Prof To Talk

Dr. Rudolf Arnheim, noted psychology professor at Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N.Y., will lecture on psychology and art at 8 p.m. Wednesday March 15 in Room 115, Ackland Art Center at the University of North Carolina campus.

His topic is "The Dynamics of Shape." Arnheim has been a member of the Sarah Lawrence psychology faculty since 1943. His interest in the relation of art to psychology was formulated during his student days in Germany where he took his Ph.D. degree in psychology at the University of Berlin. He is currently studying visual factors in concept formation on a grant from the U.S. Office of Education for the 1966-67 academic year.

Show Profits Go To Fight Arthritis

Beta Theta Pi fraternity will donate the proceeds from its upcoming James Brown Show and Dance to the North Carolina Arthritis Foundation Emergency Loan Fund.

"Having a benefit for charity is an attempt to combine the social aspect of our fraternity with the public service aspect," said Fraternity president Ed Good. "We also want to help students, since it is a show which caters to students. For that reason, we're giving part of the proceeds to the Emergency Loan Fund."

The Betas are handling all promotion for the show which will be presented in the Planter's Warehouse on March 23, the day before spring break begins.

"We're very pleased that the Betas are doing this for us," said Robert Pace, director of the Arthritis Association. The foundation has two major fund raising drives each year. In 1965, they raised $29,000; in 1966, $70,000. The goal for this year is $100,000.

German Plans Philology Talk

Juniors Plan Keg Party

Free beer and the Fabulous Five will highlight the junior class party to be held Friday at the American Legion Hut from 3 to 5 p.m.

"This party is for the juniors," says junior class social chairman Nancy Merritt. "We've worked on several projects during the year and some of the money we made is going into a 'project for FUN!'"

Under the leadership of President Don Johnson, the class has sold Carolina bumper stickers and art prints. Plans for spring include selling Carolina mugs on campus.

Radio Drama Tryouts

Tryouts for Norman Corwin's "The Odyssey of Runyon Jones" will be held in Studio 3 of Swain Hall Annex Thursday at 7:30 p.m. and Friday, March 10 at 4 p.m. This famous radio drama will be re-created and performed "live" before a studio audience as a part of the 1967 Fine Arts Festival. Parts are available for seven men, four women and an 11 year-old boy. The production will be directed by Frank Beaver of the RTVMP faculty.

League To Tour

The League of Women Voters will sponsor a "Go-See Tour" of the State House in Raleigh on Thursday. All League members and their guests are invited to attend this biennial Legislative Day to view first-hand the mechanics and members of the State Legislature.

The highlight of the day will be addresses to the group by Lt. Governor Robert Scott and Speaker of the House David Britt. League members will also be introduced to the Senate and House Chairmen on Election Laws and Courts. The League has studied the State election laws and court system intensively during the past few years.

The afternoon program will feature a panel discussion on "The Role of the Lobbyist" in the auditorium of the State House. Participants include Donald Matthews, UNC professor of political science, a legislator, and a registered lobbyist.

Non-members of the League are invited to attend as guests. Further information and transportation can be obtained by calling Mrs. Robert Wetach at 968-1281.

AFROTC Head Visits

Colonel Bryson R. Bailey, Area Commandant of AFROTC, is visiting the 590th AFROTC Detachment on the UNC campus today and tomorrow. He has come to talk with cadets informally about the AFROTC program and how to improve it.

He will be a guest of the Angel Flight at a tea to be held in his honor this afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the Cadet Lounge.

Candidates For SG President Schedule Talks

Hurley Thompson, Vice-Chairman of the Student Party, and Tom Manly, Chairman of the University Party, announced the schedule of Residence Hall meetings for the spring campaign today. These meetings are designed to allow the students in as many residence halls as possible to see the candidates for Student Body President, Vice-President, and Secretary and hear these candidates speak on their platforms. So far meetings have been held in the halls in King College. Mr. Thompson said that he hopes that students will continue to come to the meetings to hear the candidates and to have them answer any questions on the campaign.

The schedule for the remainder of the meetings is:

- Today: Stacy, 10 p.m.; Graham 11 p.m.
- Thursday: Aycock, 9 p.m.; Joyner, Alexander, and Connor in Connor Social Room, 10 p.m.; Cobb 11 p.m.
- Sunday: Granville, 10 p.m.; Whitehead, 11 p.m.
- Monday: Scott Residence College, 10 p.m.; Alderman, 11 p.m.
- Tuesday: Spencer, 10 p.m.; Ehringhaus, 11 p.m.
- Wednesday: McIver, 10 p.m.; Craige, 11 p.m.
- Thursday: Nurses Dorm, 9:30 p.m.; Morrison, 10:30 p.m.

Invitation Sales Weak

Invitations for graduation went on sale today and the response "has been very weak," according to David Kiel.

The Order of the Grail plans to continue the sale for today and tomorrow only from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Y-Court. All proceeds from the sale go to the University scholarship fund.

Payment is requested with orders.

FRANKLIN STREET CHAPEL HILL

- Your hot dog's getting cold.
I'm not hungry.
- For a man who's just announced that he and his wife are expecting their first, you're none too cheerful.
I had a disturbing thought.
- Tell me.
It'll be years and years before the kid is self-supporting.
- It's not unusual for fathers to provide for their children until they're through school.
That's just it—Jane and I love kids. We want 5 or 6.
- Wonderful.
But what if I should die, perish the thought, before they earn their PhD's?
- If you plan with Living Insurance from Equitable, you can be sure there'll be money to take care of your kids and help them complete their education. On the other hand, if you make it to retirement, you can use the cash values in your policy for some swinging sunset years.
I'd like the mustard, relish, pickles and ketchup.
