

Victory evens Dooley's UNC record

Lawrence: 'Jolley was the difference'

By Mark Whicker
Sports Editor

"Run to win," said Vince Lombardi to the Green Bay Packers in December, 1967.

Bill Dooley, a thousand miles away in Chapel Hill, was listening.

With a hard-blocking offensive line as his foundation, Dooley has established an almost unstoppable ground attack centered around his tailbacks. And he always seems to have someone around to run for over 150 yards a game.

Last year it was Don McCauley. Before he was injured in this year's fourth game, Ike Oglesby did the job. Then Billy Hite stepped in to key a close win over William & Mary.

Now it's Lewis Jolley, who ran for 167 yards against Virginia Saturday and enabled the Tar Heels to gain a tie for the ACC championship with a 32-20 victory. Carolina totaled 255 yards rushing.

The win finally brought Dooley's head coaching record at Carolina to 26-26. Caught without much talent in his first three years at Carolina, Dooley suffered through a 10-20 record.

Since then, the Tar Heels are 16-6 and have the traditional game at Duke and a possible bowl bid awaiting.

Jolley, a wingback in his first two years at Carolina, "was the only difference in the game," according to Cavalier coach Don Lawrence.

His eight-yard sweep gave the Heels a 10-0 lead at the beginning of the second quarter, and his catch of a 21-yard touchdown pass from Paul Miller sewed the game up with 9:18 remaining.

"Actually, we weren't emotionally up for this game," Jolley said in the locker room. "We were really up for Clemson last week and you know we'll be ready for Duke next week."

"But today we gave Virginia a field goal with a fumble, and we ended up giving 'em a touchdown with another fumble in the third quarter. Our offensive line got to work there in the second half and we finally won it."

Jolley has now gained 281 yards in two games at tailback. "The running style is no different," he said, "but my biggest problems have been in timing and steps. I've also never been tackled that much before, on just about every play. Now I can really appreciate how great Don McCauley was."

Losing coach Lawrence couldn't see much difference between last year's no. 23 and this year's no. 40.

"Jolley looked a lot like McCauley to me," he said. "He ran about as well as anybody I've seen."

"Not only is Jolley one of the best backs in the conference," Dooley assured writers, "he is one of the best players in the conference."

The Tar Heels needed all of Jolley's heroics to offset the passing wizardry of Cavalier sophomore Harrison Davis. Replacing Larry Albert in the second quarter, he threw two touchdown passes and amassed 261 yards.

The ACC's leading receiver, Bill Davis, solidified his position with seven catches and set a Virginia record with 159 yards.

"Davis was hitting the seams in our zone," UNC defensive back Rusty Culbreth said. "It's as simple as that. He really passed well."

Dave Sullivan narrowed the Carolina lead twice with beautiful touchdown grabs. In the third quarter, he dived for a 23-yard Davis pass, and later snatched a 14-yarder from Lou Angelo's hands in the Carolina end zone.

"Lou had him covered well in both plays," Culbreth said.

Angelo, however, turned in two interceptions that set Jolley's first touchdown and a 48-yard field goal by strong-footed Ken Craven.

That was the longest boot of his career, and two other three-pointers gave him seven field goals in eight attempts the last two weeks.

"Carolina is comparable to Michigan, a team that beat us 56-0," Lawrence said. "Carolina might not have the depth to beat them, but certainly they have the best material in the conference."

"We played well today, though. Our program is coming."

To keep it coming, Lawrence will have to stop the steady flow of good Virginia high school prospects to Chapel Hill. There are 19 Virginians on Dooley's roster; twelve have started in at least one game this year.

"Beating Duke will be a tall order," Dooley mused. "But we looked like champions today. When we were down, we got back up and fought."

Tiger hopes still alive

Clemson hung on to its chances for an ACC tie with a workmanlike 20-14 victory over Maryland Saturday.

The Tigers must beat State next week, and Carolina must lose to Duke, for Clemson to tie.

