

Campus Calendar

Today's Activities

The Media Board Executive Committee will meet at 3 p.m. in Room 205 of the Union.

The Student Council for Exceptional Children will meet at 7 p.m. in 08 Peabody.

The UNC Outing Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. in 431 Greenlaw. Take a $5 deposit for food if you intend to take a trip this weekend.

Two introductory lectures on the Practical Aspect of the Science of Creative Intelligence—the Transcendental Meditation Technique, will be given at 3 and 7:30 p.m. today in Room 206 of the Union.

The Student Speech, Hearing and Language Association will sponsor a panel discussion on "The Environmental, Legal and Clinical Implications of Noise Exposure" at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of DDDL (Division for Development of Disabilities of Learning). Refreshments will follow.

The monthly business meeting of the Student Speech, Hearing and Language Association will be held at 8:45 p.m.

The weekly informal luncheon for everyone interested in Latin America will be held at noon in the South Gallery Meeting Room in the Union. Take your lunch.

The UNC Sailing Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. in Room 205 of the Union. Plans for the Bahamas trip will be discussed.

Dr. Michael Gazzaniga, Professor of Psychology and Social Sciences in Medicine at State University of New York at Stony Brook will present "Multiple Modes in Mind" at 4 p.m. in 112 Davis.

ECKANKAR, The Path to Total Awareness, will present a public lecture by Bob Rountree, area representative, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 213 of the Union.

Upcoming Events

IRSS Short Course "BMD P Series—Statistical Package" (Session II) will be taught by Bill Reynolds at 2 p.m. Thursday in 307 Manning.

Chapel Hill Mayoral candidates Jim Wallace and Gerry Cohen will address the Di-Phi Societies at 8 p.m. Thursday. A question and answer session will follow the talks, to be held in 300 New West.

The Circle K Club will meet at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Union.

The UNC Young Democrats will have a party at 8:30 p.m. Thursday at 6-L Estes Park Apts. Carrboro. All club members are urged to stop by. Call 933-2874 for rides, information.

A free public lecture on individual freedom, "Riding Easy in the Harness," will be presented by the Christian Science Organization at 4 p.m. Thursday in Room 215 of the Union.

The Native American Student Movement will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday in Forest Theatre. A pot-luck supper/cook out will immediately follow the meeting.

The John J. Parker Society of International Law will meet at 4 p.m. Thursday in CR-4 at the Law School. All interested persons are invited.

The UNC Law Guild will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Odum Village Community Center.

Marvin Silver, candidate for a seat on the Chapel Hill Board of Aldermen, will be in the Union Lounge from 3:30 until 4:30 p.m. Thursday to discuss local issues.

A bus tour from the Carolina campus to the Freer Art Gallery in Washington, D.C., has been arranged for Friday (Oct. 24). Seats are $15 each. Contact Larry Kessler, 453 Hamilton (933-5061), for reservations.

"Sports—Is It Really Journalism?" is the title of a panel discussion to be sponsored by the Society of Professional Journalists at 7 p.m. Thursday in 204 Howell. Panelists will include Joe Tiede, sports editor for the Raleigh News and Observer; Art Chansky, sports editor for the Durham Morning Herald; and host for Sports Switchboard on WCHL; and Jim Heavner, announcer with the UNC sports networks. All interested persons are welcome.

CWB (College Women in Broadcasting) will sponsor a panel discussion on "Preparing for and Finding a Job in Broadcasting" at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in 01A Swain. Guest speakers will include Jane Smith, Career Planning Counselor at UNC; John Edgerton, program manager of WBTV; Howard Wilcox, manager of WNCN and WDCG; Bob Mias, associate director of the UNC-TV Network; and Dr. W.H. Nelson, of the RTVMP Department at UNC.

The YWCA's Pollack Dinner Discussion group will meet Friday (Oct. 24) at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Young. Selden Jackson will lead a discussion on Black Literature. All interested students are invited. Check by the Y Office for more information.

IRSS Short Course "BMD P Series—Statistical Package" (Session II) will be taught by Bill Reynolds at 2 p.m. today in 307 Manning.

