Treasury announces tax-break hearings

WASHINGTON-The Treasury, denying it was prompted by a legal challenge, announced Wednesday that President Nixon's $2.6 billion tax break for businesses was only a proposal-not a final order-and would require public hearings.

The hearings, to be held in about 30 days, could result in adoption, rejection or modification of the plan intended by Nixon to stimulate the sluggish economy, a Treasury spokesman said.

Monday in the original announcement of the move, which will permit business corporations to speed up the tax depreciation write-off of the cost of new equipment and machinery.

Legal associates of consumer advocate Ralph Nader filed suit in U.S. District Court in Washington Monday charging that the action was illegal because it bypassed the normal requirement for public hearings.

Fong aide indicted in fraud conspiracy

WASHINGTON-An aide to Sen. Hiram Fong, R-Hawaii, was indicted by a federal grand jury Wednesday on charges he conspired to fix a securities fraud case involving long-time underworld figure John "Johnny Dio" Dioguardi for payment of $200,000.

Cited in the indictment handed down in U.S. District Court in New York City was Fong's administrative assistant, Robert T. Carson, 64, of Arlington, Va. Also indicted were two New Yorkers, Edward Adams, 80, and Joseph Bald, 41.

Fong's office issued a statement in behalf of the senator, who was in Honolulu, saying that Carson will be suspended without pay pending the outcome of the case.

Carson, who has worked for the Republican senator from Hawaii for eight years, is a former president of the Honolulu Stock Exchange and former GOP state chairman.

One of the four counts against Carson was that he perjured himself in testifying before the same grand jury which returned the indictments.

Television film slows exchange

RIO DE JANEIRO-Brazil delayed Wednesday the departure for Chile of 70 political prisoners who were to be freed in exchange for the life of a kidnapped Swiss diplomat.

Military officers said the government wanted the prisoners first to see a film on "dropout terrorists to be shown on national television before shipping them to nearby Santiago. The film shows prisoners who declined to be traded for the ambassador giving their reasons for not wanting to leave Brazil.

The Treasury insisted Wednesday that its delayed announcement of hearings was not a result of the lawsuit.

The words "hearing" or "proposal" did not appear in Nixon's announcement or in a 22-page technical explanation distributed Monday by the Treasury, Nor were they raised during a 45-minute briefing on the plan which was conducted by Treasury Secretary David M. Kennedy.

The department spokesman referred to this sentence in the Treasury statement: "The department spokesman referred to this sentence in the Treasury statement: "The income tax regulations will be amended to provide for this system." He said this language implied that the department would follow the routine procedure for amending regulations, which require hearings.

In a statement issued by the Western White House Monday, Nixon said: "Today I have approved three important changes in the administration of the depreciation provisions of the tax laws... these actions will reduce business tax payments by $2.6 billion in this calendar

Israel claims new violation by Egypt

Israel accused Egypt of sending Soviet-built fighters bombers across the cease-fire. Guerrilla forces were reported to have attacked one of Amman's power plants in the sixth consecutive day of fighting among Arabs in Jordan.

The Israeli charge coincided with the arrival in Cairo of Soviet President Nikolai P. Podgorny and reliable reports of new peace proposals that would give the four powers a bigger role in maintaining peace in the Middle East. Israel has opposed all such suggestions in the past.

It was the second complaint filed by Israel with the U.N. Truce Supervisory Organization (UNTSO) this month against Egyptian flights over Israeli-occupied Sinai.

Reports from Amman said about 50 guerrillas backed by rocket and mortar fire besieged one of the city's major power plants while snipers virtually paralyzed the downtown business center most of the day. Meanwhile guerrilla and government leaders met to discuss measures to implement an agreement signed Tresday to stop the shooting.

The semiofficial Cairo newspaper Al Ahram said Egypt's new three-point peace plan was delivered to Britain, France and Italy by Foreign Minister Mahmoud Riad.

Included in the Egyptian plan were a provision that the United States, Russia, Britain and France would give Jarring guidance on implementing the U.N. Security Council resolution of Nov. 22, 1967, which calls for Israeli withdrawal from Arab territory, a request for a specific timetable to be set for implementation, and a provision for the Security Council to meet should the Big Four fail to formulate a plan for carrying out the U.N. resolution.

going on." "There is no political merit in publishing this book," Bergman said, "It is not a call for action. For the real hippy and yippy, especially for the rebellious student, it hardly contains anything basic that he does not already know."

The book instructs in surveillance explosives, lethal gases, wiretapping, electronic jamming, use of guns and knives, garroting, and boobytrapping. It is profusely illustrated with photographs and diagrams. A lengthy section on drugs gives formulas for making LSD and cooking with marihuana and hashish.

The cover of the book bears this warning: "...keep in mind that the topics written about here are illegal and constitute a threat."

Lyle Stuart, head of the publishing firm, said " a great many" people on his staff thought the book was dangerous and should not be published. "But I am the one who made the final decision. I think Bergman's prefactory note puts the whole issue into perspective."

Stuart said the first edition of 6,500 already was almost exhausted. "I didn't print this to make money but it looks as though it will," he said.

N.C. GOP opens tax fight

RALEIGH-The tiny Republican minority lost no time as the 1971 General Assembly opened Wednesday in launching its fight to eliminate 1969 Gasoline Tax hikes and the Cigarette Tax.

Sen. Harry Bagnal, the minority leader in the senate, introduced the tax repeal bills and said he would hold a third measure for repeal of the penny per bottle Soft Drink tax until possibly Thursday "at the request of a friend."

introduced in the House of Representatives to further liberalize North Carolina's abortion law, which was revamped in 1967.

The measure, proposed by Rep. Robert Jones, D-Forest City, would leave the decision on an abortion strictly up to the woman and her doctor. The measure would require a 90-day residency and would not permit abortions to be Another major proposal was in performed later than the fourth month in pregnancy, except in an emergency.

Jones said the measure is "more liberal than the present law but not as liberal as some states have now."

Democrats are expected to battle to save the cigarette and gasoline taxes. Repeal of the taxes would throw the record $4.3 million budget proposal made to the legislature Wednesday by Gov. Bob Scott out of balance, according to advisory budget officers.
