The Carolina gymnasts travel to Durham tonight to face the only undefeated team in the state, the Duke Blue Devils.

Duke stands at 6-0 and has let it be known through recent newspaper articles that—until somebody beats them—they are the best.

Karen Schram, a Duke senior, is generally considered one of the top gymnasts in the state, but UNC coach Ken Ourso said the Blue Devils have a few new girls this year that are as good. Two freshman compete in the all-around competition.

UNC, 6-1, will use Tiffany Terranova, Tia Walker, Diana Cates and Jennifer Britt in all-around competition. Terranova, returning after an inner-ear problem, beat out Elise Slobodin in intersquad competition to get her position back.

Slobodin will compete in balance beam, vault and floor exercise. Britt was not an all-around competitor when the season began but made the top four due to illness of Terranova.

In inter-squad competition Britt held on to her claim. "I was just hoping if I did my routine I would make it," Britt said.

For the first time the Duke gymnasts will be using Cameron Indoor Stadium because a large crowd is expected. "At our home meets we've had over 2000," Britt said. "It should be a pretty good mixture (of UNC and Duke fans). I think it should be half and half." The Durham native expects her family and friends to be on hand.

In the past Duke has been weak, but this year they have been scoring about the same amount of points as Carolina. "It's a typical rivalry between the schools," Cates said. "We beat them last year, but I think they think they can beat us."

Duke will score about four points higher than usual because they are so ready for this meet, according to Ourso.

"The coach (Ourso) has been trying to get us psyched up all week," Britt said. "He really wants to win this meet."

"They're out to get us," Cates said. "I think that if we stay on the beam we won't have much trouble." In the last two meets, each gymnast has fallen off the balance beam at least once during her routine.

"Their whole season rides on this meet," gymnast Cary Tregallas said. "We'd appreciate some support." The meet begins at 7:30 p.m. at Cameron Indoor Stadium.

Tigers' new 'Pause' doesn't pin Heels in wrestling match

By GEOFFREY MOCK
Staff Writer

The North Carolina wrestling team swept the middleweight classes on the way to a 25-15 victory over the Clemson Tigers Wednesday night before a sell-out crowd of Tar Heel alumni and area wrestling fans at Ashbrook High School in Gastonia.

The match was held in Gastonia to give alumni an initial exposure to college wrestling in an attempt to increase interest in the sport.

Clemson made an effort to get the early momentum by trying to stay close to Carolina's powerful lightweight trio of Bob Monaghan, Dave Cooke and C.D. Mock.

At 118 pounds, the Clemson grappler wrestled defensively throughout the match, preventing Monaghan from taking a big lead. The result was a 6-3 Tar Heel decision and a disappointed Monaghan.

"It was kind of frustrating," Monaghan said. "Clemson just clammed up. They wanted to keep it close. If they had opened up, we would have whipped them."

Clemson then dropped their best lightweight, Billy Marino, to 126 pounds where Marino handed Dave Cooke his first dual meet defeat of the year, 9-2.

UNC coach Bill Lam said Clemson did not want the match to get away from them early. "They didn't want us to get a big win early to get the momentum," he said. "Bobby's kid had no intention of winning. They just tried to clam up, but in some places it was smart."

"They kept it close at 118 and dropped Marino to 126 and prevented us from getting momentum. If we didn't win at 150 pounds, it might have made a difference."

Mock followed Cooke's defeat with a third-period pin of Jody Taylor to give the Tar Heels a lead they never relinquished. The victory gave All-American Mock an 18-1 record for the year.

The Tigers tightened the score with a decision at 142 pounds, but Joe Galli matched that with an important 7-4 decision in the 150-pound class.

Carolina then took the next three classes to put the match away. Freshman Jan Michaels stayed undefeated in dual meets at 158 pounds with a pin of John Mays in 7:11.

Carter Mario then extended the lead to 22-6 with a 11-3 major decision at 167 pounds. Kirk Stephens clinched the match with a 6-4 decision at 177 pounds.

Lam said the pins were important. "Mock and Michaels did an outstanding job," he said. "Stephens did a good job, too. He's coming around. He's just a freshman."

The Tar Heels are now 6-0 overall, 3-0 in Atlantic Coast Conference action.

Carolina travels to College Park, Md., tonight for a 7:30 match against the Maryland Terrapins.

The Tarps have turned their season around after an early loss to Duke. They pulled a stunning 23-20 upset of N.C. State last week.

"Maryland has changed a lot," Lam said. "They must have caught State asleep. It'll be a good match."

Men, women face strong opponents in track meets

From Staff Reports

Carolina's men's and women's track teams return to action at 1 p.m. Saturday when both host Appalachian State, N.C. Central and Richmond, with the women also facing James Madison.

The meets are in the New Tin Can, and events will alternate between men and women.

"(The meet) is going to be a good one all the way around," said UNC assistant track coach Hubert West. He said that the Richmond men are strong in the middle- and long-distance events and that Appalachian had an excellent high jumper and 440 man.

Head coach Joe Hilton added, "Central has some fair hurdlers and sprinters. Appalachian has some runners in the shorter areas."

"There will be some running going on," Hilton said. "We're hoping we can get some qualifying times for the nationals in the events from the 1,000-yard run on up." West said long-jumper Phil Farris had "a pretty fair chance" to qualify.

