

ADVERTISED ITEM POLICY

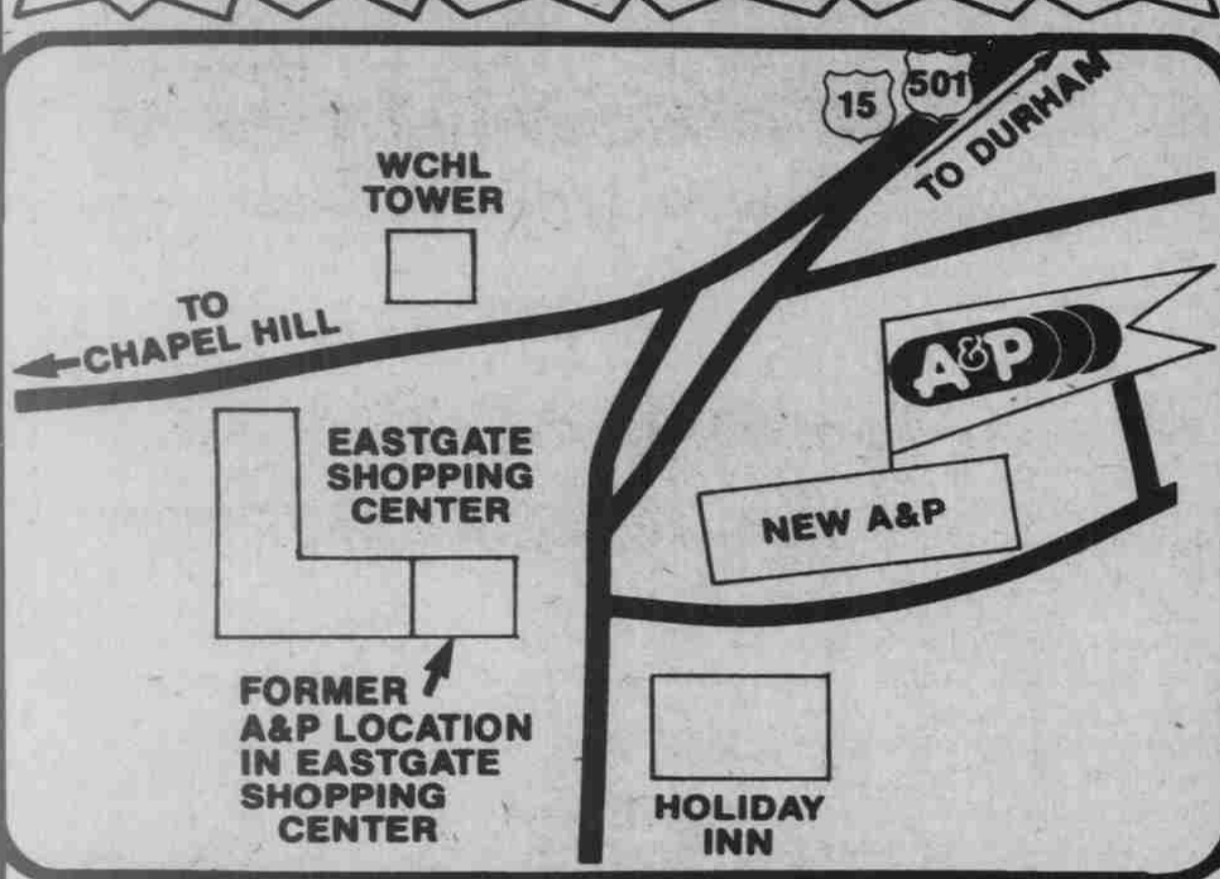

Each of these advertised items is required to be readily available for sale at or below the advertised price in each A&P Store, except as specifically noted in this ad.

PRICES EFFECTIVE THRU. SAT. NOV. 11 AT A&P'S IN CHAPEL HILL AND CARBORO ITEMS OFFERED FOR SALE NOT AVAILABLE TO OTHER RETAIL DEALERS OR WHOLESALE

2ND BIG WEEK Grand Opening

AT CHAPEL HILL'S NEWEST AND FINEST A&P
1722 CHAPEL HILL — DURHAM BLVD. (HWY 15-501 BY-PASS)

OPEN 24 HOURS 7 DAYS A WEEK

SIRLOIN STEAKS $1.88
PORTERHOUSE OR T-BONE STEAKS $1.98 LB.

