

Williams finishes second in the 200 yard breaststroke

Dolphins Upset State

By HOWIE CARR
DTH Sports Writer

Tar Heel freshman Bob Nagle overtook an N.C. State swimmer in the last ten yards of the 400-yard freestyle relay to give Carolina a come-from-behind 57-56 victory over the Wolfpack Saturday.

State took a quick 7-0 lead by winning the 400-yard medley relay. In the 1000-yard freestyle, Gerry Chapman and Phil McMunigal captured first and third, respectively, to trim the Wolfpack lead to 10-6. State swimmers finished 1-3 in the 200-yard freestyle, but Tar Heels Bruce Wigo and Cap Gentry got the points back by winning the same places in the 50-yard freestyle.

After Chapman and Mike Darst came in behind a State swimmer in the individual medley, Chuck Humphrey defeated the Wolfpack's stand-out diver, Randy Horton, in the 1-meter competition. At this point, State led, 28-24.

State took first and third in the 200-yard butterfly, while Heel Dave Bedell finished second. Wigo then won his second event of the day, the 100-yard freestyle, and Darst followed by taking this 200-yard backstroke. Competing in his third event, Chapman captured the 500-yard freestyle as the Wolfpack took second and third.

Tar Heels Richard Williams and Dave Wilson kept the meet tight by finishing 2-3 in the 200-yard breaststroke. State's Horton won the 3-meter diving, but Humphrey's second place still gave Carolina a chance if it could win the 400-yard freestyle.

Trailing 56-50, UNC Coach Pat Earey went with a team of Butch Bristow, Bill Herndon, Wigo and Nagle. This Blue Dolphin team edged State by .2 seconds to win the meet, 57-56.

By MIKE LEAFE

with 12. Rieke with 14 was the only double figure scorer for Econ.

The Granville E Vikings came out of semester break like a grizzly bear out of hibernation, lean and hungry. The results, a 103-18 humiliation of Granville F. E. had three men higher than the whole F team. Blackwell had 29, Saton 22 and Sommerfield 20. Also Lee had 16 while Bush was high score for F with eight.

The Ehringhaus B Beavers outlasted the E-house C Orange to gain a 52-34 decision. C scoring was distributed with Leitch getting with, Mashburn and Elliot seven and Thomasson six. B was paced by Lenair with 18 and McClured with 14.

The Stacy Zulus squeaked past the Aycock Speed Press 40-35. Midgett of Stacy led all scorers with 12 points while Weber of Aycock had 11.

It was a game for the Midgets, as Manley and Mangum Midgets met. Mangum came out on the short end of the deal though when Manley copped a 33-28 win. Lendeman of Manly was the high scorer with 13 points.

The James E Evangelists taught the James H Humpers a lesson they might never forget. E trounced H 51-22. Stewart and Priestly provided 16 and 15 points to the James E attack and turned out to be the games only double figure scorers.

The Teague Jocks ran over Old West I 60-31 as Teague put four men in double figures. Kimmel of Teague topped all with 22 while his teammates VanHoy, Jackson and Keynolds supplied plenty of support with 12, 10 and 10 points respectively.

Ask the people involved in highway safety —about Aetna.

Death on the highways. At Aetna we refuse to accept it as a fact of life. We designed the first classroom driving simulator for high schools. We helped found the National Safety Council and the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety. And our engineering people are constantly helping to improve the driving records of the nation's car, truck and taxi fleets. Because highway safety is everybody's job, we feel a special obligation. Our business may be selling insurance, but our concern is people. Aetna is the kind of place where you can do good and make good, too.
