

'Find God In Self' Baba Believer Says

By SALLY JONES
of The Daily Tar Heel Staff
Man cannot find God except within himself, Henry Kashouty, a follower of Meher Baba, told an audience of about 60 in Gerrard Hall Thursday night.

"What you are seeking you already have within yourself," said the lawyer and former judge from Hampton, Va., who has been following Baba for 12 years.

Meher Baba, who calls himself the Ancient One, the Divine Master, the Avatar, has declared, "I am God in human form."

Kashouty stated, "It is hard to grasp the concept that God takes the form of man. It is always vital that God manifests in man."

One thing he is convinced of is the need to "focus our minds in God in human form," he said.

According to Kashouty, Baba is the first incarnation of God who will be recognized as God before he leaves his human body.

In this incarnation he has come "not to teach but to awaken. He attracts you, but then you have to discover reality within yourself," Kashouty feels.

"You are the only one who can get rid of the bondage that separates you from the true state of awareness of consciousness."

Religion or philosophy should only serve to help you search for reality and freedom within yourself, he said.

"You must look for freedom in a new posture, a new expression. You could be in prison for life and still find this freedom. No condition can stand between you and your own personal realization."

Kashouty urged the audience to "find out for yourself if Meher Baba is what he says he is."

He stated he found no difficulty in accepting Baba as God in human form.

Baba is presently in seclusion in Puna, India, and observed the Silence and has communicated only through an alphabet board. When he speaks it will be "the perfect Word of Creation."

"I had to come, and I have come. I am the Ancient One," Baba has said. According to Kashouty, Baba has come before in such human forms as Christ, Mohammed, Buddha, and Krishna.

When Baba manifests "each person will experience an awakening," Kashouty said. He stated that Baba comes for a select few, but that the "whole universe has the awakening."

God has come to renew the spiritual impulse, he asserted. "The only path to God is love and to this man must awaken."

The only reason God comes as a man is that it is the most direct route to total realization, he stated.

"Baba's dictates explain much of creation," Kashouty said. "We can be eminently satisfied that Baba has an answer for everything."

Biran Will Discuss Israeli Archeology

Dr. Avraham Biran, archeologist and Director of Israel's Department of Antiquities and Museums, will speak at Hillel House Monday at 8:00 p.m.

Dr. Biran will deliver the fifth annual Rosa B. Weinstein Memorial Lectures on religion. His topic is "The Bible and Archaeology in the State of Israel."

As overseer of all archeological excavating in Israel, he has participated in expeditions discovering relics dating to the thirteenth century B.C. His most recent excavations have been in Arad and Dan.

Graduated from The Hebrew University, Dr. Biran continued his studies at the University of Pennsylvania and received a Ph.D. in Archeology and Oriental languages from Johns Hopkins University.

Dr. Biran has written articles in Hebrew and English on historical, Biblical and archeological subjects.

In addition to his lectures in Chapel Hill, he will speak at Duke University Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. on "The Impact of Archaeology on Modern Israel."

Faculty and students are cordially invited to attend. There will be an opportunity for questions and discussion following each lecture.

Up, Up, Away With Theta

The sisters and about-to-be sisters of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority took to Polk Place Friday afternoon to once again prove that the American coed can indeed be flighty. Their proof had a little difficulty getting off the ground though, since kite-flying isn't something just anybody can do — even if their sorority pin is shaped like a kite. For example, at right, Tinka Toy, Paula Hughey and Eleanor Manning are having a bit of trouble deciding just what to do with Tink's kite. At bottom, Anne Anthony just looks on while one of the more able sex. Meanwhile, Robin Castle, at left, just laughs off the whole shows her the way to fly, thing.

BUYER'S GUIDE CONTROVERSY

Indignantly In Defense

COLLEGE MARKET ADVERTISING has been grossly misinterpreted! Our NOTICE in the Tar Heel has nothing whatsoever to do with Carolina's infamous honor code. Due to Dean Cansler's announcement and letter we feel a clarification is in order;

We are not even intimating that, to neglect to send us $1. if you received a BUYER'S GUIDE, is a violation of the honor code. Nor do we intend to imply to take any Honor Council action if you do not send the well spent dollar.

Distribution Has Been On The Honor System. What we are appealing to is your basic, individual, personal code of honor (nothing whatsoever to do with U.N.C.). We feel that we have distributed to you something of value, and something that, if used, will save you money.

THE BUYER'S GUIDE was produced with the "exploited" student in mind. It was designed to save its user money. THE GUIDE sold locally for $2. Frankly, our original distribution plans were inadequate. We are now distributing GUIDES on the premise that people are basically honest.

So... if you feel that, by using THE BUYER'S GUIDE you will save money, (which you will) then send $1. to;
