Senate, Nixon wrestle with foreign aid bill

WASHINGTON - Congressional adjournment by Thanksgiving appeared out of the question Sunday, scuttled by the Senate's unexpected rejection of the foreign aid bill Christmas adjournment appears more likely.

President Nixon conferred Sunday with his congressional liason assistant as the administration moved to restore the foreign aid program.

The program is scheduled to expire Nov. 15, but the President told William E. Timmons, his assistant for congressional relations, that he wants first to have that date extended, and second, to work out legislation for a fully coordinated program.

As the lawmakers end their weekend recess, they must begin to construct a way to resurrect the program without interferring with other legislation that must be completed before the end of the session. The Senate Foreign Relations Committee is scheduled to meet this morning to discuss the $2.9 billion aid authorization the Senate defeated Friday.

Mayors, governors races highlight Tuesday voting

WASHINGTON - Voters cast ballots Tuesday in mayoral elections in Philadelphia Baltimore, Cleveland, San Francisco, Boston, Indianapolis and Gary, Ind., and for governor of Mississippi and Kentucky. Several contests have racial implications.

Charles Evers, black mayor of Fayette, Miss., and brother of a slain civil rights leader, is running as an independent in a three-way race for governor of Mississippi. In Cleveland, the nations's largest city with a black mayor, retiring Carl B. Stokes has thrown his organization behind another Negro, Arnole R. Pinckney

Mayor Richard G. Hatcher, 38, the first black to be elected mayor, is expected to

In Philadelphia, former Police Commissioner Frank Rizzo is slightly favored over Thacher Longstreth, and in Boston, Rep. Louise Day Hicks (D-Mass.) is not expected to be successful in her challenge of mayor Kevin H. White. Both Rizzo and Mrs. Hicks have run strong "law and order" campaigns.

San Francisco Mayor Joseph L. Alioto was expected to defeat two opponents. including Dianne Feinstein, president of the city's board of supervisors.

In Baltimore, the Democrats' 5 to 1 edge in registration was expected to give the city hall to City Council President William Shaffer. Richard G. Iular, 39, mayor of Indianapolis, president of a National Association of Mayors, and prime mover in a drive for city county merger that made Indianapolis on of the 10 largest cities in the nation, also was expected to win.

Thomas D. Emberton has the blessing of retiring Gov. Louis B. Nunn in his bid for the Kentucky state house. Emberton's opponents are Lt. Gov. Wendell Ford and A.B. "Happy" Chandler, former governor and commissioner of major league baseball.

Bomb blast damages Britain's largest building

LONDON - A bomb explosion ripped a gaping hole Sunday in the upper level of the Post Office Tower, Britain's tallest building, and an anonymous telephone caller said the outlawed Irish Republican Army (IRA) was responsible.

In the Irish Republic, however, a spokesman for the militant wing said the organization had nothing to do with the explosion.

The explosion sent tons of concrete, steel girders and rubble crashing hundreds of feet onto cars and streets below. Police said there were no injuries and the stability of the tower was unaffected.

In other action in Northern Ireland, at least 11 persons were wounded in bomb explosions and street fights. Three persons, two of them British soldiers, died of wounds suffered earlier in the week.

Brezhnev visiting Berlin

BERLIN - Leonid I. Brezhnev, secretary general of the Soviet Communist Purty. prolonged his stay in East Berlin Sunday for talks which diplomats said were aimed at breaking the deadlock in East and West German negotiations on Berlin.

Brezhnev arrived in East Berlin Saturday afternoon on his way back to Moscow from Paris. Eastern sources had said his Berlin visit would end early Sunday, but Brezhnev decided to continue the talks.

Western diplomats said they believed Brezhnev stayed on to explain to East German leaders the Soviet desire for a quick conclusion to the East-West German talks toward implementing the Big Four ambassadors' agreement on the status of Berlin.

In other news, Communist sources said Sunday the Soviet Union is drawing up plans for a "United Nations of Europe" to be presented to a European security conference. The sources said the Kremlin envisages a forum where disputes between European nations - eastern and western - could be discussed peacefully.

Angela Davis trial opens

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. - The murder trial of black militant scholar Angela Davis is scheduled to begin today after 10 months of pretrial manuevering.

Miss Davis is charged with masterminding a brazen scheme to free several San Quentin prisoners from a courtroom in San Marin County on Aug. 7, 1970. That attempt led to a bloody shootout that killed four persons.

Miss Davis, an avowed Communist and former assistant professor at UCLA, has been held without bail for more than a year. Her trial has become the total point for widespread protest on the grounds that it is politically motivated.

YDC hits marijuana laws

GREENSBORO - North Carolina Young Democrats Sunday were on record against penalties for possession of marijuana, for abortion and with their first statewide black

It was all a result of Saturday's state convention here and an indication that college YDC groups were wielding a stronger influence in the organization. Mrs. Armetta McPherson of Orange County became the first black elected to a state

YDC post when she defeated Jim Bailey of Johnson County for first vice president. Student factions and liberals led the fight in the hotly-debated marijuana issue for the 293-231 vote calling for the abolition of penalties for possession of marijuana. The convention voted that a woman should have the right to terminate her pregnancy with the assistance of a licensed physician.

China decides on name

UNITED NATIONS - Communist China made it clear Sunday that its first move as a new United Nations member would not be to pounce on the presidency of the

In a telegram to U.N. Secretary-General U Thant, Peking said it wanted to be known officially as "China, People's Republic of," when it takes its seat in the world

Had Peking demanded to be known as the People's Republic of China, alphabetically it would have automatically been in line to take over the Security Council presidency for November following the October presidency of Nicaragua.