HOAGIE SANDWICH 89¢
BIG MEATY EACH ONLY

WHOLE B.B.Q. CHICKEN $2.99
PLUS ★ 8 OZ. COLE SLAW ★ 8 OZ. POTATO SALAD ★ 6 ROLLS

RED GRAPEFRUIT 5 FOR $1.00

TANGERINES 20 FOR $1.00

'Threads' premieres at Green Theatre

The Playmakers Repertory Company's production of Threads, a new play by North Carolinian Jonathan Bolt, will premiere at 8 tonight in the Paul-Green Theatre.

PRC Artistic Director Tom Haas describes the play as one that raises questions about leaving and eventually returning home.

Set in a small town in the North Carolina Piedmont, the play is about Clyde Owens, a young actor who returns home after several years in New York and Hollywood. Although the town and its textile mills have remained the same during Clyde's absence, his family has not. His parents, after years of unhappiness, have become reconciled to a loveless marriage and his mother has become very ill.

The title of Threads refers not only to the textiles produced in the mill but also to the ties that draw Clyde back to his family and his hometown.

Allan Carlsen, who will be making his first appearance with PRC, plays Clyde. He has worked for several years in New York and in regional theaters around the country. His Broadway debut was in Brian Friel's The Freedom Of The City. Television viewers will remember him as John Adams II in the Adams Chronicles.

The mother is played by Lenka Peterson, a veteran of 11 Broadway roles including the original Laura in Look Homeward, Angel. She is making her first appearance with PRC, and has appeared in major roles in regional theaters as well as in New York. Peterson has been seen in more than 1,000 television shows including, Hallmark Hall of Fame, Kojak, Search for Tomorrow and Camera Three.

Clyde's father, Abner, will be played by Frank Raiter, who played Dr. Seward in PRC's production of Dracula. This is Raiter's third season with PRC.

Suzanne Gilbert portrays Jessie Sykes, a neighbor of the Owens family. Gilbert's New York appearances include roles in America Hurrah, Toys in the Attic and Ryan's Hope on television. The role of Jessie Sykes will be her first with PRC.

Other roles include David Owens, played by John Daggan; Janine, Teresa Westbrook; Pete, Dan Westbrook and Nub, Brian McNally. Daggan and the Westbrooks were in PRC's Dracula.

Threads will be performed Nov. 8-18 in the Paul Green Theatre. Ticket prices are $5 for weekdays, including Sunday matinee and evening, and $6 for Friday and Saturday nights. Reservations may be made at Graham Memorial box office noon-6 p.m. weekdays. Call 933-1121 for more information.

The mother is played by Lenka Peterson, a veteran of 11 Broadway roles including the original Laura in Look Homeward, Angel. She is making her first appearance with PRC, and has appeared in major roles in regional theaters as well as in New York. Peterson has been seen in more than 1,000 television shows including, Hallmark Hall of Fame, Kojak, Search for Tomorrow and Camera Three.

Campus Calendar

Public service announcements must be turned in at the box outside the DT/Offices in the Carolina Union by 1 p.m. if they are to run the next day. Each item will be run at least twice.

