More security sought by Ford

WASHINGTON—President Ford, citing "recent events," asked Congress Tuesday to provide $11 million more for presidential protection, including 150 more Secret Service agents.

Ford did not refer directly to the recent attempts on his life by two women in California. But he said:

"While this increase is substantial, I believe it is fully warranted in the light of recent events and the demands placed upon the Secret Service for protection of candidates in the upcoming election."

Meanwhile, in testimony before a Senate appropriations committee, Treasury Secretary William Simon said threats on Ford's life have tripled in the flood of recent assassination attempts.

Location of CIA budget revealed

WASHINGTON—Rep. Robert Giarmo, D-Conn., said Tuesday the top secret budget for the Central Intelligence Agency—traditionally hidden in allotted outlays for other agencies—is concealed in a $2 billion appropriation for the Air Force.

Congressmen who oppose disclosure say the figure will help America's enemies and—a point that Giarmo accepts—disclosure of the total may lead to more specific revelations about America's spy activities.

Giarmo is leading an attempt to make public the total spent for the CIA's spying activities as part of the House debate on the $112 billion bill to give the Pentagon money for its needs between July 1 and Sept. 30, 1976. The House did not decide the issue Tuesday and a vote is expected today.
