

'Heels Play Tonight

"Clemson is much better than it was when we played them earlier in the year," said Coach Dean Smith Thursday. "Their 12-point win at Wake Forest indicates that."

"We need to continue our fine play of recent games. Somehow when you win you don't get credit for the effort. Well, I've been real pleased with the way our boys have put out, especially defensively. We've had to press six straight games in 12 days and that's hard work."

Smith's chief concern is that the team doesn't look past Clemson to South Carolina.

"I can understand why they might want to but it can be very dangerous," said Smith. "Let's face it, Clemson upset us here last year and it could happen again, although they did have a much better team then."

"In the 1959-60 season we were upset by South Carolina in the doubleheader. They were in last place that year and we had players like Doug Moe, York Larese, Lee Shaffer and Dick Kopley."

The Gamecocks of this season are better than they have ever been. Skip Harlicka (20.8), Gary Gregor (19.4 and 13.9 rebounds), Frank Standard (18.4) and playmaker Jack Thompson (10.0) are all returnees from last year.

"They are potentially a great team," said Smith. "They rebound very well and play a good zone defense."

The Tar Heels will go with their usual starting five of Larry Miller, Rusty Clark, Bill Bunting, Charlie Scott and Dick Grubar.

Scott is coming off his best scoring effort of the year, a 24-point night against State, while Bunting and Grubar have recently shown rapid offensive improvement.

"We're more balanced now than we ever were," said Smith. "And I mean to include boys like Joe Brown, Eddie Fogler and Gerald Tuttle who do so well in reserve."

Worrying about those dime candy bars in the snack bars?

Afraid that they will become a permanent fixture? No sweat.

According to Book Exchange manager Tom Shelly, the 10c candy is just an emergency situation. He says that the supply orders are fouled somewhere along the line between Chapel Hill and the candy factories, and the stock of nickel candy bars therefore ran low, forcing the dime bars on to the shelves.

In a few days, Shelly says, student will again be crossing the cashiers' palms with copper and nickel instead of silver.

The Daily Tar Heel will begin running notices of pinning, engagements and weddings each Thursday. Forms will be available in the Tar Heel Office on the second floor of Graham Memorial. All announcements must be turned in by Monday for publication the following Thursday.

Miss Nancy Lee of Elm City and Bob Farris of Wilson will be married tomorrow at noon in St. Thomas More Catholic Church in Chapel Hill.

Goldstein has pointed out that, although the registration period is over, it is not too late to enter the courses or to start new courses. The Experimental College will help any one to start a new course by finding leaders and meeting places.

The Experimental College was founded last spring by Goldstein, Jed Dietz, and Dave Kiel. U.N.C. is a leader in the South and is regarded as a national model for the Educational Reform Movement, according to Goldstein. He feels that the Experimental College is one reason for this.

Spanish Society Receives Name

What do you call a Carolinian in Spanish? This was the problem faced by Carolina's recently formed Spanish Society.

A letter was sent to the Spanish Royal Academy, the final authority on Spanish philology, requesting help in the matter.

The Academy replied that there are two such words already in use, but they refer to natives of the Carolina Islands and the citizens of La Carolina.

Accordingly, the Academy coined a new word, carolinense, and the feminine, carolinense, to describe the natives of the North American Carolinas; hence, the name of the UNC club, Sociedad Hispanica Carolinense.

The Sociedad elected a four-man "junta" Monday night consisting of President Steve Swain and Vice Presidents Jorge Silveira, James Nichols and David Carrozza. Their advisor is Dr. Augustin Meissen.

The Sociedad is open to all students, faculty, and interested members of the public. "Our goal is to facilitate closer communication between students and faculty," said Swain.

Emphasis on the Hispanic culture, including the performing arts, painting poetry, and literature is placed by the Sociedad.

Tonight at 8 p.m. in 303 Dey Hall the Sociedad will sponsor a speech by Dr. A. M. Badia-Margarit, a visiting professor at the University of Wisconsin and member of the Royal Academy.

Dr. Badia-Margarit's presentation is entitled "Cultura," and will feature the literature of Pompeu Fabra.

This is the first program in a monthly series to be offered by the Sociedad. The March program features a piano recital of classical Spanish music performed by Consejo Colomerde Cortes.

Town & Campus

How to interview 130 companies in half an hour.

Talk to the man from General Electric. He represents 130 separate GE "companies" that deal in everything from space research to electric toothbrushes. We call them product departments. Each one is autonomous with its own management and business objectives. That's why a job at General Electric offers the kind of immediate responsibility you might expect to find only in a small business. Right from the start you get a chance to demonstrate your initiative and individual capabilities. And the more you show us, the faster you will move ahead. As you do, you'll find that you don't necessarily have to spend a lifetime working on the same job in the same place. We have operations all over the world. Chances are you'll get to try your hand at more than one of them. Our interviewer will be on campus soon. If you're wondering whether it's possible to find challenging work in big business, please arrange to see him. He speaks for 130 "companies."
