

Heel swimmers earn A-A spots

By LINDA ROBERTSON
Staff Writer

A weary but satisfied UNC women's swim team returned to Chapel Hill Sunday night, surviving four grueling days of competition and merciless casinos at the AIAW Nationals in Las Vegas.

UNC finished seventh, ending the season on a "very positive note," said coach Frank Comfort. Stanford won the national title. N.C. State, Carolina's nemesis all year, finished sixth.

Bonny Brown, Lauren Dupree, Gayle Hegel, Nancy Hudock, Cindy Shirey, Liz Mesmer, Nance Thompson, Barb Harris and Cynthia Chilcott became All-Americans by placing 16th or better.

Both the 400 medley relay (Chilcott, Hegel, Harris, Brown) and 400 free relay (Hegel, Chilcott, Brown, Harris) placed sixth. The 200 medley relay (Chilcott, Shirey, Harris, Brown) was eighth and the 800 free relay (Dupree, Chilcott, Mesmer, Hudock) took 15th place.

For three seniors—Bonny Brown, Janis Hape and Lauren Dupree—the AIAW meet marked the end of their UNC careers. "Those three will be sorely missed," Comfort said. "Bonny is one of the greatest collegiate swimmers ever. Lauren is a four-time All-America and a consistent winner, and Janis was an All-American and a fantastic leader."

Hape was 22nd in the 200 breast. Dupree swam on the 800 free relay and placed 19th in both the 1,000 and 1,650 races. Brown left college swimming in style, taking fifth in the 100 IM, seventh in the 100 free, and ninth in the 50 free.

"That's it for me, 15 years of time well spent. It's not like a burden has been lifted, but it's time to go on to different things," Brown said. "A lot of circumstances could have hindered the team this year, but we came through and had an outstanding season despite the injuries and illnesses."

Harris placed fourth in the 50 fly, 13th in the 100 free and 14th in the 100 fly. Chilcott took 12th in the 400 IM and 16th in the 100 back. Mesmer was 18th in the 50 free. Hudock was 22nd in the 500 free.

Cindy Shirey, in addition to winning $16 at the slot machines, took 23rd in the 400 IM. Nance Thompson, unlike most of the UNC squad, had a winning streak at the hotel's casino, and also raced to 15th place in the 400 IM.

But it wasn't all work and no play in Las Vegas. "We all saw Dean Martin at the MGM Grand and cruised the strip," said Gayle Hegel, who competed in five individual events, taking third in the 400 IM, fourth in the 200 IM, eighth in the 200 breast, ninth in the 100 IM and 11th in 100 breast.

"There were slot machines even in the bathrooms. I lost 60 cents and quit," Brown said. "Tony Orlando gave an unbelievable show, and Caesar's Palace was just awe-inspiring."

Scott Bradley looks pitch over...sophomore hit 3 homers Sunday

Heels back home; face Ohio today

By DAVID POOLE
Assistant Sports Editor

With the North Carolina baseball team ahead 13-7 going into the last of the eighth inning, the Tar Heels seemed to have their fourth straight Atlantic Coast Conference win in the bag Sunday in College Park, Md.

But UNC coach Mike Roberts knew better.

"In Maryland's ball park, nothing is ever in the bag," Roberts said Monday. "That park is small and anything can happen there."

It did. Eighth inning. Boom! Three-run homer by Steve Johanson. 13-10.

Ninth inning. Single, error, single, wild pitch, sacrifice fly, bloop single and bloop single. Four runs. Maryland wins 14-13.

- Baseball vs. Ohio at 3 p.m. in Boshamer Stadium
- Men's tennis at South Carolina at 2 p.m.

"We had a few plays there in the ninth we didn't make," Roberts said, "and that cost us the ball game."

outside a whole lot so far." Carolina right-hander Dave Kirk will start for the Tar Heels today.

The loss may turn out to be costly, but for now the Tar Heels are still atop the ACC standings. Carolina is 3-1 and that puts them a half game ahead of Clemson and Maryland who are 1-0.

Roberts knows a great deal about the foe for Wednesday, however, as the Wake Forest Deacons visit Chapel Hill for a crucial league game. The Deacons feature all-ACC performer Brick Smith and are among the legitimate contenders for the league crown. Mark Ochal will pitch for the Heels.

The Tar Heels bats were booming this weekend, with Carolina getting 17 hits Sunday and 18 in the 11-6 win Saturday over Virginia. Ten of those hits were home runs, and sophomore Scott Bradley hit three homers against the Terps, setting a Carolina record for a single game.

After a day-night doubleheader with High Point and Pfeiffer on Thursday, the Heels host Howard on Friday. Then, it's back to the ACC play with home games against Georgia Tech on Saturday and Virginia on Sunday.

The week coming is a big one for Carolina, with 11 games in nine days, beginning with a 3 p.m. contest today with Ohio in Boshamer Stadium.

"This is a big week for us," Roberts said. "So far, we've been a little inconsistent on defense and with our pitching. If we can bring that around and keep hitting the ball, we'll be okay. I think we'll get better and better as the season progresses."

Louisville takes title, 59-54

INDIANAPOLIS—All-America guard Darrell Griffith scored 23 points Monday night to lead Louisville to its first NCAA basketball championship, a 59-54 victory over UCLA.

Louisville rallied from a four-point deficit with less than three minutes to play on baskets from Jerry Eaves and Griffith to go ahead to stay at 56-54 with 2:17 left.

We struggled all day, but still won it," said Louisville coach Denny Crum. "We hung in there when the going got tough."

A low-scoring first half ended with the Cinderella Bruins ahead 28-26, and they took advantage of Louisville turnovers and strong play from Rod Foster and Kiki Vandeweghe to build a five-point lead with 6½ minutes left.

But then Griffith scored a three-point play on an alley oop cutting the lead to two, which set up Louisville's final surge.

HEY, FELLAS, WANNA GO TO THE BANK WITH ME? I'M GONNA OPEN AN ACCOUNT.

AT THE BANK...

WHY WOULD THEY PUT A BANK IN THE HOSPITAL?!

I'D LIKE TO MAKE A DEPOSIT, PLEASE.

WHAT'S THE CUP FOR? HEY, WHERE YA GOIN'?!?

LATER

WHAT TOOK YOU SO LONG?

MY PERSONAL BANKER HAD TO HELP ME HANDLE THE TRANSACTION.

SOMETIMES, WHEN YOU'RE DEPRESSED, ALL YOU WANT TO DO IS NOTHING

ALL YOU WANT TO DO IS LEAN YOUR HEAD ON YOUR ARM, AND STARE INTO SPACE

SOMETIMES THIS CAN GO ON FOR HOURS

IF YOU'RE UNUSUALLY DEPRESSED, YOU MAY HAVE TO CHANGE ARMS

DON'T YOU THINK MAYBE YOU'VE HAD ENOUGH FOR TODAY, ZONKER?

NOT YET, BERNIE. I'M AFTER GOLD THIS YEAR. I HATE TO PUSH MYSELF TO THE LIMIT.

YEAH, BUT TWO HOURS A DAY?

TWO HOURS IS NOTHING, MAN. WHY, I KNOW A GUY WHO PUT IN SIX HOURS A DAY TRAINING FOR THE BAIN DE SOLEIL GRAND PRIX!

AMAZING...

SO DID HE WIN?

NAH, HE WAS TRIPPED UP BY SKIN CANCER.
