

Host Mary Baldwin Netters open season

Winner of 26 of the last 27 matches, the UNC women's tennis team opens its fall season Saturday by hosting Mary Baldwin College at 10 a.m. on the courts behind Joyner dorm.

The blue-white intrasquad match scheduled Thursday was postponed until next week because of rain, forcing Carolina Coach Frances Hogan to call Friday practice for 2 p.m. today to decide her lineup for Saturday.

Rain has caused similar problems for Mary Baldwin Coach Lois Blackburn. Her squad has been unable to practice all week, and Blackburn is only sure of who will play the top two courts.

Mary Baldwin comes into the match on a binge of its own. The team is 2-0 on the season and has won 61 of its last 65 matches. Two of Mary Baldwin's losses came at the hands of the Tar Heels last season.

Saturday's match will differ from the usual six singles and three doubles format, with 10 singles matches and five doubles matches scheduled. Carolina played Mary Baldwin in a similar match last fall and came out with a decisive 13-2 victory. Last spring the Tar Heels won 9-0 in Staunton, Va.

Playing on the top two singles courts for Mary Baldwin will be freshman Crissy Gonzales and sophomore Heidi Goeltz. Goeltz played No. 1 last spring but lost her position to Gonzales this fall. Other players for Mary Baldwin include Nanny Andrews, Sylvia Baldwin, Eloise Clyde, Jean Davis, Shirley Douglass, Bootie Holmes, Betsy Mikell, Ann Munger and Bonnie Smith.

The Tar Heels counter with a young lineup, including three freshmen. Susie Black of Greensboro, Lisa Dodson of Chappaqua, N.Y. and Mary Kay McCormick of Cincinnati, Ohio will be playing their first collegiate matches.

Sophomores Camey Timberlake and Suzanne Bowron will play on the first two singles courts for UNC. Other players likely to see action include sophomore Linda Matthews, juniors Nina Cloaninger, Rebecca Garcia, Jean Scott and Diane Sites, and senior Bitsy Leach.

The scouts drool over the high school halfback as he gracefully speeds his 6-5, 230-pound frame through the line for another touchdown. After the game, he is met by the usual entourage, anxious to sell a school.

The big programs, such as Teague and Avery and the smaller ones of Everett and Lewis, are represented and the recruiting war begins. The scouts start their sales pitch with something like, "We can give you a top-notch room—right next to the bathroom

Heels meet Buckeyes in Columbus

by Grant Vosburgh
Staff Writer

"Ohio State expects to have a good football team in 1975," the Buckeye handbook says. "Whether it becomes a great team depends upon how rapidly the offensive line and the entire defensive unit develop."

The new starters must be ready at the outset, for Ohio State's first four opponents are Michigan State, Penn State, North Carolina and U.C.L.A."

Michigan State, Penn State, North Carolina and U.C.L.A.?

Michigan State was in the top 20 last week, Penn State is now No. 12, U.C.L.A. is No. 10, and North Carolina is just above the cellar in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

And the Buckeyes are No. 2 nationally. And if their performance so far is any indication, they do have a great team, not the milder kind suggested by their publicity book.

Leading the attack for Woody Hayes' aggregation, as it shoots for OSU's 500th collegiate win Saturday, is Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin. Tar Heel Head Coach Bill Dooley cites Griffin's blocking and pass receiving as the extras that make him a "true All-American." And the NCAA record he holds, rushing for over 100 yards in the last 23 regular season games, is proof enough.

In the Buckeyes' two games (wins of 21-0 over Michigan State and 17-9 over Penn State), Griffin rushed for 236 yards in 53 attempts, a 4.4 average. Tar Heel fans may remember the 1972 loss to Ohio State, when an unidentified third-string tailback set an OSU record with 239 yards in a single game. College football had just met Archie Griffin.

The Buckeyes rely on versatile Cornelius Greene to operate their wing-I or T-formations. Greene has carried the ball 23 times this season, picking up 77 yards. He is nine for 20 (144 yards) in the air.

Other returnees to the OSU squad from last year are wingback Brian Bashnagel, fullback Pete Johnson, guard Ted Smith and tackle Scott Dannelley. They key an offense that is averaging 347 yards per game, 275 coming on the ground.

The defense, though hurt by graduation, has yet to give up a touchdown this season. Tackles Nick

Buonamico and Eddie Beamon, middle guard Aaron Brown and linebackers Ken Kuhn and Ed Thompson make up what UNC's Dooley calls "a strong line from tackle to tackle."

The secondary, led by Tim Fox, includes sophomore Ray Griffin, who played behind brother Archie last fall before moving to defense.

Both Ohio State and North Carolina coaches have complained of inconsistency. Hayes says that his offense couldn't maintain a solid drive last week against Penn State, while Dooley says the Tar Heels fell flat when Maryland took a 10-point lead last Saturday.

Because of the NCAA ruling calling for only 60 dressed by the host school and 48 by the visitor, the Buckeyes will be unable to dress 116 players as they did in 1972. Recalling that incident, UNC center Deke Andrews quipped that Ohio State came running on the field at 1:15 in a long line, and the guy at the end missed the 1:30 kickoff.

Sleep In Luxury (ON AIR)

INFLATE-A-BED™

The Only Guest Bedroom You Store On A Shelf

Inflate-A-Bed—the ultimate in a sleeping experience. It's a luxurious velvet-tufted air coil bed you inflate in minutes with a vacuum cleaner (comes with adapter), or any air pump. Use it as your permanent mattress or store it on a shelf for overnight guests. Use it in a camper, or daze your way across a lake on it (the soft, flocced finish prevents sticking or burning while sunbathing).

Inflate-A-Bed takes the sea-sickness, immobility, and water out of waterbeds, but gives the same relaxing give-and-take feel. The specially patented "air coil" construction, consisting of individual polyvinyl air support coils, supports your body evenly—you don't sink down, and the sides don't fly up as with inexpensive vinyl plastic furniture. No frame or innerspring is needed yet it is more comfortable than a conventional mattress. A Full Warranty is included.

Inflate-A-Bed—Incredibly light, incredibly tough (20 mil Poly Vinyl Chloride). It cleans easily with soap and water—the color does not wash out. An exciting new way to sleep, relax, and play. Try one for 2 weeks—no obligation.

Please send me the following inflatable bed(s). If not fully satisfied I can return within 2 weeks for an immediate refund.
