The Way We Were—The romantic atmosphere of this film is so heady and welcome that one can ignore the creaky plot and jerky continuity. With Barbra Streisand and Robert Redford. (Center 1. Shows at 2:45, 4:50, 6:55 and 9 p.m. Admission: $2.50.)

Raleigh

Don Quixote—A film of the ballet. Nureyev is the star; he re-choreographed some sequences and co-directed. He's accompanied by the Australian Ballet, which is not the world's best, and their prima ballerina, Lucette Aldous, also a disappointment. Photographed by Geoffrey Unsworth, who did "Cabaret." (Stewart Theatre. Monday at 10 a.m. and 7 and 9:15 p.m.)

Music

The Tuesday Evening Series Donald Oehler performs on clarinet, Francis Whang at piano; assisted by Alan Smith, cellist, and William Danluk, clarinetist. Sept. 30 at 8 p.m. in Hill Hall. All programs are open to the public without charge.

ON MARCH 11, 1958, THE UNITED STATES DROPPED AN ATOM BOMB ON MARS BLUFF, SOUTH CAROLINA.

The citizens of Mars Bluff probably aren't planning anything special to commemorate the day their town almost became the Hiroshima of the Pee Dee River, but with the Official National Lampoon Bicentennial Calendar, you can help remember this and hundreds of other black days in American history. Painstakingly researched to insure historical accuracy, the Official National Lampoon Bicentennial Calendar contains over 600 massacres, explosions, defeats, assassinations, crashes, bombings (intentional and accidental), panics, executions, lynchings, betrayals, mishaps, riots, sinkings, mutinies, rigged elections, armed incursions, stonings, fish kills, mass murders, and miscarriages of justice.

While everyone else is running around making a big deal out of a boring battle the British somehow managed to lose, you can be celebrating the day 147 persons, most of them young women, perished in America's deadliest industrial fire. Or the day Congressman Preston Brooks walked on to the Senate floor and beat Senator Charles Sumner unconscious with a gutta serena cane. Or the day convicted "trunk murderer" Winnie Ruth Judd escaped from the Arizona State Insane Hospital for the sixth time.

And the Official National Lampoon Bicentennial Calendar makes a perfect gift that will continue to depress and annoy someone you love throughout the whole year. The Official National Lampoon Bicentennial Calendar, with twelve breathtakingly lurid illustrations, is on sale in bookstores everywhere for only $3.95.

GOOD, JIMMY! SOUNDS ON. LET'S CUT IT...

SORRY, STEVE, I CAN'T—I PROMISED MY WIFE I'D BE HOME FOR DINNER AT 6:30 SHARP!

UH, JIM, THERE'RE EIGHT UNION MUSICIANS HERE...

SHE PUTS A LOT OF EFFORT INTO DINNER. THE LEAST I CAN DO IS BE PUNCTUAL.

DAMMIT, JIM! WE'RE IN THE MIDDLE OF A VERY SCHEDULED, VERY EXPENSIVE RECORDING DATE!

THAT MEANS NOTHING TO A CHEESE SOUFFLE.

9-27

"MIGHT BE OBSCURE... THIS MAN WITH A CURE... AN OTHER, BUT BROTHER, HE'S PURE!"

WELL, THE PITCH IS OFF, OKAY? JIM, BUT I THINK I CAN SAVE IT IN THE MIX. IN FACT, IF I PUT SOME EQ ON IT, WE MIGHT EVEN HAVE A WINNER!

ESPECIALLY WITH THE LYRIC—VERY ENIGMATIC! COULD BE A NEW "YOU'RE SO VAIN." THE ROCK PRESS'LL GO CRAZY TRYING TO FIGURE OUT WHO THE SONG'S ABOUT.

IT'S ABOUT MORRIS UDALL.
