

Cavs Stop Stickmen, 13-7

By BOB MANEIKIN
of The Daily Tar Heel Staff

A fast breaking Virginia lacrosse team handed North Carolina its second loss of the season by a 13-7 score at Fetzer Field yesterday.

From the opening whistle, over 1,000 fans got an indication of the game's tempo. Both teams raced up and down field before finally settling down to deliberate play.

Carolina scored first on John Callan's unassisted goal with 6:01 gone. Virginia came back 30 seconds later on a quick goal.

The Heels duplicated the Cavaliers' score a half minute later as Peterson dented the nets on a pass from Geoff

Perry, who had snared a loose ball.

The quarter ended deadlocked 2-2, as U.Va.'s Pete Kirk tied the score on an unassisted shot.

A great check by Pete Grauer forced a loose ball which an alert Geoff Perry gobbled up. Perry passed to Peterson who fed to Pete Aitkin for a picture-perfect score.

Virginia's Chuck Edwards took a feed from attackman Kirk to tie the score at 6:52. From then on, the Cavaliers was never behind.

Charlie Rullman, having a field day, scored on an open goal when netminder Pete Kramer left the crease in a futile attempt to prevent a one on one situation.

Rullman again scored unassisted, leaving the score 5-3 at the half.

The pace of the second half was as fast as that of the first. Unfortunately, Carolina could not keep up with the fast-breaking Cavaliers. The Virginians outscored the Heels eight to four en route to their 13-7 win.

For Carolina, the afternoon was a trying one. Whenever the Heels were able to mount an offensive, a quick Virginia goal would break the momentum.

A late first period shoulder injury to junior John Gussenhoven, increased the pressure on an already pressed Carolina defense. Goalie Pete Kramer turned away 20 Virginia shots in the losing effort.

Jubilee Agenda Completed

Junior Walker and the All Stars and singer Neil Diamond Friday signed to perform at Jubilee in a move which fulfilled the bill for the spring event.

The two acts will present a concert scheduled for Saturday, May 4, at 3 p.m.

The locations for all Jubilee concerts have not yet been announced.

Presently committed to perform are:

—Friday, May 3, 7:30 p.m.—Carla and Rufus Thomas and the Barkays, former back-up band for the late Otis Redding.

—Saturday, May 4, 7:30 p.m., recording star Nancy Wilson. Following that concert, Soul Limited and the Atlantic Coast Show will entertain at a combo party in the Tin Can.

—Sunday, May 5, 2 p.m., Spanky and Our Gang.

Admission for a student and date to all Jubilee programs will be on presentation of UNC student identification cards.

Students may also purchase tickets for two guests at $2 a ticket on presentation of identification cards to the Graham Memorial Information Desk.

Tickets will be on sale beginning Monday and will be available through Jubilee.

Hits by some of the groups performing were:

Junior Walker—Shot Gun, Pucker up Buttercup, How Sweet It Is; Neil Diamond—Solitary Man, Cherry Cherry, I Got The Feeling, You Got To Me, Girl You'll Be A Woman Soon; and Spanky and Our Gang—Sunday

Will Never Be The Same, and Lazy Day.

Mary Ann Fulton, President of the GM Activities Board recommends that students planning to attend Jubilee procure places in dates to stay "immediately."

Baez To Visit Here To Speak On Draft

Folksinger Joan Baez is scheduled to appear at UNC Monday, according to Bernard Gilman, a graduate student and member of the Students for a Democratic Society.

Miss Baez will speak at 2:30 p.m. in Memorial Hall on "The Vietnam War and the Draft." Her husband of two weeks, David Harris, and a friend, Ira Sandperi, are scheduled to appear with her in a panel discussion.

government president of Stanford University. During his term he turned in his draft card and refused induction.

Later he left school and founded the Resistance, a nationwide group of young men who have refused military service. He has been indicted and is currently awaiting trial.

Sandperi has worked with a school of non-violence in California founded by Miss Baez.