Found: a set of keys in 107 Murphey; probably lost before end of 11 a.m. class, Monday. Call John McInroy at 933-5021.

Career Planning and Placement has received information announcing a New Program Student Project for the Bicentennial Celebration, sponsored by the N.C. Internship Office and the N.C. Bicentennial. Further information and application forms are available at 211 Hanes. They are due back on Nov. 14.

Lost: A pair of gold, wire-rimmed glasses left on the wall in front of the Undergraduate Library last Monday night. If found, please call Bob Channon at 968-9071.

The VAT (Veterinary Aptitude Test) desired by many veterinary schools will be given in Raleigh Nov. 8 and Dec. 6. Applications should be received in New York City at least 10 days before the test dates. Applications can be picked up in the Guidance and Testing Center, 101 Nash Hall (across from the Carolina Inn parking lot). Fee is $15.

Lost: Gold wireframe rimless glasses in hard black case. Left beside Pearson Hall Wednesday night. If found please call Rick Carter at 933-8651.

Orders for Homecoming Mums will be taken in the Pit today thru Thursday. Special price is $2.50; sponsored by UNC Angel Flight.

The Student Health Service has a limited supply of flu vaccine available free of charge to students. The Communicable Disease Center in Atlanta does not anticipate a major flu epidemic this year. However, it is strongly advised that students with chronic diseases such as diabetes, asthma, bronchitis or other lung diseases, heart or chronic kidney disease, take the flu vaccine every year.

Chevaliers! Are you interested in establishing a court for your observance? If so, call 942-6588.

The U.S. Coast Guard Reserve short course in boating safety will be taught from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 28, in Room 202 of the Union. Title of the course is "S.O.S." (Saturday Outboard Special).

An exhibit of handmade pottery will open Thursday at Womancraft, 104 W. Franklin St., upstairs. Registration is still open for the spinning class beginning Oct. 28. If interested, call 929-8362 or go by Womancraft.

Anyone interested in being a host of a visiting craftsman during the International Handicrafts Bazaar should sign up at the Y.

Found: silver Cross pencil, engraved. Found in Union Snack Bar. Call Dennis Stacey, 929-6416, after 5:30 p.m.

Bake sale to be held today

A bake sale to raise money for trips to area correctional facilities will be held today by the UNC Speech 95-96 class, Safety Via Communication.

The sale will be held from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Pit and at the NCNB Plaza entrance on Franklin Street.

The class, taught by Dr. Paul Brandes, works to improve communications between inmates and staff of area correctional facilities such as Triangle Correctional Center and Women's Prison. The class is now working at Sandhills Youth Center.

The project receives no University money, but each student pays $9 to help meet transportation and refreshment expenses. The bake sale is to raise the remainder of the money needed.

The class makes seven trips to Sandhills this semester to meet with residents and staff separately for sessions of transactional analysis and role-playing.

DTH
ADS
WORK

briefs

from the wires of United Press International

Top office sought by Senator Bayh

INDIANAPOLIS—Sen. Birch Bayh crowded the 1976 Democratic presidential field to nine Tuesday and said he thought he could be nominated on the second or third ballot at his party's national convention.

Bayh called on the nation to "restore moral leadership to the White House" and said he believes he can "create some enthusiasm" among voters that previously announced candidates have failed to muster.

The 47-year-old Indiana senator will officially open his New Hampshire primary campaign headquarters Wednesday.

He said he plans to enter his home state primary, and is considering entering primaries in Massachusetts, New York, California, Ohio and Illinois, plus some others.

He told reporters at a news conference after the announcement ceremonies that in his congressional and legislative offices he has been "called upon to stand up and fight what seemed impossible battles."

"Just as I did not hesitate to stand up to Richard Nixon, I am now prepared to stand up to Jerry Ford and take the case to the people of the country," he said.

He attacked the economic policies of President Ford and said, "I don't think the economy is going to be turned around. This is one of the reasons I want to be President of the United States."

Franco recovering

MADRID—The Spanish government announced Tuesday night that

Generalissimo Francisco Franco was stricken with a severe heart ailment but that the 82-year-old chief of state was recovering "satisfactorily."

