Women's studies group meets

The Chancellor's Committee to consider a curriculum in women's studies will hold an open meeting Tuesday in rooms 202-204 of the Union. Anyone interested in a women's studies program at UNC is urged to attend and voice his opinion about the possible nature and goals of such a curriculum.

Although there are currently several academic courses regarding women, this is the first attempt to possibly draw them into an organized curriculum.

Interested persons unable to participate may submit a letter with ideas and comments to the committee chairman, Dr. Richard L. Simpson, chairman of the Department of Sociology.

The committee hopes to make a recommendation soon to the Faculty Committee on the desirability of a women's studies curriculum at UNC.

SSAC hears gripes

The Student Stores Advisory Committee will hold a general gripe session open to all students at 4:00 p.m. today in room 213 of the Union.

Student committee member Bob Arundell said Sunday the committee is particularly looking for student opinions on beer sales on campus, vending services and snack bar operations.

Present at the meeting will be James Branch, director of auxiliary enterprises; Tom Shetley, Student Stores manager; James Cansler, associate dean of student affairs; William Geer, director of student aid; faculty members C.L. Kendall and Junius Terrell; and student committee members.

McCarthy takes first in Hearst competition

Kevin McCarthy

UNC student Kevin Peter McCarthy has recently been awarded first place nationally in the January General News Writing Competition sponsored by the William Randolph Hearst Foundation.

McCarthy, a senior journalism major from Lancaster, Pa., was awarded the $900 first prize for his full-page interview article entitled "Back Home with Senator Sam" in the Jan. 30 edition of the Daily Tar Heel.

McCarthy's first place score has qualified him for the National Writing Championship to be held in San Francisco May 11, 12, and 13. First place in that competition carries a $1500 award.

Currently a staff writer for the DTH, McCarthy has previously served as DTH managing editor and features editor. He has also worked for two summers as an intern for the Lancaster Sunday News, and will work this summer for the Philadelphia Bulletin.

"I resigned as managing editor of the Tar Heel in December because I wanted to get back to writing and reporting," said McCarthy of his prize. "I guess you could say it paid off."

WHY DON'T YOU GO GET ME A DISH OF ICE CREAM?

WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF I TOLD YOU TO GO GET IT YOURSELF?

I'D POUND YOU UNTIL THE SUN WENT DOWN, AND I'D KEEP ON POUNDING YOU UNTIL THE SUN CAME UP AND THEN I'D POUND YOU UNTIL THE SUN WENT DOWN AGAIN.

CHOCOLATE OR VANILLA?

YES, THIS IS HE... WHO? SECRETARY MORDON?! WHAT A SURPRISE, SIR! HOW GOOD OF YOU TO CALL!

GOVERNOR? THE MINISTER OF MARIJUANA IS HERE TO SEE YOU, SIR.

FOR GOD'S SAKE, MAN, I'M TALKING TO THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR! WHAT'S HE WANT?

HE WANTS TO KNOW IF YOUR EXCELLENCY WOULD LIKE TO SCORE SOME REALLY GOOD GRASS.

SAY, BOB—SOMETHING'S COME UP.
