

Montaigne Expert To Talk Monday

The world's leading Montaigne scholar will give a public lecture here Monday, in conjunction with the Phi Beta Kappa Visiting Scholars Program.

Ford Strike Negotiations Continuing

DETROIT (UPI)—Weary negotiators resumed bargaining Tuesday and Ford Motor Co. appeared close to granting the biggest contract gains in the history of the auto industry labor pacts.

Walter P. Ruether led his united auto workers bargaining team back into session with Ford less than eight hours after a marathon 17-hour session ended before dawn. A week-long news blackout, the longest in auto bargaining history, continued but observers said there was little or no precedent for the exhausting negotiating schedule unless it meant the two sides were near agreement on a new three-year contract.

His topic will be "Montaigne on the Dignity and the Absurdity of Man."

During his three-day visit, Dr. Frame will meet informally with students and take part in classroom discussions. Dr. Virginia A. La Charite and Dr. Raymond C. La Charite of the Department of Romance Languages are in charge of the informal discussions.

Frame is author of "Montaigne in France: 1812-1852; 'Montaigne's Discovery of Man: The Humanization of A Humanist' (a new interpretation of Montaigne's thought); and 'Montaigne: A Biography' (the first full biography to appear in English for more than a hundred years).

Frame is especially interested in the literature of the French Renaissance and the art of translation. He has translated "The Complete Works of Montaigne," "Candide," "Adig," "Selected Stories" by Voltaire; Manon Lescaut" by Prevost and 14 plays by Moliere.

His translation of Montaigne has been acclaimed as the most faithful, graceful and perceptive rendering of the essayist in English and as an invaluable work of scholarship and textual understanding.

Delegates To Discuss RC Meet Results

UNC delegates will tell what they learned from last weekend's Residential College Conference at a meeting sponsored by the Residence College Commission.

The meeting will open at 7 p.m. Thursday in Gerrard Hall with a short speech by Student Body President Bob Travis.

The delegates, Parker Hudson, Steve Knowlton and Gwen Hightower will then relate their impressions of the residence college system.

A question and answer session will follow.

GOING UP AGAIN—UNC Cheerleaders are draping Y Building with more posters urging Cheerleaders will join Homecoming Queen candidates at a pep rally Thursday starting at 7:30 p.m. at Chase Cafeteria.

Hussein, Nasser Confer; Will Discuss Middle East

CAIRO (UPI)—Jordan's King Hussein conferred with U.A.R. President Gamal Abdel Nasser on the Mideast crisis Tuesday at the outset of a three-continent tour of world capitals including Washington, D.C., to seek support for the Arabs in the dispute with Israel.

An Amman newspaper said the trip was the most important undertaken by Hussein since the Arab-Israeli war last June.

Nasser was at the airport to kiss and embrace Hussein on the 32-year-old king's arrival from Amman for lunch and talks during a four-hour stopover on his way to Algeria. Hussein's itinerary also includes Spain, West Germany, Britain and the United States.

An official source said Nasser and Hussein exchanged views on current efforts in the United Nations to resolve the crisis. Hussein also briefed Nasser on his recent talks in Moscow, the source said.

The Amman newspaper Ad-dustour indicated Hussein's talks with President Johnson in Washington would be even more important than his recent talks with Soviet leaders in Moscow. It said the results of the Washington conversations could determine the Arab world's next moves in the crisis.

The newspaper said the main purpose of Hussein's trips to Moscow and Washington was to urge the two powers to adopt a joint resolution at the United Nations to secure Israeli withdrawal from occupied Arab territories and "avoid a renewal of war."

The talks between Hussein and Nasser were their second in three weeks. The Jordanian king stopped off in Cairo before flying to Moscow last month.

Nasser accompanied Hussein to Cairo airport and saw him off on the flight to Algiers. Arab sources said Hussein's main efforts in Algeria would be to persuade President Houari Boumedienne to drop his hard line policy against Israel and support the Arab moderates.

Sources in Algiers, however, said Boumedienne is not expected to give up his calls for the use of force to recover captured Arab territory and wipe out the defeat of the Arab armies at the hands of the Israelis June 5-10.

Israeli authorities said Jordanians opened fire Tuesday from the eastern bank of the Jordan at an Israeli crop dusting plane on the west bank. The plane was not hit and the spraying operations continued, it was said.

Virginia Scout Praises Gamecocks

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (UPI)—Scout Dick Kupec of Virginia warned his team Tuesday, that South Carolina will be hard to handle even though the Gamecocks lost 17-0 to Florida State Saturday.

Kupec, who scouted the game, said South Carolina showed itself to be "a good team, that plays hard, with great desire and hustle."

