

Withdrawal possible by '72 - Sen. Scott

WASHINGTON—Senate Republican leader Hugh Scott said Sunday if a release of American prisoners of war can be arranged, President Nixon will withdraw all U.S. forces, including support troops, from Southeast Asia by the end of 1972.

Even if a prisoner exchange cannot be worked out, Scott said the Indochina War would not be a major issue in the next presidential campaign because only a few U.S. troops would remain in South Vietnam as a bargaining tool in continuing POW negotiations.

Scott made his remarks in a television interview on ABC's Issues and Answers. At a White House meeting last Wednesday, just before his speech to the nation on the Vietnam War, Scott said Nixon "was specifically asked by congressional leaders if total withdrawal means every American soldier—land, sea and air—and he said yes, it did."

"It is to be noted that the President made no reference to reserved troops or supportive troops and said that his goal is total withdrawal from South Vietnam and I think you can interpret that to mean Southeast Indochina," Scott said.

Heels win 2-1,3-1

Pitching beats Clemson twice

Ron Cox

The ERA of Carolina's pitching staff had been 5.67, but Jim Chamberlain, Dave Bullard and John Danneman changed all that Saturday.

They allowed Clemson only seven hits in two games, and the Tar Heels swept the double header 2-1 and 3-1 in Durham Athletic Park.

Carolina is now 2-1 in the conference and 7-9 overall.

Chamberlain, who had been leading Carolina with a 2.50 ERA, gave Clemson only two hits and struck out 12 in the first game, and he again specialized in getting them out when it counted.

The Tigers scored one run in the top of the ninth on a walk, an error, and a double by Calvin Weeks, and Chamberlain gave up his fourth walk to load the bases with two out.

However, he induced Rick Beasley to hit a grounder back to the mound to wrap up the victory.

Carolina rapped Dave Von Volkenburg for nine hits and reduced his record to 4-3. UNC took a 1-0 lead in the third inning on singles by Pete Franklin, Bob Elliott and Jack Gillis.

Elliott reached first on an error in the fifth, stole second, and scored Carolina's other in a single by Ron Cox.

Weeks got the only other hit, a single, off Chamberlain, who picked up his second victory in four decisions.

The second game was another tight one, with Carolina picking up two runs in the eighth for the victory.

Mike Roberts and Cox, the two leading Tar Heel hitters, singled to drive home Elliott and Gillis, handing reliever Chuck Bevis his second loss of the season against two wins.

Bullard pitched the first seven innings and gave up five hits, striking out three. Danneman held Clemson hitless through the last two frames to pick up his third win of the year in four decisions.

The Tar Heels meet Duke in Durham Tuesday; the Blue Devils defeated Carolina 9-0 in a non-conference game last month. Duke is now 0-4 in the conference and 6-7 overall following a 3-1 loss to Maryland Saturday.

2 Indian companies wiped out

Pakistan radio said Sunday West Pakistani troops "wiped out" two companies of Indian border security forces who ventured into East Pakistan where the government was pressing an offensive against rebel guerrillas.

Swarann Singh, India's minister of external affairs, denied Sunday in New Delhi any Indian personnel were sent into the embattled province.

India, however, moved troops Sunday to within 1.5 miles of the border checkpoint at Petrapole on the road to Jessore.

Pakistan Radio said, "Two companies of Indian border security forces, who were operating well within Pakistan territory in the Benapole area of Jessore district, were wiped out by the Pakistan army yesterday."

S.C. court to try more rioters

DARLINGTON, S.C.—The cases of at least some of the remaining 11 persons charged with riot in connection with the overturning of school buses at Lamar last year were expected to come to trial today.

Assistant Atty. Gen. C.T. Goolsby said Sunday it was no known how many of those charged would be tried. That was to be determined when general sessions court convened here today before Judge Wade S. Weatherford.

The 11 are among 22 white men who have been indicted in connection with the incident. Eight have already pleaded guilty and three others were convicted in a trial late February.

The charges stemmed from an incident March 3, 1970, when whites attacked buses which had carried black children to newly-desegregated Lamar high and elementary schools.

