SOUNDHAUS SOUNDHAUS SOUNDHAUS SOUNDHAUS Did you know that 90% of the noise that plagues your records, tapes, and FM can easily be removed? The Phase Linear 1000 does exactly that.

Tape hiss and other background noise become a thing of the past with a Phase Linear 1000.

The Phase Linear 1000's exclusive Autocorrelator circuit removes up to ninety per cent of the noise—primarily tape hiss—that plagues your favorite records, tapes, or FM broadcasts. It also removes hum and turntable rumble.

At the same time, the Phase Linear 1000's Dynamic Range Recovery System makes loud passages louder, and soft passages softer, thereby restoring drama and impact to your favorite music.

The Phase Linear 1000 improves the performance of any stereo system. It's easily connected to any receiver or amp/preamp combination, and is simple to operate.

Come in and let us show you how the Phase Linear 1000 can increase your listening pleasure!

CAROLINA UNION BOWLING LANES

(BEHIND THE TV SET IN THE UNION)

Wake wins it again

Wake Forest won the Big Four tournament for the third straight year this weekend by defeating Carolina in overtime, 97-96. And Duke pulled a really big upset by slipping by the N.C. State Wolfpack 84-82. See stories page three.

Second and third

North Carolina was ranked second and third in several national polls. See the rankings, where Carolina is and where the rest of the ACC is on page five.

Coley and success

Woody Coley is a senior member of the UNC varsity basketball team and measures success not in the number of baskets he makes or rebounds he pulls down, but by the amount of work he puts into the sport and contributions he makes to other team members. See story on page six.

Freshmen become a part of things

The six freshmen on UNC's varsity basketball team are expected to make a valuable contribution to the program even as first-year players. And, they have already begun to fit into the scheme of things at Carolina. See story on page seven.

Big Four reflections

Many wild and wonderful things happen at a basketball tournament. Rouse Wilson captured many of these, and some not so wonderful, in photographs at the Big Four Tournament this weekend. See photos on pages eight and nine.

Atlantic Coast Conference previews

Every team in the ACC is capable of beating any other conference team as well as beating most teams outside the conference. Each team is individually previewed on pages 10-14.

Fogler and recruiting

Eddie Fogler is an assistant basketball coach at UNC and is mainly concerned with recruiting, and he has many interesting ideas about recruiting. See story on page 15.