West said both James Madison and Richmond should prove stern tests for the Carolina women. ASU and Central field only partial squads.

The men stand 3-1 overall, 1-1 in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The women are 2-1, 1-1 in the ACC.

Fencers host three foes

Last weekend was not a pleasant one for the UNC men's fencing team, as they lost two key ACC matches to Clemson and Maryland.

But going into this Saturday's home meet against Clemson, Virginia and William & Mary, coach Ron Miller said the 0-2 performance last weekend was not without merit.

"We started six freshmen, and they kept their poise," Miller said. "We continue to improve."

The main trouble all season for the Tar Heel fencers has been consistency. The Tar Heels really have not put together three solid rounds of fencing since defeating Ohio State two weeks ago.

That problem has concerned Miller, and he said the team has spent much of this week's practice sessions going back to basics hoping to get revenge this weekend against the Tigers.

The losses last weekend were key blows to the regular season chances for the Heels now 2-2 in the league, but Miller said he thought the matches will help the team come tournament time.

"We gained some confidence against Maryland in sabre and epee," Miller said, "and I think that will help us. Our guys know we can fence with them now."

Carolina lost 14-13 to the Terps, and that tough loss probably had a good deal to do with the flat performance the Heels turned in when they lost 17-10 to the Tigers.

As for the other opponents, the Indians of William & Mary are described by Miller as consistent with good depth. Virginia is a young and inexperienced squad that should not be a threat to the Heels.

The UNC women, undefeated in six matches, will also participate this weekend after a two-week layoff. The Lady Tar Heels will play host to Clemson, Virginia and California State (Pa.).

The matches will start Saturday morning in either Woollen or the Women's gym.

Men, women swimmers to host Cavs

From Staff Reports

Both UNC swim teams will be in action this weekend as the Tar Heel tankers face the Virginia Cavaliers.

Carolina faces a tough challenge in just keeping its mind on the Cavaliers. After the meet Sunday and another on Monday at East Carolina, the UNC teams will face N.C. State next week. "They're the toughest team we'll face in the dual season," said UNC coach Frank Comfort.

But the Tar Heels, both men and women, had better not take

Virginia too lightly. Comfort says the men's team is the Cavs' strongest since 1976 when they defeated the Tar Heels. "There's a lot of things we'll have to do to win this week," he said.

The men, currently 4-4, have impressed Comfort. He cited the tough schedule and the Tar Heels performance against the weaker teams as indications of how well the team has done.

The women, on the other hand, are 5-1 despite having to fight injuries and illness all year.

The meet will get underway Sunday at 1 p.m. at Bowman Gray Pool.

"WHY DO THE HEATHEN RAGE?"

Psalms 2:1 and Acts 4:25

"THE FOOL HATH SAID IN HIS HEART, THERE IS NO GOD. THEY ARE CORRUPT, THEY HAVE DONE ABOMINABLE WORKS, THERE IS NONE THAT DOETH GOOD. THE LORD LOOKED DOWN FROM HEAVEN UPON THE CHILDREN OF MEN, TO SEE IF THERE WERE ANY THAT DID UNDERSTAND, AND SEEK GOD. THEY ARE ALL GONE ASIDE, THEY ARE ALTOGETHER BECOME FILTHY. THERE IS NONE THAT DOETH GOOD, NO, NOT ONE!"

This quote is the first three verses of the 14th Psalm, also of the 53rd of The Bible, God Almighty's Book of Messages to man.

The New Testament confirms this appraisal of the natural man in Romans 3:10-12, as, indeed, do all the Scriptures from Alpha to Omega, from the beginning to the end. We need to be made "New Creatures" in Christ Jesus, and God's "So Great Salvation" provides the means by which this can happen to you: "Ask, and ye shall receive; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you." Beware, however, of trifling and fooling around profanely and carelessly regarding your personal and individual relations with The Almighty in your church vows and membership!

God says He is the "fool" that says in His heart "there is no God!" From about the year 1917 the Russian government has been saying "there is no God!" Consider how corrupt they have been and are, and how this corruption has spread over so much of the world.

Consider how this devil doctrine has affected our own great nation — until recent years probably the most God-fearing and God blessed nation on the earth. By their own testimony Russian officials are fools in the sight of God, yet we gave them recognition a little over forty years ago, and now this corruption has so spread in our own land that we don't permit the recognition of God Almighty in our public schools, but give license to fools to teach our young the Russian devil doctrine that there is no God.

Not only does God say that the fools who say there is no God are corrupt, but also "they have done abominable works!" How guilty they are of the abominable works of oppression, persecution, mass murder, and no telling what else! They planned "abominable works" for many other nations and have been very successful in bringing them about. They planned "abominable works" for our nation, to bury us, to pervert the clergy, upset race relations, infiltrating nearly every phase of our life! How successful they have been, and how we have fallen for it! May God have mercy upon us!

"Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My Words will not," said Christ, and the first recorded words of His after His baptism was stamp of approval of all The Old Testament — See Matthew and Luke 4:4.

"MEN OUGHT ALWAYS TO PRAY, AND NOT FAINT!" — Luke 18:1.
