

67-46 in season opener

Heel swimmers outscore Duke

by Dan Collins
Sports Writer

The Carolina swimming squad started the season off on the right foot yesterday by easily defeating Duke, 67-46.

It was evident from the start of the meet the Tar Heels had the less experienced Duke squad outmanned. Even more impressive was the fact several of the team's best swimmers swam only in exhibition and their times did not count in the final score.

The relay team of Peter Ray, Mike Eddy, Peter Barnes and George Schiaffino won the first event, the 400-yard medley relay, with a 3:48.7 time. From that time on the Heels never trailed in scoring.

Distance swimmer Barnes continued the Carolina domination by easily winning the 100 yard freestyle, with a 1:14.3 time. His closest competition was John Wooten and Franklin Owen of Duke who had identical 1:24.5 times.

Carolina won first and third places in the 200 yard free style with Dave Bedell finishing first and Jim Osborn third. Bedell's winning time was 1:50.8 while Osborn had a 1:55.6 time. Roland Staeb of Duke took second place with a 1:54.7 time.

Sophomore Glen Garella showed strength by taking first place in the 50 yard free style with a time of 22.4 seconds. Bob Dalrymple of Carolina took second place with a 22:6 time followed by Floyd Bradd of Duke with a 23.0 time.

In the 200 yard individual medley George Coxhead took top honors for the Tar Heels with a time of 2:12.9. Duke's Charles Shaw won second place but Carolina's Rich Troost took third place with a 2:19.5 time.

Freshman diver Larry May was impressive in his first competitive meet at Carolina by taking first place in both the individual medley and optional one meter events. His winning scores were 128.60 points for the medley and 189.05 points for the optional.

Sophomore Don Chambers placed third in the relays for a 5:18.4 performance to win the 500-yard free style event, and Bob Nagel finished ahead of two Blue Devils to win the 200-yard butterfly.

Duke's Shaw and Greg Devereaux took the 200 backstroke and the 200 breaststroke for Carolina with 2:29.3 time and Marshall Peck finished second in the back at 2:15.5.

Then Osborn came back for a victory in the 100-yard free style, finishing at 50.5 seconds.

"As a whole, we swam well but it was nothing fantastic," said Coach Pat Earey. "We're looking forward to the meets with Navy and Maryland right now."

"Those meets will involve much stiffer competition and will better tell us what kind of team we have," he said.

The Tar Heels were expected to contend for the ACC title with defending champion State, which has another great team, and Maryland, former ruler of the conference. So the upcoming Maryland meet will be indicative of the Tar Heels' strength, at least in early season.

'No probable cause' in marijuana hearing

RALEIGH, N.C. (UPI) — A district court judge Wednesday ruled police had no probable cause for charging North Carolina State basketball captain Paul Coder and forward Bob Heuts with possession of marijuana.

In a preliminary hearing here, Wake County district court judge George F. Bason said police had illegally searched a car involved in the case and that evidence stemming from the search could not be admitted in court.

Bason noted however that county prosecutors would still have the right to seek a bill of indictment from a grand jury. It was not known Wednesday if district solicitors would take the action.

Wake County assistant solicitor Randolph Riley, who handled the case in court Wednesday, said a decision on whether to seek a grand jury indictment would depend on the legal backing which could be found for his contention that the search was legal.

Both Coder, a 6-9 center on the Wolfpack team, and Heuts, a 6-7 forward, remained expressionless and quiet during the preliminary hearing.

They refused immediate comment on how the court ruling would affect their decision announced last week to withdraw as active players on the university's basketball team.

N. C. State coach Norm Sloan said, "If the case is over, both Coder and Heuts will dress out and play tonight." North Carolina State was scheduled to play its first game of the season against Atlantic Christian College here Wednesday night.

Coder and Heuts were arrested on Sept. 20 and charged with possession of five ounces of marijuana, a felony. Coder was also charged with transportation of narcotic drugs.

School officials said at the time no action would be taken against Coder and Heuts unless they were found guilty in court. Coder and Heuts withdrew as active players on the team last Friday, however, saying continued delays in their trial had brought embarrassment to the university.

Police officer A. C. Munday testified Wednesday he was patrolling about 12:30 a.m. when he spotted a 1964 Ford with a Maryland license plate parked in an otherwise empty parking lot in the city's Pullen Park near the university.

Munday said he looked into the car, found it unoccupied but saw clothes and coins strewn about and "what looked like a hunting knife."

He said on the suspicion of foul play, including the possibility that the car had been stolen or abandoned, he searched the dashboard for registration.

Testimony showed that based on evidence gained from that search, police put the car under surveillance and about 11 a.m. apprehended Coder and Heuts when they walked to the car.

Bason agreed with defense attorney Carl Churchill that Munday's search was premature and without probable cause. He said Munday should have had a search warrant or permission from the owner of the vehicle.

"I can't imagine a search warrant being issued by a magistrate on the basis of this information," he said.

Riley contended without success that Munday was authorized to make the search by a city ordinance requiring abandoned cars to be towed away. He said Munday needed to make the search to determine if the car had been abandoned and Munday was unable to leave to obtain a search warrant because he did not have another patrolman with him.

Bason said however by that reasoning, it could follow that any automobile found at such an hour not occupied is subject to search.

Four left in Grail-Mural

And now there are four. Dental Blue topped Pika I 59-39 with Webb leading the way with 22 points and Roberts right behind with 14. In the semi-finals they will meet the Flavuses who pulled out a hard fought game with Phi Delt Blue, 49-41. Camnitz got 14 and Baker 13 to lead all scorers. The other semi-final match has the Alkacetics against Law

Blue. The Alkacetics got 15 points from Ali and 10 from Parker to beat Phi Delta Chi 48-30, and Jim Delaney had a fine game and his 18 points led the Law Blue by the Lab Retrievers, 51-42. The finals of this tournament will be played on Monday night, Dec. 6 at 7:00 p.m. in Woolen Gymnasium. Y'all come.

BERNSTEIN'S "MASS": THE MOST IMPORTANT MUSICAL EVENT OF 1971.

Two Record Set only 8.98

Along with a boys' choir, a church choir, organs and an orchestra, Leonard Bernstein wrote into "Mass" a rock band, a blues band and a street band. He has combined the most beautiful sacred music with contemporary ballads and poignant lyrics. "Mass" was commissioned for the opening of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Newsweek said, "The solemn work is electrified by a musical inventiveness that never flags." And The Washington Post said, "It is the greatest music Bernstein has ever composed."

By reaching his own humanity, Leonard Bernstein has reached everyone else's. And he has created a truly rare and joyous experience.