ACTIVITIES TODAY
There will be a Collegiate Civitan meeting at 6:30 p.m. in Room 213 Carolina Union. All members and interested students are urged to attend.
The Concert Advisory Group will have an open meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the social lounge of Morrison Dorm. All students with questions or comments are invited to attend.
College Students in Broadcasting will have a short business meeting at 7:30 p.m. in IA Swain Hall. All members are urged to attend.
Education majors seeking jobs in December and June are encouraged to use University Placement Services. An orientation meeting will be held from 2:30-4 p.m. in 201C Peabody Hall. Inquiries should be directed to 933-6507.
Senior Panic Week continues through Nov. 9. Sponsored by the senior class and the Human Relations Committee of the Carolina Union, the week is designed to make seniors aware of problems entering life after college. Topics include personal adjustments, banking, credit, legal issues, women and careers, graduate schools and campus facilities that aid students looking for jobs. Programs nightly from 7-10 p.m.
Anyone interested in auditioning for play-by-play or color analysis broadcast of UNC women's basketball on WXYC-FM will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the Frank Porter Graham lounge, Carolina Union. All those auditioning must attend the meeting.
Lutheran Campus Ministry meets at 5:15 p.m. for Holy Communion in Holy Trinity Church on East Rosemary Street. Supper will follow at 6 p.m. in the campus center.
The Episcopal Campus Ministry Eucharist will be offered at 10 p.m. in the Chapel of the Cross. The homily will focus on our joy in others. All are welcome.
There will be a mandatory meeting of black and American Indian freshmen at 7 p.m. in Upendo Lounge, adjoining Chase Cafeteria. Important academic matters will be discussed by Dean Renwick and Dean Hand. Please attend.
The Order of the Ginkgo will have two important meetings today. All Biblios and Squirrels are urged to attend an 8 p.m. meeting under the Ginkgo tree. All Four Tops and Pips must be present at an 11 p.m. meeting under the Ginkgo tree. At the latter meeting, Little Squirrels shall bring refreshments, and plans for Ginkgo Tree Day will be discussed.
A mandatory meeting for all the brothers and sisters of AXE will be held at 7:30 p.m. in Room 221 Venable Hall. Initiation will be finalized.
The Science Fiction and Fantasy Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. in Room 308 Alumni Hall. Test your science fiction trivia knowledge.
The First Collegiate Bassmasters will meet at 7:30 p.m. in Room 457 Hinton James. Upcoming trips will be discussed. Anyone interested in fishing is invited.
A general body meeting of the Association of Business Students will be held at 3:30 p.m. in Room T-5 New Carroll Hall.
Delta Phi Epsilon will have an important meeting at 7 p.m. in Room 205 Carolina Union. Attendance is urged.
Kofee Klatch informal German conversation for interested persons. Practice your German at 4 p.m. every Wednesday at 214 W. Cameron Ave. Coffee and cookies will be served. Call 929-3016 for additional information.
The Colloquium on Aging and the Aged is holding a special meeting with representatives from Wilson Library and the Health Sciences Library from noon to 1 p.m. in the Newman-Catholic Student Center Library. This is a unique opportunity for you to learn about the library resources and services available in the field of aging. All interested persons are encouraged to attend. For more information, call 933-2008.
The history of the American Indian will be traced in a special program, "Black Elk Speaks," at 8 p.m. in Memorial Hall. The Folger Theatre Group will perform the narrative. Tickets are $3 and $4 and are on sale at the Carolina Union information desk.
A colloquium in Operations Research and Systems Analysis will feature Professor Kenneth R. Baker of the Graduate School of Business Administration of Duke University speaking on "An Analytic Framework for Evaluating Rolling Schedules" at 4 p.m. in Room 324 Phillips Hall. Coffee hour will be from 3:30-4 p.m. in Room 102 Phillips Annex.
Raphael Iken, director of the math and sciences division of Hebrew University of Jerusalem, will discuss study opportunities in Israel with interested individuals at 7:30 p.m. at Hillel, 210 W. Cameron Ave.
The Cellar Door literary magazine will present a Printing and Publishing Forum at 7:30 p.m. today and Thursday in the Di-Phi Chamber, third floor New West. Wednesday's workshop will feature Daphne Athas and Bob Hall. Thursday's meeting will feature Carol Reuss and Joel Scheer. The forum is free. The public is invited. For more information, call Becky at 942-1573 or go by the Cellar Door office, second floor, Campus U.
The Med Tech Club will sponsor tours of the hospital laboratories today and Thursday. All interested persons should meet at 3:30 p.m. either day in B113, Old Nurses Dorm.

