

Tar Babies Clip Davidson, 68-65

By DONOVAN ALBRIGHT

CHARLOTTE. A spirited and hustling Carolina Freshman basketball team raced to a 68-65 victory at the hands of the Davidson Wildkittens here Saturday night. It was the victor's third consecutive win without a defeat of the young season and gave them their last opportunity to polish up their play before meeting the Blue Imps of Duke in Chapel Hill this Thursday.

The play of both teams ranged from erratic to polished and it was the Tar Babies most polished—George Karl—who coolly stepped to the free e throw line with :05 seconds left in the game and sank two free throws for the final 68-65 margin.

Karl's two points came just seven seconds after Julian Dempsey had missed two charity throws, and a big rebound by Donn Johnston enabled the Tar Babies to retain possession of the ball and force the intentional foul by the Kittens.

In building up to the exciting climax, the lead had changed hands several times, with each team going from hot to cold and back to hot again. Carolina led at half-time, 37-35, largely on the outside shooting of Karl and an effective fast break led by Karl and John Austin.

The second half saw a complete change and the Tar Babies threatened to break the game wide open after only three minutes ahead elapsed in the period. Gary Stafford hit two baskets in a row to raise the lead to 43-40 and Karl then fed Austin and Stafford for lay-ups off the fast break.

Austin's steal and lay-up pushed the lead to ten, 51-41, but the ensuing cold spell allowed the Davidson team to come back and take the lead at 55-54.

From there the Tar Babies tied the score and it was tied twice more before a tap in by Ronnie Moffitt pushed Carolina ahead by one. Moffitt followed a Davidson basket with another tap and still another tap in by Johnston pushed the lead to three.

Ray Brown, Davidson's second leading scorer, then missed the whole backboard to set the stage for the final seconds of action and Karl's free throws.

Austin, playing before his hometown fans, and Karl both scored 20 to lead the winning offense. Their hustle and determination combined with the clutch board play of Moffitt and Johnston proved to be the spark needed for the win. Johnston scored 13, Moffitt 9, and Stafford 6. Davidson was paced by Joe Sutter with 21 and Ray Brown with 18.

The North Carolina Rugby club will hold an important meeting of all club members Tuesday night at 7:15 in 207 Woolen Gym. Elections will be held and the spring schedule will be announced.

UNC Stabs Johns Hopkins

Carolina's Fencing team rolled to a 22-5 victory here in an opening season match against Johns Hopkins University behind a strong showing in epee and foil.

Coach Ron Miller tabbed the big win as "not necessarily easy but unexpected. No one on the team lost more than one bout and there were very few in which we had more than 2 touches against us. I think the meet showed our overall balance and depth which I hadn't expected to show up this early in the season."

Leading the way for the Tar Heels was Press Ruddell who racked up three victories in as many bouts in sabre competition. A total of eight other swordsmen were undefeated for the day's activities.

Miller added: "I was impressed with the poise of each fencer on the strip. Each one had an assured air, though not an air of arrogance." He was also quick to praise Assistant Coaches Mario DeLeon of the Epee team and Peter Balke of the Sabre team.

The scoring totals were epee: 8-1, foil: 8-1, and sabre: 6-3, with the team's only weakness showing in a lack of experience on the Sabre squad and the team's margin of victory was the largest ever attained in an opening season meet.

After the meet with Johns Hopkins, a Novice meet was held involving teams from Duke, State, UNC-C, UNC-G, and St. Augustine's in which the Heels further showed their prowess. Denver Haynes and Charles Poteat won their respective divisions in foil and epee and Bob Knight placed 2nd in foil.

The UNC Fencing team will participate in the Big Ten Open this Saturday in La Champaigna, Illinois.

Barnes Says Tourney Performance Gratifying; Fears State, Duke

By BILL PITTMAN

"Gratifying" was the word used by Carolina wrestling coach Sam Barnes to describe his team's performance in last weekend's North Carolina Collegiate Wrestling Championships.

However, Barnes emphasized that his eye all along has been on the upcoming conference match with Virginia, thereby not giving too much emphasis on the championships this past Friday and Saturday.

Team captain Carver Rudolph was the only Tar Heel to win an individual championship, his victory coming in the 177 lb. weight division. Several other Carolina grapplers turned in promising performances and the Tar Heel matmen racked up a three to two win-loss ratio. There was no team championship.

Barnes seemed to be impressed with the performance of Duke and State and made it clear that his team would have to work hard to be able to take these two ACC foes in January and February. At present, they appear to be the toughest foes the Carolina wrestlers will have to face.

Another thing Barnes seemed impressed with was the attendance of 450 high school wrestlers at a clinic held during the tournament by Dick Besnier, John Welbourn, Jerry Daniels and Charlie Parker. This number of high school hopefuls was described by Barnes as being the largest number of high school kids in attendance at any University function with the exception of UNC's Band Day.
