

DTH sports briefs

Bowlers fall to Md.

Saturday UNC's bowlers saw their chances for a league championship go down the drain. Despite a 948 three-game total by Tom Riley, the Heels were stopped by Maryland for the second time this season. Maryland won three out of five games rolled and took total pins with 4605 to Carolina's 4551 for a narrow victory margin.

The match drops Carolina's record to 4-2 and virtually assures undefeated Maryland of the league championship.

This weekend the Heels travel to Blacksburg, Va., where they play Virginia Tech and participate in a regional tournament. Both the men's and women's teams will take part. Bowling for the men are Jeff Stillwagon, Robin Dorff, Dave Wilkerson, Tom Riley, Bill Neel, Jim Powell and "Fat Cat" Knight. The UNC women (2-2) are led by Sparky Carpenter, Nancy Rotan, Kim Micol, Lynn Peacock and Tricia Williamson.

Women end home slate

Seeing the Wolfpack from N.C. State lose is a pleasure to most Carolina fans. State haters can join the Tar Heel cheerleaders and pep band Thursday night at 7 in Carmichael Auditorium when the undefeated UNC women's basketball team plays its last home game against the women Wolfpackers.

Carolina met the Wolfpack in Raleigh for its first game of the season, and soundly beat them 74-47.

Since that time the Carolina women have amassed a perfect 11-0. Their latest victory includes a 71-57 win over UNC-G last Tuesday.

Lopsided scores have been the rule rather than the exception this season, yet Carolina Coach Angela Lumpkin feels that her team "hasn't arrived yet."

"We haven't yet played to capacity," she said. If ever the young team played to its full potential, it "wouldn't have any trouble beating anybody."

The UNC-G game was never close, as Marsha Mann put in 14 points, and Courtney Peck and Joan Leggett were good for 12 each.

Intramural All-Campus basketball playoffs between the winners of the intramural divisions are today at 7 p.m. in Woollen Gym.

Students who lost their fall athletic pass may sign up from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. Friday in Suite C of the Union for Saturday's ACC ticket drawing.

Mitch Kupchak shoots a turnaround jumper during action Wednesday night in the Tar Heels' 78-70 win over the Duke Blue Devils. Carolina boosted its record to 15-5 overall, 6-2 in the ACC. Kupchak tied for scoring honors with Phil Ford with 19 points.

Locke admits NCAA probe

United Press International

WINSTON-SALEM — Clemson Coach Tate Locke confirmed reports Wednesday his basketball program is being investigated by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) for possible recruiting violations.

Locke, here for a game against Wake Forest, said NCAA officials visited the Clemson campus about a month ago.

"They talked to all of our players," he told the Columbia (S.C.) Record. "In fact, I spent two or three hours with them myself.

"It's apparent they're going to do a thorough investigation, and we expect to see them again."

The Baltimore Sun said Wednesday the NCAA is investigating the possibility that Clemson helped freshman Skip Wise and four other Clemson players obtain cars. The other players allegedly involved in the probe are freshmen Stan Rome and Colon Abraham, sophomore Wayne Rollins and senior Jo Jo Bethea, a transfer from Anderson Junior College.

Wise has a 1974 Cougar that he received in May of last year. His father denied that Clemson had anything to do with the car.

"It was a high school graduation gift from me," said Alan Wise. "I promised Skip that if he continued to play basketball and went to college, I would buy him a car."

Locke said a portion of the Sun article which said NCAA officials had been barred from the Clemson campus after eight or nine trips to question Wise was erroneous.

Part-Time and Summer Opportunities in Sales.
College Students:
 No traveling, no door-to-door soliciting. Thorough Training Program. Income commensurate with performance. Career possibilities. Apply between 9:00 and 2:00 601 NML Bldg., 143 W. Franklin St., Chapel Hill, N. C.

SKY DIVING

Don't be satisfied with anything but the best and most complete jump training available. Franklin County has a staff of professional instructors who have trained over 1,000 North Carolina first jump students since September 1973, while maintaining an absolutely unblemished safety record.

AND YOU CAN BE ONE OF THEM

We care about you, your training, your safety and your future jumping. Before you decide where to jump, call us. Come look us over—YOU BE THE JUDGE!

COME FLY WITH US
 Open Six Days—8 a.m. till dark (Closed Mondays)
 Student Training Classes 10:00 a.m. and 12 noon
 Jump the day you train (weather permitting)

First Jump Course $40.00 Your Own Group of 5 Or More $30.00 Per Person.
 Price Includes Logbook, All Training, All Equipment And First Jump.
 Parents Permission Not Required For Those 18 Or Older
 Transportation Problems? Call Us.