In other games, Wake Forest's third-quarter spurt defeated Duke 23-7 and Penn State defeated State 35-3 in State College, Pa.

The Tigers ground out 285 yards rushing to build the victory over the Terrapins.

Rick Gilstrap scored the first touchdown from five yards out after Eddie Seigler booted a 48-yard field goal.

Quarterback Tom Kendrick, who completed half his passes for 133 yards, hit tight end Karl Andreas with a 13-yard TD in the second quarter before Seigler added another field goal from 32 yards out.

Maryland finally scored two touchdowns with four minutes remaining.

Ken Garrett, Larry Hopkins and Larry Russell all rushed over 100 yards in Wake's victory. Duke had a 7-0 lead at half time on quarterback Rich Seal's 38-yard run, but Garrett broke off touchdown runs of five and 66 yards and Russell added another score from the 16.

Tar Heel freshmen whip Duke

It couldn't have been a better finale. After being shut out by an inspired Duke defense the entire first half, the powerful Carolina freshman offense rolled to three touchdowns to beat Duke 21-14 and cap a perfect 5-0 season.

For awhile it looked as though the most exciting moments for the Carolina fans who journeyed to Durham Saturday night for the Cerebral Palsy game would be the fireworks display at half-time. At the time Duke was leading 6-0 and the Blue Imp defense looked invincible.

The complexion of the game changed quickly, however, when fleet Bobby Myrick took the second half kickoff and added some fireworks of his own by racing 88 yards for the touchdown. Ellis Alexander added the conversion to make it 7-6.

The Tar Babies looked as though they would break it open in the middle of the third quarter when they drove 56 yards in 12 plays for their second touchdown. Tailback Jimmy DeRatt capped the drive by going off tackle the final three yards and Alexander was perfect on the conversion kick. The score was 14-6 Carolina and the Tar Babies were in the drivers seat.

Duke, however, was far from dead and a 33 yard touchdown pass from quarterback Mark Johnson to flanker Gene DeVine brought the Blue Imps to within two. Duke gambled for the two-point conversion and Johnson found split-end Eddie Pieczynski in the end zone to tie the score 14-14.

When Carolina stalled on the next series of downs punter Alan Brumfield put Duke back to its own 35 with a 37 yard punt. Duke tailback Mark Landon picked up four yards up the middle and then lightning struck the Blue Imps.

Quarterback Johnson took the snap and rolled right for the option that had been successful for Duke all night. His pitch to Landon, however, was high and the tailback couldn't hold on. Carolina defensive end Dan Swain pounced on the loose ball and it was first and ten Carolina on the Duke 33.

Carolina quarterback Chris Kupec then went to work and ten plays later hit tight end Charles Waddell for a 19 yard touchdown pass. The touchdown came despite a holding penalty that took the Tar Babies from the Duke four back to the 19.

The determined Duke team came back after the score when Landon took the kickoff 42 yards to the Carolina 42. Five plays later the Blue Imps were knocking on the door with a first and goal on the six.

The Carolina defense, however, arose to the occasion and stopped Duke on four plays. After Landon picked up four tough yards off tackle on two carries, Brumfield and linebacker Gary Cowan caught halfback Mike Lyons back at the six for a four yard loss.

On fourth and goal on the six Johnson dropped back to pass but was hit by defensive end Andy Chacos. Johnson fumbled and Chacos made the recovery to give Carolina a first and ten on their own 11.

Jack-of-all trades Bobby Myrick, who was awarded the game ball by his teammates, iced the game with 3:30 left by intercepting a Johnson thrown pass intended for flanker DeVine.

Kupec ended the night with 12 completions in 23 attempts for 134 yards and one interception. Charles Baggett, who left the game in the first half with a sprained ankle also completed three of four tosses.

Tailback Jimmy DeRatt was the leading rusher for Carolina gaining 76 yards in 18 carries for a 4.1 average and one touchdown.

