

Campus Calendar

Today's Activities

The Carolina Indian Circle will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the South Gallery Meeting Room in the Union.

The Student Academic Affairs Committee will meet at 7 p.m. Thursday. All three subcommittees are asked to attend. Location may be checked at the Union desk.

ECOS will hold a general business meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Room 217 of the Union. Environmental action in Chapel Hill will be discussed. The meeting will be open to the public.

Prof. Shaler Stidham Jr. of the Department of Industrial Engineering at North Carolina State University will talk on "Optimal Control of Queueing Systems: An Updated Survey" at 4 p.m. Thursday in 265 Phillips. A coffee hour will precede the occasion, beginning at 3:30 in Room 102, Phillips Annex.

A talk on maternity practice, "Who Speaks for the Family?", will be given by Peg Beals, R.N., at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Orange Savings and Loan, corner of Rosemary and Columbia streets. Sponsored by the National Association of Parents & Professionals for Safe Alternatives in Childbirth, a 50¢ donation would be appreciated.

The UNC Scuba Club will meet at 7 p.m. Thursday in Room 303 of Woollen Gym. A slide show on diving will be presented.

The Carolyceum Needlepoint Class will meet at 7:30 p.m. in 225 Greenlaw. Blocking will be discussed. If you cannot attend, please call Kathi at 933-4921.

The Campus Crusade for Christ will have a Christmas party at 7 p.m. in 301 Dey Hall.

Vermont C. Royster, Kenan Professor of Journalism and former editor of the Wall Street Journal, will speak on the American Presidency at a special meeting of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Literary Societies at 8 p.m. in the Dialectic chambers on the third floor of New West.

Pit on the occasion. For music, Homecoming Queen Delmar Williams will do the William Tell Overture with his head. A vegetable olympic will be held also, featuring a cabbage put and an onion eating contest.

A free introductory lecture on Transcendental Meditation will be given at 7 p.m. Monday (Dec. 8) in Room 217 of the Union.

The annual Christmas bazaar of the University United Methodist Church will be held from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday. Needlework, Christmas decorations, plants, foods, jewelry, aprons, candy, children's clothes, ceramics and white elephants will be on display. Lunch will be served and a nursery will be provided.

A program of new music by students in composition will be presented as a free public concert at 4 p.m. Sunday in the Hill Rehearsal Hall. The program will consist of instrumental solos, duos, trios, vocal pieces and an electronic tape composition.

craftsmen will be using the parking lot that weekend.

Anyone interested in serving on the Media Board please pick up an application at the Union desk before Dec. 12. John Hanford at 968-9068 will answer any questions on what the position involves.

Any students who wants his/her English I or 2 folder from Fall semester 1974 should sign up in Greenlaw 200 or call 933-5481 sometime this week.

The International Handicrafts Bazaar needs people to work a couple of hours in sales, security, decoration and as entertainers and waiters in the international coffeehouse the weekend of Dec. 5-7. To sign up or find out more about the Bazaar go by the campus Y.

The federal Summer Employment Examination will be given only in January and February. The January date is strongly recommended. The deadline for applying to take this test is Friday, Dec. 12. Mailing forms and more information are available at Career Planning and Placement, 211 Hanes Hall.

All International Students please go by and sign up as a waitress for the coffeehouse the Association of International Students is sponsoring during the International Handicrafts Bazaar this weekend. Anyone who wishes to entertain call Anne Marie Rompalske at 933-6278.

The Guidance and Testing Center will be closed on Monday evenings until next year, but will be open regular office hours (8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) Monday through Friday except for University holidays of Dec. 24-26 and New Year's Day.

A mountain-style chicken bar-B-Q will be sponsored by and for the benefit of Neighborhood House this Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m. at the corner of Church and Carr streets.

Lost: A sterling silver spoon ring and braided leather bracelet; much sentimental value. Reward offered. Call Missy at 929-8003.

Upcoming Events

A Christmas party and dance will be sponsored by the Carolina Gay Association at 9 p.m. Friday in the Craige Dorm Recreation Room. Everyone is invited.

Willie Koch Day - The friends of Dr. William J. Koch are invited to a fun-filled morning to celebrate the joy of knowing Willie. Group I of Botany 10 encourages everyone to join in the music, games, gifts, food, excitement, sex and surprises.