Franklin County Sport Parachute Center, Inc.
 Phone Louisburg 496-9223
 24 Miles North of Raleigh, Half Way Between Franklinton And Louisburg
 On Highway 56, South Side Of Highway

Hours 10-6 Mon.-Sat. Athletic Attic
 105 N. Columbia St. • UPSTAIRS • 967-4527
 At the corner of Franklin & Columbia

VALENTINE SPECIAL!!
15% Discount
 on all red or red striped shoes!
 Now over 50 styles of shoes for men and women

UNC wrestlers nipped by Pack

North Carolina entered Tuesday's wrestling match against N.C. State optimistic about its chances of defeating the Wolfpack on their home court. The Tar Heels, though 6-4 on the season, had barely lost to nationally 13th-ranked East Carolina at Greenville. UNC coach Bill Lam was hoping for a duplicate performance against State, but a pin at 190-pounds and a decision at heavyweight propelled the Wolfpack to a 21-19 victory over the Tar Heels at Reynolds Coliseum.

UNC had a 19-12 lead going into the 190-pound match between State's Sam Catalano and the Tar Heels' Tom Schober. But Catalano pinned Schober at the 6:29 mark to cut the score to 19-18. Then State's Tom Higgins decided UNC's heavyweight John Hackemer 2-0 with two third-period points to put the Wolfpack ahead for the first and final time.

Carolina jumped out to an early 12-0 lead through the first three classes on a forfeit to Scott Conkright at 118 and decisions by Steve and David Breece at 126 and 134. The Tar Heels could manage only two ties and lost two superior decisions in the next four matches as State closed the gap to 16-12. Carl Hoffman defeated State's Robert Buchholz at 177, 12-8, but the Wolfpack took the final two matches for the victory.

"We had them beat," said a discouraged UNC coach Bill Lam after the match. "We beat State's best men, we lost one we should not have. What really hurt us were the losses at 150 and 158. Also, we had a bad break at 190. Schober was riding his man the whole third period, if he could have stayed on top we would have won the match."

Carolina's next match is against Duke Saturday at Cameron Indoor Stadium.

A shortened version of the State match can be seen Sunday at 3 p.m. on WRAL-TV (channel 5). — Jim Thomas

HOAGIE'S HEROES February Special!
ALL BREWS FREE!!!
 with any sandwich for UNC students with I. D.
 Phone for Take-out 967-4696
 BETWEEN 6 p.m. - 2 a.m. Mon. - Fri.
 ALL DAY Sat. - Sun.

*****
BEATLES, YES, MAHAVISHNU, ALLMAN BROS., BEACH BOYS, L & M, CSN & Y, STONES, ETC.
 TONIGHT ONLY:
BRICE ST. BAND
 DANCE MUSIC AT ITS BEST!
 TOWN HALL • Only 50¢ before 9 p.m.
 *****

PRESERVATION HALL JAZZ BAND
 of New Orleans

$250

Wednesday, February 19 • 8 p.m. • Memorial Hall
 TICKETS: AVAILABLE AT CAROLINA UNION DESK Only $2<sup>50</sup>

Hours: 11 a.m.-12 midnight, Mon.-Sun.

Phantom Sandwiches

Menu

#1 Phantom Sub..... $2.10	#4 Corned Beef Sub .... $1.85
#2 Italian Sub..... $2.10	#5 Salami Sub..... $1.75
#3 Roast Beef Sub..... $2.10	#6 Ham Sub..... $1.75

Free Delivery with $2.00 minimum order.

1 FREE COKE

50¢ OFF any sandwich

NAME _____
 Phone # _____

(one coupon per sandwich, not valid with any other coupon.)

967-8258

VALUABLE COUPON

Crossword Puzzler

Answer to Yesterday's Puzzle

1 Moccasin	2 Word of sorrow	3 Place for worship	4 The ones here	5 Dawn goddess	6 Plaster	7 Repeat	8 Manservant	9 Man's name	10 Printer's measure (pl.)	11 Cheer	12 A state (abbr.)	13 Sharpen	14 Oriental nurse	15 Household pet	16 Found	17 Residue	18 Century plant	19 Former British prime minister	20 Strip of leather	21 Mohammedan judge	22 Is ill	23 The self	24 Damage	25 Anger	26 Arabian commander	27 Anglo-Saxon money	28 Antlered animals	29 Disturbance	30 Dance	31 Twirl	32 Period of time	33 Beneath	34 Reputation	35 For shame!	36 Possessive pronoun	37 Enameled metalware	38 Vase	39 Man's nickname	40 Identical	41 Conducted DOWN	42 South Amer-
------------	------------------	---------------------	-----------------	----------------	-----------	----------	--------------	--------------	----------------------------	----------	--------------------	------------	-------------------	------------------	----------	------------	------------------	----------------------------------	---------------------	---------------------	-----------	-------------	-----------	----------	----------------------	----------------------	---------------------	----------------	----------	----------	-------------------	------------	---------------	---------------	-----------------------	-----------------------	---------	-------------------	--------------	-------------------	----------------

1-13