ITEMS OF INTEREST
All history buffs take note! The Undergraduate History Association will tour Stagville Plantation, a fully restored North Carolina plantation, on Thursday from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Return is expected by 5:30 p.m. Transportation will be provided. Only cost will be $1. Please sign up by the end of today outside 556 Hamilton or first floor Hamilton lobby.
The Ebony Spotlight, a public affairs program of the BSM, runs every Monday and Thursday at 7 p.m. on WXYC-FM 89 radio.
Deadline for sign-up for the Sabbath Dinner is Friday at noon. The dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m. Friday at Hillel House. For reservation, call 942-4057.
The Carolina Gay Association reports on news and activities every Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. on WXYC-FM 89 radio.
The 1977-78 Yack/Yack will be distributed in the South Gallery Meeting Room, Carolina Union, from 9 a.m.-6 p.m. today. Bring your receipt and an ID. A few copies of the 1977 Yack still are available for $15. Subscriptions to the 1979 Yack are $9 (seniors add $1 for mailing).
All treasurers of Graduate Professional Student Federation department organizations are requested to meet with Ed Crowe, GSPF treasurer, in the GSPF office today or Friday from 12:30-1:30 p.m. (if you did not meet with Crowe on Monday).
The Carolina Athletic Association will present "The Team" for "Homecoming '78." The dance will be held from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Nov. 17 in the new Tin Can Club. Tickets are on sale at the Carolina Union information desk for only $1.
The Carolina Athletic Association needs your help in planning the "Homecoming '78" parade and dance. All those interested, please call 933-1624 or 933-1013 and leave a message.
Play bridge! Come and try your skill at duplicate bridge at 7:30 p.m. every Wednesday in the Carolina Union. No prior duplicate experience necessary. Game lasts about three hours and costs 50 cents. For further information, call Jeff at 942-1848 after 6 p.m.
The Minority Advisory Program sponsors tutoring sessions for freshmen on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 7:30-8:30 p.m. Monday's sessions are in the Ehringhaus Coffeehouse, Tuesday's sessions are in the Hinton James Coffeehouse and Wednesday's sessions are in the Morrison first floor conference room.
SCAU's Bar Survey is on its way. Come by Suite B, SCAU office, Carolina Union, and sign up to work on a Handy Guide to S.O.B.s.
The Playmakers Repertory Company presents Threads, a new play by N.C. native Jonathan Bolt, nightly at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 2 p.m., Nov. 8-18 in the new Paul Green Theatre. Reservations may be made by calling 933-1121 from noon to 6 p.m., weekdays.
Threads needs student cashiers who want to work a little and see the play for free. Sign up now in the PRC office, second floor of Graham Memorial.
The Carolina Playmakers' Lab Theatre presents Chauffeur, an original play by UNC playwright Michael B. Dixon, and directed by A. Denise Ford, at 8 p.m., from Nov. 7-11 with a matinee at 4 p.m., Nov. 9 in the Graham Memorial. Tickets are available for free at the outside box office in Graham Memorial.
The Morehead Planetarium at UNC begins a new program, "Andromeda and Friends," Nov. 7-20, at 8 p.m., weekdays, 11 a.m., 1 p.m., 3 p.m. and 8 p.m., Saturdays, 11 a.m., 3 p.m. and 8 p.m., football Saturdays, and 2 p.m., 3 p.m. and 8 p.m., Sundays. The program is a view of currently visible sky objects and constellations.
All students are invited to submit proposals for the Carolina Symposium, a biennial forum exploring a particular topic through various media. Interested groups should submit a preliminary draft of their ideas to the Steele Building office of vice chancellor for student affairs by December 15. Any questions may be directed to Sam Sockwell at 968-9305 or Tim Sullivan at 942-7938.

Drama department to present UNC grad student's 'Chauffeur'

Chauffeur, a two-act tragi-comedy written this summer by UNC graduate student Michael Dixon, will be presented at 8 nightly through Saturday and at 4 p.m. Thursday in the drama department lab theatre in the basement of Graham Memorial.