Two friends of Koch, Director of Financial Aid Bill Geer and Political Science instructor Ed Azar, will give speeches in the

Chapel Hill Recreation Department Outdoor Program

Botanical Gardens Children's Hike: Thursday from 10-11:30 a.m. at the Botanical Gardens Green House. Open to pre-schoolers and parents at no charge.

Christmas Evergreen Workshop: Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Botanical Gardens Green House. Open to the public at the cost of $4 per person to cover instruction and materials.

Items of Interest

Toronto Exchange Members can pick up Canadian address information at the Union desk now.

A Moravian Lovefeast and Christmas Candlelight Service will be held at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the Wesley Foundation on Pittsboro Street. Everyone is welcome.

Next week will be the last week of the Women's Health Clinic at the Student Health Service before the holidays. There will be no discussion group on Dec. 16 and no clinic on Dec. 18.

SCAU is looking for a bicycle repair expert to assist in research for their bike repair booklet. The amount of time required for this position will be minimal. Call 933-8313 for further information.

The cast parking lot of the Union has been reserved for the weekend of Dec. 5, 6 and 7 by the YM-YWCA. The Appalachian

Staff photo by Charles Hardy

Through the open door of a Chapel Hill car wash, familiar landmarks are reflected in a way that is not usually seen.

Tar Heel 100: Chancellor's advisory group still learning about University

by Laura Scism
Staff Writer

committee was never meant to be a pressure group," she said.

The Order of the Tar Heel 100, an advisory group to the chancellor, is still familiarizing its members with University programs and goals after being chartered by the UNC Board of Trustees in October, 1974.

The committee serves as a liaison between the people of the state and the University. UNC Vice Chancellor William F. Little said. Its members tell the chancellor how North Carolinians feel about the University and explain the University's goals and programs to the people.

For example, after discussing admissions problems with UNC Director of Undergraduate Admissions Richard Cashwell, committee members explained University admissions policy to people they knew, Little said.

Other issues and problems facing the University concerning the committee include the utilities sale, a possible women's gymnasium, plans for a new library, student aid and a continuing education center, committee Vice Chairperson Sibyl Powe of Durham said.

Although committee members make suggestions to Chancellor N. Ferebee Taylor and the Board of Trustees in these areas, the Tar Heel 100 is strictly an advisory body, Little said.

But while the Tar Heel 100 is not an official lobbying group, once its members become aware of the University's needs, they work to meet those needs, Powe said. "Natural lobbying" is conducted through social contacts, Powe said. She explained that if she eats dinner with her neighbor, a state legislator, "naturally I talk to him about the needs of the University."

But any such lobbying is strictly in individual matter, Powe noted. "The

The Tar Heel 100 is not a fund-raising organization either. Little said, even though many committee members have helped the University raise money through other organizations, such as the Medical Foundation, the Business Foundation and the Alumni Association.

But if the need arises, individual committee members may help raise money, although not as members of the Tar Heel 100, Little said.

Little said the Tar Heel 100, also called the Committee of the Tar Heel 100, is still planning its programs and deciding how to accomplish its goals. So far, meetings have been designed to familiarize members with the University's strengths and needs, he said.

Committee members, elected for three-year terms by the Board of Trustees upon the Chancellor's recommendation, are "close friends of the University and (are) in close contact with the people of the state," Little said. "They are people the University can call on for their time."

The Tar Heel 100 group is divided into smaller committees, which are concerned with communications, financial assistance and the University's goals and programs, study problems or in-depth needs. These committees suggest ways in which the University could better serve the state, Hanes said.

Most of the 100 committee members are University alumni, but the Tar Heel 100 is not another alumni organization, Little said. "It should complement the Alumni Association, but it certainly is not a substitute which has chapters and meetings throughout the state," he said.

Frank Borden Hanes, chairperson of the Tar Heel 100's committee on arts and sciences, said in a telephone interview that the group seeks to increase support for the University among state citizens and also to make people more aware of the University and its needs.

The Daily Tar Heel is published by the University of North Carolina Media Board; daily except Sunday, exam periods, vacations, and summer sessions. The following dates are to be the only Saturday issues: Sept. 6, 20; Oct. 1, 8; Nov. 11, 25.