Narcs to increase phone taps

WASHINGTON—Increasing use of telephone taps may drive drug pushers out into the open where they will be easier to catch, the nation's chief enforcer of narcotics laws said Sunday.

"The telephone has been a God-send to illicit traffickers," said John E. Ingersoll, director of the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs.

"It gives them privacy. The telephone is used a great deal by those we're aiming at... if they can't hide behind the telephone they'll have to come out in the open and we'll have an easier time catching them," Ingersoll said in an interview.

Ingersoll, a holdover from the Johnson administration, nonetheless reflects the Nixon administration's high regard for wire tapping as a powerful tool in the fight against crime. He has only been authorized to use it since President Nixon took office under regulations requiring approval in each case by Attorney General John N. Mitchell and then a court order.

Fiddler says bluegrass popular

UNION GROVE, N.C.—World Champion Fiddler Clark Kessinger, 74, of Charleston, W. Va., thinks oldtime and blue grass music are more popular than ever.

He could be right. Most of the approximately 40,000 persons on hand when he walked off with the 1971 World Championship Fiddler title here Easter weekend were young enough to be his grandchildren.

They came from all over the United States and Canada. Kessinger, who began recording 40 years ago, said the audience was "the biggest crowd I ever seen."

"I don't know about it being the best crowd, but it's the biggest," said the fiddler, who first began playing in 1902, a year before the Wright Brothers' historic flight.

Powerful Terps thrash stickmen

Maryland dealt the Carolina lacrosse team its third defeat of the season Friday afternoon, outscoring the Tar Heels 15-3. The nationally second-ranked Terrapins rolled to a 9-1 halftime lead, and then added five more goals in the third period, and a final score in the fourth quarter.

Attackman Tom Cleaber paced the Maryland offense with four goals, while David Dempsey added three and John Kaestner chipped in two more. Ray Seipp scored a pair of goals for the Tar Heels, and Phil Sasser added one.

The win gave Maryland a perfect 5-0 record, while Carolina's season mark slumped to 1-3-1.

The Tar Heels have now played both top-rated Virginia and second-ranked Maryland, and "Everyone, both players and coaches, thinks that Maryland is the better team," says assistant coach Vincent Anania.

"We were just outmanned and outgunned," explained Anania. "Defensemen Paul Truesdell and Lawrence Lewis both had good performances, and on the midfield John Dooley's faceoffs and aggressiveness helped us."

Now that they've played the two toughest teams in the country, the Tar Heels have to begin their defense of the South Atlantic lacrosse championship.

The South Atlantic Conference is an eight-team league comprised of Carolina, Duke, Washington and Lee, Towson State, the University of Maryland-Baltimore County, Baltimore College, Washington College, and Roanoke College. The Strobbartrophy is the symbol of supremacy in the conference, and the Heels, who won it for the first time last season, would like to keep it for another year.

Carolina won its first conference game March 20, against Washington College. The Tar Heels' next opponent is Towson State, which will be in Chapel Hill April 15. Tenth-ranked Towson is led by attackman Tom Mahoney, whom Coach Anania describes as a "prolific scorer." Maryland defeated Towson 22-6.

The stickmen's toughest conference opponent figures to be Washington & Lee, the seventh-ranked team in the latest poll. The Tar Heels are slated to host W&L May 1.

Another high-ranked league for Carolina will be Maryland-Baltimore County, a team presently undefeated and twelfth-ranked. Carolina faces UMBC May 8 in Chapel Hill.

Scott leads Squires

NEW YORK—Charlie Scott, finishing with 38 points, led the Virginia Squires in a fourth quarter rally to beat the New York Nets 118-114 and win their American Basketball Association semifinal playoffs 4-2.

The Squires will play the winner of the Kentucky-Florida series for the Eastern championship. The Colonels lead that best-of-seven series 3-2.

Virginia trailed by as many as 17 points in the first half, in which the Nets' Rick Barry poured in 27 of his game high 45 points.

But Scott, who hit 25 of his points in the second half, drew Squires even minutes to go in the contest, which attracted 3,016 fans at Madison Square Garden's Felt Forum.