Dixon, who received his MFA from UNC and has taught at NCCU in Durham, was invited back for a third year here as an LDA candidate in playwriting, studying with PRC Artistic Director Tom Haas. Drama department acting instructor Denise Ford, who also did her graduate work at UNC, is directing the production.

Ford explained that the play, the story of an idealistic young man who goes to Washington to be chauffeur for a corrupt U.S. senator, is really about the culture shock of leaving the protection of college, what she calls the "post-partum crisis."

Graduate student Jim Burleson portrays the chauffeur, who leaves his hometown in Arizona to change the world only to find himself lowering his standards to the level of the people he despises.

Other cast members include townsman Gordon Ferguson as the senator, graduate student Jack Couch as the senator's scheming assistant, graduate student Ann Liske as the chauffeur's girlfriend, graduate student Kathy Taylor as a hooker, undergraduate Jennifer Lanier as a teenager and undergraduate Albert Walston as a variety of telephone voices.

Kay Coble, also an undergraduate drama major, designed the space. The entire play takes place in and around the frame of the senator's Continental Mark V and lasts about two hours.

Free tickets are available outside the PRC box office in Graham Memorial.

BOUNDS DANCE STUDIO
942-1088
121 South Estes Dr. Chapel Hill, N.C.

DISCO-HUSTLE
Beg. Nov. 14-Dec. 12
Beg. Nov. 16-Dec. 14
Int. Nov. 15-Dec. 13
Beg. Jan. 9-Feb. 6
Beg. Jan. 11-Feb. 8
Int. Jan. 8-Feb. 5

BALLROOM
Tango, Waltz Cha-Cha, Swing, Fox-trot, Rhumba
Beg. Jan. 10-Feb. 7
Beg. Feb. 14-Mar. 14

A pizza that's priced just right... is a pizza that's rightly priced.
So a right pizza is a pizza that's priced just right.
And a right price is the only price to pay for a pizza that's RIGHT!

From $2.35 Delivered free! 942-8581
Pizza Transit Authority

THE Daily Crossword by Susan Mindell

ACROSS
1 Pioneer homes
5 Large bundle
9 Kind of store; abbr.
13 Ring stone
14 Orphanages
15 Vicinity
16 Fuel
17 A soft touch
19 Leg joint
20 Motel
21 Soldier from down under
22 Elephant feature
24 Big Apple letters
25 Backward, on a ship
27 Wine
32 Deer
33 Broom of twigs
35 Venerate
36 Guideronian notes
38 Weary
40 Dreaded person
41 Italian food
43 Musical sounds
45 Above, to poets
46 Make another attempt
48 Fast
50 Attile
51 Goddess of the chase
52 Capote
56 Woman's title
57 Soaking wet
60 On - (well-to-do)
62 Cow barn
63 At any time
64 Jots
65 Protracted
66 Tableland
67 Eared pitcher
68 Biblical patriarch
DOWN
1 Pawn
2 Well-informed
3 Relax
4 Place for an arm
5 Handsome
6 Last word, at times
7 Meadow
8 Compositions
9 Water barriers
10 Periods of note
11 Persian fallen angel
12 Gate receipts
14 Coiffure adjunct
18 Tropical plant
23 Sphere
24 Roman spirit
25 exteros
26 Sun-related
27 Nitwit
28 Big fuss
29 Belient with, infinitely speaking
30 Went wrong
31 Suspicious
34 Join a meeting
37 Depot; abbr.
39 Refrains
42 Moslem bigwigs
44 Resort
47 " - Name"
49 Make possible
51 Dismal, to poets
52 Come down heavily
53 Kind of review
54 Takes advantage of
55 Ms. Hess
56 Apportion
58 Yes -
59 Fasteners
61 Quarrel

Yesterday's Puzzle Solved:
ABET DADDY PADS
ROTE TICIER ICEL
EROS SCABS GOBY
SENTIMENT APRIL
LUIRE PLENTY
REDEALT ALAN
OBESE UNCAS HRS
ARUT FANCY WAIT
DOS CATER FENCE
GANLACE EQUADOR
BARE PHOTO IDOL
ISIS SANER NERO
NEST SHEDS GHEN
11/8/78

