Trustees to ask for apartment complex funds

By Susan Maoney

The UNC Board of Trustees Saturday approved a request to seek up to $4 million in federal money to help fund a proposed student apartment complex off East Franklin Street.

The $12 million, 768-bed complex would be located on a 14-acre site near University Mall. In early planning, Frank Kenan, a local developer, agreed to build the complex.

But Kenan pulled out of the project several weeks ago because of high interest rates affecting builders.

Also during the meeting, Hargrove "Skipper" Bowles of Greensboro was elected chairman of the trustee board. Bowles, 60, was elected unanimously to succeed Ralph N. Strayhorn of Winston-Salem.

Newman A. "Nat" Townsend of Raleigh was elected vice chairman to succeed Bowles. Margaret T. Harper of Southport was reelected secretary, and Sarah Virginia Dunlap was named assistant secretary.

Bowles is chairman of the board of Bowles, Hollowell, Connor, Inc., a Greensboro financial consulting firm.

160 apply for PSO jobs

A recruitment drive by the town of Chapel Hill for its Public Safety Officer program produced 160 applicants for six open jobs. The effort ended July 3.

Public safety officers are trained as firefighters, policemen and emergency medical technicians. That combining of duties is designed to reduce the town's public safety costs. The program has been in operation for five years.

Qualifications for the job include "state standards for law enforcement officers and emergency Medical technicians, and local standards to become a trained firefighter," said Ben Callahan, administrative assistant for the Chapel Hill Police Department.

"Candidates go through a background check. They may not have been convicted of certain criminal offenses, and must pass a written test given by the state and a physical," Callahan said. "The applicant must also be at least 20 years of age, and successfully pass a psychiatric test, which we pay for."

"September through December they (prospective officers) will be in the classroom, and December through March they will go through field training, where they're what we call 'an officer on the line.'"

WHY US?

When there are other fine stores in this area WHY US? There are many reasons. For nearly 15 years Burgner's has been serving the needs of both beginning and professional musicians alike. We stock most major brands in used as well as new instruments, and we service what we sell. Virtually all our new and used instruments carry a one year, three year or lifetime warranty. We also take trade-ins and offer a "no fault" five day exchange plan on just about everything we sell and a guaranteed trade-in within one year on used or beginner instruments. All this plus daily specials, lessons, and plenty of free advice have made us Chapel Hill's leading music store for well over a decade. We're located just across from the bus station on West Franklin Street, and are open from 10-6 Monday through Saturday. Come in for a visit, we'll be glad to see you.