Moyer Smith relieved after close win

by Dan Collins

The Carolina freshman dressing room was filled with mixed feelings of jubilation, relief and sorrow.

The Tar Babies had just defeated arch-rival Duke 21-14 before 11,000 fans in the annual Cerebral Palsy game. The victory assured the team a perfect 5-0 season and a Big Four championship, but it was their last game of the season.

Freshman coach Moyer Smith expressed a great amount of relief after the contest, the first close one his team had experienced all season.

"It was a pressure game," Coach Smith said. "Duke is far and away the best team we've played. It was a super effort, with our kid's still not physically well. They're still recovering from the flu."

"They're a great team with a lot of talent," he said. "They're the finest team we've had here, there's no doubt about it. They have intangible loyalty and they really look out for each other."

Flanker-defensive back Bobby Myrick, clutching the game ball his teammates had awarded him, gave most of the credit to Coach Smith for the team's successful season.

"Coach Smith made the team," Myrick said. "He's just a great coach. He really kept the team together."

Myrick scored the Tar Babies first touchdown when he took the second half kick-off and raced 88 yards for the score.

Two buses were chartered for people to come from his home town of Saratoga, N.C. to watch Jim DeRatt play and he responded by gaining 74 yards in 18 carries and one touchdown.

"We played the hardest we ever have," DeRatt said. "We were up for the Wake Forest game but there was no comparison to tonight. We really put it all together."

"Duke has a good football team, you have to hand it to them, but we played hard-nose football. There was no fancy stuff."

Another big story this season has been that of split-end Ray Stanford. The 5'7" 147 pounder from Rockingham started the season as a walk-on but ended as the team's leading receiver. In the game

Saturday night he once again led the team in receptions with five for 53 yards.

"Everyone said we had the best team on paper," Stanford said, "and we just wanted to prove we had the best team. I just hope we can carry on the winning tradition at Carolina and give them a national championship."

READ THE SPECTRUM OF LOVE

Spectrum of Love

"I love you."

There is a much greater motivation than simply my spoken words.

For me to love, is to commit myself, freely and without reservation. I am sincerely interested in your happiness and wellbeing. Whatever your needs are, I will try to fulfill them and will bend in my values depending on the importance of your need. If you are lonely and need me, I will be there. If in that loneliness you need to talk, I will listen. If you need to listen, I will talk. If you need the strength of human touch, I will touch you. If you need to be held, I will hold you. I will be naked in body with you if that be your need. If you need fulfillment of the flesh, I will give you that also, but only through my love.

I will try to be constant with you so that you will understand the core of my personality and from that understanding you can gain strength and security that I am acting as me. I may falter with my moods. I may project, at times, a strangeness that is alien to you which may bewilder or frighten you. There will be times when you question my motives. But because people are never constant and are as changeable as the seasons, I will try to build up within you a faith in my fundamental attitude and show you that my inconsistency is only for the moment and not a lasting part of me. I will show you love now. Each and every day, for each day is a lifetime. Every day we live, we learn more how to love. I will not defer my love nor neglect it, for if I wait until tomorrow, tomorrow never comes. It is like a cloud in the sky, passing by. They always do, you know!

If I give you kindness and understanding, then I will receive your faith. If I give hate and dishonesty, I will receive your distrust. If I give you fear and am afraid, you will become afraid and fear me. I will give to you what I need to receive.

To what degree (amount) I give love is determined by my own capability. My capability is determined by the environment of my past existence and my understanding of love, truth and God. My understanding is determined by my parents, friends, places I have lived and been. All experiences that have fed into my mind from living.

I will give you as much love as I can. If you will show me how to give more, then I will give more. I can only give as much as you need to receive or allow me to give. If you receive all I can give, then my love is endless and fulfilled. If you receive a portion (part) of my love, then I will give others the balance I am capable of giving. I must give all that I have, being what I am.