Offices are at the Student Union Building, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514. Telephone numbers: News, Sports - 933-0245; 933-0246; Business, Circulation, Advertising - 933-1163.

Subscription rates: $25 per year; $12.50 per semester.

Second class postage paid at U.S. Post Office in Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514.

The Campus Governing Council shall have powers to determine the Student Activities Fee and to appropriate all revenue derived from the Student Activities Fee (1.1.4 of the Student Constitution).

The Daily Tar Heel reserves the right to regulate the typographical tone of all advertisements and to revise or turn away copy it considers objectionable.

The Daily Tar Heel will not consider adjustments or payments for any typographical errors or erroneous insertion unless notice is given to the Business Manager within (1) one day after the advertisement appears, within (1) day of the receiving of the last sheets or subscription of the paper. The Daily Tar Heel will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of an advertisement scheduled to run several times. Notice for such correction must be given before the next insertion.

Reynolds G. Bailey, Business Mgr.
Elizabeth F. Bailey, Advertising Mgr.

CHECK THE DTH CLASSIFIEDS

JEAN TOPPERS!
Long-sleeved, printed, knit tee shirts.
Many to choose from!

ALSO JEANS
pre-washed, cord, and brushed denim
by H.I.S., LEVI, and WRANGLER.

University Mall
Sunday 1-6

VICKERS CLOTHIERS, Inc.

No need to Cram for SPACE!

Student Special Semester lease now available.

- 8 min. from U.N.C.
- 2 min. from South Sq. Shopping Center
- 5 min. from Duke
- 3 Swimming Pools
- 2 Recreation Rooms
- 24 hr. Security
- Professionally lighted Tennis Courts
- 1, 2, & 3 Bedrooms
- Furnished & Unfurnished

Display Apartments Open 7 Days a Week or By Appointment.

Starting at $135.00

roadmoor apartments

4216 Garrett Rd. at 501 South
Phone 489-2302

WINTER SPECIAL:
2-BEDROOM FURNISHED APARTMENT ONLY
$160 PER MONTH

RA applications available Friday

Applications for resident assistant (RA) and assistant resident director positions will be available this Friday, Assistant Housing Director Sandi Ward said Wednesday.

Campus residents (all except freshmen) with a 2.5 grade point average or better are eligible for the positions.

RA's work an average of 17 hours per week and are paid $2.50 per hour for counseling, representing the housing department and the University in policy matters and aiding dorm governments. They occupy single rooms and pay $288 semester for room rent.

Ward called the selection for RA positions "pretty competitive. We had about 500 applications for 80 positions last year." She said the numbers should remain the same this year.

Further information and applications are available from current RA's for on-campus students and at the Carr Building housing office for off-campus students.

Primitive things ...

- Quilts
- Trunks
- Clocks
- and more

... make great gifts at real old fashioned prices

Cottage Antiques

M-F-Sat. 10:30-5:00 or call 967-2806
E. Main Street Carrboro

Is someone on your list a Pipe Smoker?

See the gentlemen at St. James early for an excellent selection of fine pipes, pipe tobaccos and smoking accessories (not to mention fine coffees and teas).

Merry Christmas

St. James Tobaccos

117 E. Franklin Street 967-3960

December Specials at Riverview:

#11. RIBEYE STEAK $1.89 with coupon
with Baked Potato, Salad & Texas Toast
Good thru December '75

#12. 6 oz. CHOPPED STEAK 99¢ with coupon
with Baked Potato & Texas Toast
Good thru December '75

#8. SHRIMP PLATTER $1.99 with coupon
with your choice of Baked Potato or French Fries, Salad & Texas Toast
Good thru December '75

2 PIZZAS 1 ANY SIZE for the price of 1 with coupon
(20¢ extra for take out orders)
Good thru December '75

RIVERVIEW STEAK HOUSE & PIZZA TAVERN
USDA CHOICE BEEF & HOMEMADE PIZZA
OPEN 4-11:30 Daily
HOURS: Mon. Thurs. 11-8:30; Fri. 11-9:30; Sat. 4-9:30; Sun. 12-8:00 • BESIDE PLAZA THEATERS