Party Accounts Due Tomorrow

of The Daily Tar Heel Staff

Norm Zettel, Chairman of the Elections Board, said Friday that all candidates must submit written expense accounts by noon Monday.

The reports must list all expenditures and should be turned into the Graham Memorial Information Desk.

A $5.00 late fee will be charged any candidate who fails to turn in an account of his expenses by 12 noon on Monday April 8.

Any candidate failing to submit an expense account within 24 hours of the deadline will be automatically eliminated from the ballot.

Zettel also said that a $15.00 penalty fee will be charged for late submission of a party expense account.

Presidential candidates are limited to $50.00 for their campaigns, and vice-presidential candidates may spend no more than $35.00. Other candidates seeking election in campus wide votes are limited to $25.00 in personal expenditures.

Candidates for Editor of the Daily Tar Heel may spend no more than $35.00, and students running in district elections are limited to $20.00 in expenses.

"We've had some complaints about people tearing down posters," Zettel said, "and I would like to remind the student body that it is an Honor Code offense to remove or deface a poster which has been properly placed on a bulletin board."

Zettel added, "Any posters within fifty feet of polling stations on election day may be torn down."

Zettel said that the Elections Board needs people to help count ballots Tuesday night.

Anyone interested in counting votes should report to Roland Parker 1, 2, and 3 at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday.

They are also scheduled to appear at Duke Monday at 8:00 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium.

Miss Baez will probably expand her topic to include civil rights issues in light of the assassination of Martin Luther King according to Gilman. Both King and Miss Baez have been active in pacifist movements, he explained.

She will probably attend the memorial service for King Monday at 11:00 in Memorial Hall, Gilman indicated.

Mural Fencing Set Tuesday

By BOB COLEMAN
of The Daily Tar Heel Staff

Intramural fencers who sign up by noon, April 9th, will have their days in Wollen Gym next Tuesday and Wednesday beginning at 5 p.m.

Entries are open to all students and Fencing Club members and are not limited to one weapon. UNC Fencing Coach Ron Miller will be the overall meet director and will make first place awards.

Foil preliminaries are Tuesday and will be under the supervision of Tom Ruff, Chuck Schumacker and Carl Thompson. Foil finals are Wednesday, as is the epee event under the aegis of Dick Wilson, Jeff McKay and John Devane.

Sabre Competition Tuesday will be under the direction of Dick Betts, Pete Kent and Pete Batke.

In softball action Thursday Phi Delt Blue spotted Sigma Chi Blue a 6-0 lead before roaring to a 7-6 triumph behind the slugging of Mape and Rainey. Salmony socked one after two singles and two walks by the losers.

Sigma Nu Blue trailed Kappa Psi Blue 11-4 going into their last at-bats but made it interesting before dropping an 11-10 decision. Higgins hit one out, as did Henson and Rains for the winners.

TEP blue's Chansky gave up only a single to Gary and two harmless walks in whitewashing ZBT, 7-0. Pi Kap Phi Blue pushed across eight runs in a rally that turned a 6-2 deficit into a 10-6 last inning win.

Tiger or lamb: who makes the best CPA?

Men who move in flocks don't make the best CPAs.

The CPA often hunts for answers in wild new country. He's constantly trying to solve problems that have no pat solutions. He needs conceptual imagination and conviction — and guts. He may have to defend his answers (like a tiger) when he thinks he's right.

The demand for CPAs is growing fast. Whether they are in independent practice or part of the top management team of a company, they are taking on increasing responsibility in financial and business affairs.

You can select the college courses that can help you earn a CPA certificate soon after graduation. Or you can take them in graduate school. Ask your faculty advisor about them.

If you'll drop a card or note to us, we'll be glad to send you a booklet with the whole CPA story.

Write: Dept. A10, AICPA, 666 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10019.

Read it before you decide whether your answer to our question is "G-r-r-r" or "B-a-a-a."
