

Kenan Professorship Included In 14 New Faculty Appointments Announced

The first William R. Kenan, Jr. professorship to be established from trust funds presented to the University last May is included in 14 new faculty appointments.

The appointments were announced by President William C. Friday and Chancellor J. Carlyle Sitterson following approval by the Board of Trustees.

Dr. Glendon Schubert, who has just completed two years as a Senior Scholar in Residence at the East-West Center at the University of Hawaii, is the first William R. Kenan, Jr. Professor.

Holding degrees from Syracuse, he will join the political science faculty in August. Author of nine books and numerous articles, Dr. Schubert has taught at the UCLA, Howard University, Rutgers, Franklin and Marshall College, and Michigan State.

Melvin C. Poland will join the law faculty in February as a professor.

He holds degrees from Kansas State, Washburn University, and the University of Michigan and is currently a professor of law here.

Dr. J. Stacy Adams will join the Business Administration faculty as Reynolds Professor of Applied Behavioral Science next September.

A native of Brussels, Belgium, he was graduated from the University of Mississippi and received the masters and Ph.D. degrees from UNC.

A Clinton, S. C., native, Dr. James Isaac Copeland, will join the history faculty next September as a professor and replacement for Dr. James Patton, who is retiring as director of the Southern Historical Collection of the Library. Patton will continue as a part-time professor of history.

Copeland holds degrees from Presbyterian College, George Peabody College and UNC.

In August, Dr. Eugene Hannes Falk, a native of Czechoslovakia, will join the Romance Languages Department as a professor. He was educated at the Sorbonne in Paris, German University in Prague, Charles University in Prague and Victoria University in Manchester, England. Falk is currently chairman of the Romance Languages Department and Edward T. Dick Professor of French and Comparative Literature at Dartmouth. For 10 years, he headed the department at the University of Minnesota.

In the English Department, Dr. Robert Louis Haig will replace Prof. Richmond P. Bond next September. Haig holds degrees from Kent State and Indiana University. Since 1953, he has held various teaching posts at the University of Illinois.

Dr. George Schlesinger will begin duties this month as a professor of philosophy. An Australian citizen, he has been a reader at the Australian National University and a visiting professor at the University of Minnesota.

Joining the education faculty in February will be Dr. Ron Willson Davis as an associate professor. He was educated at Reed College in Portland, Ore., and Columbia University.

For the past two years, Dr.

Willson has been assistant superintendent of elementary education in the Euclid, Ohio, schools.

Replacing Dr. Earl A. Slocum, who will retire in July, will be Harold Lee Andrews, a Ph.D. candidate at UNC. He holds an undergraduate degree from UNC and the masters degree from Indiana University. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

A Berlin native and research associate at the University here for the past year will become an assistant professor of physics in February. Dr. Dietrick Schroeder holds his degrees from Ohio State, where he served as a graduate assistant and became a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Morrison Offers Meal Tickets For Faculty Guests At Chase

By STEVE KNOWLTON
DTH Staff Writer

Morrison students can now invite any member of the faculty to dine with him free of charge.

Any Morrison student who wants to eat dinner with any member of the faculty at Chase Cafeteria can do so by getting a meal ticket, free from a residence advisor, announced Parker Hudson, Acad. Lt., Gov. of Morrison Residential College yesterday.

The student who wishes to dine with a faculty gets a meal ticket from his R. A., and puts on it his name and room number, and the faculty guest's name.

At Chase Cafeteria, the student gives the ticket to the cashier, who notes the price of the guest's meal. At the end of the month, Morrison will pick up the tab for the meals.

The meal ticket idea is "sort of an adaptation of the system they have at the University of Massachusetts", according to Hudson, a delegate at the Amherst Conference in October.

They were instituted "as a way of achieving greater faculty - student participation in the residential college system," Hudson said.

"We're not trying to restrict or propagandize anyone," he