Kupec said the boys to be wary of quarterback Mike Fair, receiver Fred Ziegler, fullback Warren Muir and running back Ben Garito.

Kupec said Fair is "an excellent runner and passer." He added that the Gamecock offensive line was "very strong,"

Cong Threatening Viet House Voting

SAIGON (UPI)—South Vietnamese voters Sunday will elect a 137 member house of representatives and complete the nation's first elected government since the dictatorial regime of Ngo Dinh Diem was overthrown four years ago.

The Viet Cong has warned the 1,235 candidates and the voters that they risk their lives if they go to polling places.

During the Sept. 3 balloting that elected Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu and Prime Minister Nguyen Cao Ky president and vice president, the Communist insurgents killed or wounded more than 300 civilians in ballot box terror strikes.

During the past few days, Viet Cong broadcasts over the clandestine Liberation Radio have urged "stalwart people to smash the election" this Sunday.

Observers said the reference to "stalwart people" was a virtual order to Viet Cong terror teams to use bombs and bullets as they have in the past to try and sabotage the elections.

Despite the Communist attempts to spoil the elections, a turnout of 70 to 80 per cent of the registered voters is expected. The presidential election drew 5.8 million voters, a turnout of 83 per cent.

A 60-member senate was elected on Sept. 3 during the presidential balloting. The new house of representatives will replace the current 117-member provisional assembly which earlier wrote the nation's constitution.

Demonstrators Get Permit For DC Rally And March

The Chapel Hill-Durham participants plan to meet in front of the Lincoln Memorial at 10 a.m. Saturday and then participate in the noon rally.

Speakers at the rally will include: Dagmar Wilson, one of the founders of the Women's Strike for Peace; John Wilson, of the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC); William Coffin Jr., a chaplain at Yale who was a member of the ad hoc committee of a movement of clergy and laymen against the war; and Dr. Benjamin Spock, the pediatrician and author.

The march to the Pentagon is scheduled for 2 p.m. Civil disobedience is to begin at 4 p.m.

The Sunday agenda calls for continued picketing and vigils.

"We are expecting that only those people who intend to, will get arrested," Carr said.

"We do not have the funds to post bail if someone should get arrested," he said. "But I think we can raise it pretty fast after we get back here."

The possibility of getting more than $1,000 for bail was mentioned by George Vlasis, of Durham, who has been active in the Vietnam Summer movement.

He declined to name the source of the funds.

The Mobilization Committee is planning to provide lawyers to counsel protestors in filing out court appeal slips before the civil disobedience activity.

"There is the danger of police brutality," Carr said. "This can occur, and there is no point in saying it can't."

"Try to take care of yourselves as best you can. You are on your own," he said.

11 Mexican Students Here For Conference

Eleven Mexican student leaders here for a three-day conference with UNC students will discuss U.S. Latin American relations in an open seminar following at 7 p.m. reception at the International Student Center tonight.

Traveling under sponsorship of the U.S. Department of State, the students represent specialties in economics, philosophy, international affairs, foreign trade and political science.

The seminar is the first in a year-long series on international political problems by the University's International Student Center.

Draft Protestors Routed By Police

By United Press International

Violence erupted Tuesday in coast-to-coast demonstrations against the draft and the Vietnam war.

On the second day of a planned week of protests, club-swinging police routed more than 3,000 rebellious, screaming pickets from around the Northern California Induction Center at Oakland.

Twenty-two persons were treated for injuries at hospitals and police arrested 14 persons.

Nineteen demonstrators were arrested and hauled away at Los Angeles when they staged a sit-down in front of an induction center, barring the path for inductees who were trying to enter the building.

Some 250 to 300 demonstrators picketed an induction center in Seattle, Wash. Four of the group tried to distribute pamphlets inside the center and were escorted out of the building.

The demonstrations were part of a nationwide round in which protesters were thrown ing away or burning their draft cards to dramatize their resistance to the draft and the war in Southeast Asia.

More than 140 were arrested Monday in the first day of the demonstrations when they blockaded induction centers, staged sit-ins or fought with police and U.S. marshals.

The protest, sparked largely by a group that calls itself "The Resistance" and the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, was to be climaxed Saturday by a mass demonstration in Washington.

The National Guard will furnish 2,500 military policemen to help District of Columbia police patrol the Capital's streets. Organizers predict that from 40,000 to 100,000 protesters will rally at the Lincoln Memorial and march on the Pentagon.

The melee at Oakland erupted, a police official said, after police gave the demonstrators 45 minutes' warning on bullhorns to clear the streets and they balked at leaving.