The statement said Franco met for 45 minutes Tuesday evening with Premier Carlos Arias Navarro.

"During the course of a case of influenza, the chief of state suffered a coronary attack; he is coming along satisfactorily having already begun his recovery and part of his normal activities," the official communique said.

A government official said that "Franco's doctors say they have no worry for him, but are keeping him under close surveillance."

Government sources reported earlier that the chief of state was stricken with an attack of heart inflammation and was in critical condition.

They said Franco might decide to hand over power to his designated successor, 37-year-old Prince Juan Carlos de Borbon.

The official statement said, "At 7 p.m., 3 p.m. EDT today, his excellency the chief of state received in his office the premier Arias with whom he held a conversation of 45 minutes."

A source close to Arias said Franco sat up during the discussion.

Sources close to the government said the meeting may have involved preparations for Franco to turn over the power he has wielded for 36 years to Juan Carlos.

Arias had conferred with Juan Carlos before traveling in the evening to Franco's suburban El Pardo Palace.

Yacks to be distributed today

The 1975 Yackety Yacks have arrived and will be distributed from 1 to 4 p.m. today in the South Lounge Meeting Room of the Union.

Distribution will continue from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Thursday and Friday. Yack editor Carl Bauchle said Friday will be the last day of distribution. "Books will be given out only three days," Bauchle said. "I urge that everyone come by as soon as possible."

To pick up yearbooks, students need to bring their student identification card. Receipts will be helpful but are not necessary.

Yearbooks have already been mailed to last year's seniors, who should receive them within three weeks.

A waiting list is being compiled for sale of any extra copies. Anyone wishing to buy a '75 Yack who did not previously order one can be placed on a waiting list by visiting the Yack office in Suite D.

Orders for 1976 Yackety Yacks will be taken beginning next week. The cost is $7.

The Yackety Yack has been chosen as one of the top ten yearbooks in the country by the Printing Institute of America for the past five years.

At Riverview... your best good-eating bargains are better than ever!!

Bring in these valuable coupons. You'll be glad you did!

#11. RIBEYE STEAK

with Baked Potato, Salad, & Texas Toast
$1.79
Valid thru Oct. 31 with coupon

#2. SIRLOIN STRIP STEAK

with Baked Potato, Salad, & Texas Toast
$2.89
Valid thru Oct. 31 with coupon

#8. 6 oz. CHOPPED STEAK

with Baked Potato & Texas Toast
89¢
Valid thru Oct. 31 with coupon

#12. SHRIMP DINNER

with CHOICE of Baked Potato or French Fries, Salad, & Texas Toast
$2.19
Valid thru Oct. 31 with coupon

(20¢ extra on take-out orders)

2 PIZZAS 1
for the price of 1
ANY SIZE
with coupon

RIVERVIEW

STEAK HOUSE & PIZZA TAVERN

USDA CHOICE BEEF & HOMEMADE PIZZA

OPEN 4-11:30 Daily

HOURS: Mon.-Thurs. 11-8:30; Fri. 11-9:30;

Sat. 4-9:30; Sun. 12-8:00 • BESIDE PLAZA THEATERS

When it's too far, too hot (or cold), and too expensive to go off campus... on campus Student Stores. At the hub of campus life.

carolina
Union

november
CONCERTS

Friday, November 7

Janis Ian

8 p.m./Memorial Hall

TICKETS: $3. Public sales begin Thursday, Oct. 23

Wednesday, November 12

Stephen Stills

9 p.m./Carmichael Auditorium

TICKETS: $4 in advance, $5 day of show.

Student sales begin Mon. Oct. 27; Public sales begin Thurs. Oct. 30

Tuesday, November 18

Fleetwood Mac

9 p.m./Carmichael

TICKETS: $4. Student sales begin Mon., Nov. 3; Public sales begin Thurs., Nov. 6

All shows general admission. Tickets available for all shows at the Carolina Union and the Chapel Hill Records Bars on the dates indicated.

Keep this ad for future reference!