A recovery of person-oriented student government must be made."

Travis, who is an administrative assistant to Student Body Bob Powell, said the present administration "has only begun to fulfill" some of the long range goals which it has promised.

"There is much to be done and no doubt the opposition will attack us for the work we have not yet finished," he said.

Travis said these issues "must be pushed or lost." Travis said his party could win the student body presidency again if the party members have desire.

He reminded them of the 1961 spring election when Bill Harriss, who had previously lost a campus-wide election, won over the "master plan" of the University Party.

The master plan, he said, is to promote a "golden boy" who is "very handsome, always saying just the right comment at just the right time, and always smiling."
