

Wrestlers Pin VMI, 19-15

By RUSTY CARTER
DTH Sports Writer

Carolina's varsity wrestlers posted a sizeable win over the Keydets of V.M.I. Friday night and the freshmen fell to defeat. Coach Sam Barnes' varsity matmen out-wrestled the Keydets 19-15 which represents a "smashing victory" since the margin of victory has not been more than one point for the past five years.

The freshmen lost in the preliminary bout 26-11. The V.M.I. match marked the first regular season competition for the matmen even though they wrestled in a tournament in Georgia last week. The tourney does not count in their regular season record.

"We really took our lumps in the tournament in Georgia," Barnes said, "but it got us in shape for the V.M.I. match." "I was awfully pleased to see how tough our kids wrestled."

Carolina lost only three of the nine weights two of which were pins.

At the 152 weight level UNC's Luther Gartrell drew with V.M.I.'s Smith 4-4 for the only tie in the bout.

"I was quite pleased with the way most of the boys wrestled," Barnes said. "Art Kaplan, Tom Rumley, and Bob Hoke did especially well."

Kaplan at 130 decided V.M.I.'s Cowardin by 10-7. Hoke at 137 whipped Sydnor 5-1, and Rumley at 145 pinned Patton at 2:18.

The scores for the match are:

First All America Game Squads Named

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI)—Sixty-one of the nation's top seniors, including three members of the United Press International All-America first team, have been named to play in the first All-America All-Star football game here Jan. 4, officials announced Saturday.

There are six UPI second team all-Americans on the two squads which represent a total of 41 colleges.

First team all Americans who will see action here are Bill Stanfill of Georgia for the South and Ted Kwalcik of Penn State and John Zqook of Kansas for the North.

Second team all-Americans playing for the North will include Bob Douglass of Kansas; and Jon Kolb of Oklahoma State; while on the South will be Eugene "Mercury" Morris of West Texas State; Jerry Levias of SMU; Mike Ford of Alabama; and Jim Weatherford of Tennessee.

Coaching the South will be Bear Bryant of Alabama, Ray Graves of Florida, Frank Broyles of Arkansas and Fran Curci of Tampa.

Coaching the North will be Jack Mollenkopf of Purdue, Tom Cahill of Army, Pepper

Rodgers of Kansas and Lee Corso of Navy.

The South offensive squad will include Edd Hargett of Texas A and M and Loran Carter of Auburn at quarterback; Dicky Lyons, Kentucky, Morris, Ken Lawrence, Georgia, and Larry Smith, Florida, at running backs and fullbacks; Levias, John Sias, Georgia Tech, and Tim Christian, Auburn at flanker back and split end; Bob Hamlett, LSU, and Jim Yarbrough, Florida, at tight end; A.Z. Drones, West Texas State, and Bill Fortier, LSU, tackles; Charley Rosenfelder, Tennessee, and Jim Barnes, Arkansas, guards; and Jim Parkes Mississippi and Dean Lotz, Memphis State at center.

On the South defensive unit will be Ford and Mark Capuano, North Carolina State, Texas, and Stanfill, at tackle; Ron Brown, Tampa Chip Healey, Vanderbilt, Dale McCullers, Florida State, and Mike Hall, Alabama, at linebackers; Gary Adams, Arkansas, Ron Davidson, Virginia Tech Butch Reeves, South Carolina, and Jim Weatherford, Tennessee, at defensive backs; and Steve O'Neal of Texas A and M will handle the punting and kickoffs.

On the North offensive unit will be Douglass and Greg Cook, Cincinnati at quarterback Bob Gladioux, Notre Dame, Darwin Gonnerman, South Dakota State, Charley Jarvis, Army, and Bob Houmar, Ohio University, at running backs and fullbacks; Eddie Hinton, Oklahoma, Mike O'Shea, Utah State and Dave Jones, Kansas State, at flanker back and split end; Kwalcik, Jim Winegar, Notre Dame, and Mike Clark, Navy at tight end; Ken Carmon, Ohio University, and Tom McKinley, Norte Dame, at tackle; John Shinner, Xavier, and David Braclay, Penn State, guards, and Kolb and George Hummer, Arizona State, at center.

On the North defensive unit are Zook and Gary Kiri, Utah, at end; Rich Moore, Villanova, and Dick Swanson, Air Force at tackle; Bob Keuchenberg, Notre Dame, Ken Johnson, Army, Dick Kroner, Boston College, and Bob Babich, Miami of Ohio, at linebacker; Bill Kishman, Colorado State, Gene Huey, Wyoming, Chuck Detwiller, Utah State, and Cliff Enslay, Syracuse, at back.

Swimmers Defeat South Carolina

The UNC swimming team won a surprisingly easy victory over South Carolina Saturday at Bowman Gray Pool, 76-37. The dolphins won 10 and 13 events and turned what was supposed to be a close match into a runaway for the Tar Heels.

"We did especially well and surprised South Carolina," Coach Pat Earey said after the meet. "The biggest thrill of the meet was the guts that the team showed."

Earey was impressed with tri-captain Fred Danneman and rightfully so, as the senior who had been sidelined over a year with a broken arm showed excellent times in both his back stroke and relay appearances.

"The boys showed the most spirit that I've ever seen for a team this early in the season," Earey continued. "We are looking especially forward now to Maryland next week. They are stronger than South Carolina, but if we do as well as we did today, we will hold our own against them."

The trend of Saturday's meet was set early when Fred Danneman opened his backed stroke leg of the medley relay with a blistering time. From then on the meet was all Carolina, as the Tar Heels lost only two diving events and the 50 yard free style.

Terps Tie MSU

ATLANTA (UPI) — Michigan State and Maryland were declared co-champions in the NCAA Soccer Championships Saturday after battling through two overtimes to a 2-2 tie.

The co-championship was Michigan State's second in a row after sharing the title in 1967 with St. Louis.

Alvare Bittencourt, a native of Sao Paulo, Brazil from College Park, Md., booted the first point of the game at Georgia Tech's Grant Field after 36:35, giving Maryland a 1-0 lead at halftime.

But Michigan State's Tony Keyes, of Kingston, Jamaica, assisted by Ernie Tuchscherer, evened up the match going into the second half, only to be edged once again by Maryland's Jerry Chareczko.

Chareczko of Hyattsville, Md., gave Maryland a 2-1 lead with an assist by Melih Sensay of Istanbul, Turkey.

The final tying score, however, was booted in by Michigan State's Frank Morant of Kingston, Jamaica, assisted by Tom Krefit from St. Louis, Mo., and both teams failed to break the tie through two overtimes.

A crowd of 1,125 turned out for the finals after San Jose State and Brown lost out in Semi-finals. Chosen player by the NCAA was Marie Jelencovich, Maryland's goalie of New York, N.Y. The outstanding offense player honors went to Mani Hernandez of San Jose State.

Penn State Drubs Hapless Syracuse, 30-12, In Final Preparation For Orange Bowl Tilt

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (UPI) — Penn State sparked by the record-breaking running of halfback Bob Campbell, trampled Syracuse 30-12

Saturday to complete its first perfect season in 21 years and only the third in its history.

Campbell scored on runs of 87 and 19 yards and amassed 207 yards rushing in the first half as the Nittany Lions rolled up a 24-0 lead.

Penn State also scored in the first half on Charlie Pittman's 29 jount and a field goal.

The two Syracuse scores came in the final nine minutes of the game against State's second team. Lee Castner ran 21 yards for one touchdown and Rick Panczysyn's three yard rollout accounted for the other score.

Campbell who missed almost half of the season because of a shoulder separation, had his greatest day. His 87-yard run was the longest run from scrimmage in Lion history, breaking a mark of 86 yards set by Bob Riggie in 1964. He also picked up 239 yards running, only 11 short of the record of 250 yards set by E.E. "Shorty" Miller in 1912.

The victory gave the Lions a record of 10 victories—the first time they have won that many in a single season since they began intercollegiate football.

A crowd of 40,613 at Beaver Stadium and a national television audience watched the third-ranked Lions tune up for their Jan. 1 date with Kansas in the Orange Bowl.
