Dean of UNC School of Social Work resigns

By TIM PRESTON Staff Weiter

Dr. Morton 1. Teicher has resigned as dean of the UNC School of Social Work, effective Jan. 1.

Teicher, who has been dean of the school since 1972, will resume teaching at UNC after a leave of absence for the spring and fall semesters of 1981. During his leave of absence, he will serve as director of the Center on Aging at the University of Miami.

Teicher said his leave of absence "is strictly a function of interest in the field of aging."

Upon returning, Teicher hopes to "assist our University in doing more than it is currently doing in the field of aging."

Though the school was forced to cancel eight of its programs last spring due to a loss of federal funding, Teicher said the school was still in fine shape.

"There was the loss of some money, but, we still have a first-rate school," he

He added that although some activities had to be curtailed due to the loss of federal funds, the primary focus of the School of Social Work-its master's degree-was very much intact.

Chancellor Christopher C. Fordham III has appointed a search committee to select candidates for the dean's post. Law Professor Robert Byrd, is the committee's chairman.

Teicher, now in his 25th year as a dean, has served longer than any other current dean of social work in the United States. He served in that position at Yeshiva University in New York from 1956-1972 before accepting the position at UNC.

During Teicher's tenure at UNC, the School of Social Work moved into

Morton I. Teicher

permanent quarters on Franklin Street. The school recently was accredited for the maximum allowable period of seven

"We have increased the number of minority faculty members and one of the first black Kenan professors is a member of the School of Social Work," Teicher

Somebody at East Carolina University apparently does not have too much optimism regarding ECU Professor John East's chances of being elected to the U.S. Senate; whoever it is appears confident he will still be in the classroom next spring.

The university has just released the schedule for political science undergraduate classes in the spring of 1981. It shows that East will be teaching a class in American government and another class titled Western Political Thought II.

A copy of the ECU spring schedule was being circulated in Raleigh political circles last week. "I'm sure Dr. East will continue to do a very effective job in the classroom," said an aide to Democratic Sen. Robert Morgan who faces East in the Nov. 4 election.

Breakfast bucks

A fund-raising buffet breakfast has been scheduled for Nov. 4 to help pay for Insurance Commissioner John Ingram's campaign. It will be held at the Mission Valley Inn in Raleigh.

East still slated to teach at ECU

The breakfast is scheduled to last from 10 p.m.-12:30 a.m. Tickets are $25 per couple and music will be provided by Dern and Dana.

Ingram will be appearing in McDowell and Rowan counties later this week in support of his "unity" campaign which urges voters to vote a straight Democratic ticket.

More money

Gov. Jim Hunt filed campaign spending reports this week showing that he has spent more than $2.1 million dollars in his effort to become the first North Carolina governor elected to a second successive four-year term.

The Hunt campaign reported contributions of $808,803, of which nearly $71,000 was in loans, since the May primary. It reported expenditures since the primary of $990,292, but said $141,000 of that was invested and should be subtracted to show $849,292 in actual expenses.

In another report, Lt. Gov. Jimmy Green, also seeking re-election against a Republican opponent, reported spending $577,618 thus far this year.

Monday was the deadline for the financial reports, but Republicans I. Beverly Lake Jr., who is opposing Hunt, and William Cobey, the GOP candidate for lieutenant governor, did not file their accounts because of a computer

Candidates give views on education, taxes

By RACHEL PERRY Staff Writer

In a question-and-answer forum Tuesday, North Carolina senatorial candidates stated their views on education, while candidates for seats on the Orange County Board of Commissioners discussed the county

The forum, which was sponsored by the League of Women Voters of North Carolina, featured Democratic Sen. Charles Vickery and Republican challenger Charles Adams. Democratic incumbent Russell Walker and Alice Ward, the other GOP candidate, were unable to attend.

County Commissioner Chairman Richard Whitted and incumbent Don Willhoit, both Democrats, were also present, along with Republican challenger Josephine Barbour. Two seats are open in each race. State House candidates Joe Hackney and Patricia Hunt, both Democrats, were unable to attend. James Blair, the GOP "ghost candidate," has not yet publicly surfaced. The three candidates are vying for two seats in this race also. Candidates were not allowed to present open statments but could only respond to citizens' questions. When asked about his views on the state school system, Adams said, "The North Carolina educational system has improved greatly under Gov. Jim Hunt but still has a long way to go. For one thing, we need more competent teachers on the elementary school level." Vickery said he would like to see legislation that would reduce the number of high school dropouts, and that would better prepare students to enter the job market directly after high school. "We need to offer more opportunities in adult education classes."

County Commissioner Chairman Richard Whitted outlines the board's present priorities: strengthening county financial support of the educational system, expanding Orange County's human services and extending the present land use program. "We especially have to work on space needs in Chapel Hill,"

Barbour defined her campaign goals also. "I am addressing problems with high taxes. People in rural northern Orange County are especially concerned with this," she said. In response to both Willhoit's and Whitted's assurances that this county has one of the lowest tax rates, Barbour said, "Our tax rate may be low, but so are our salaries. Orange County really has to look at its spending and justify its expenditures."

Job recruiters here

The following employers and graduate school representatives will be on campus to discuss job opportunities and academic programs on the dates indicated.

Students can sign up for appointments with these representatives eight days ahead of the visit in the University Placement Services, 211 Hanes Hall. A resume is necessary at the time a student signs for an interview. It is to be in the folder accompying the sign-up sheet. ORGANIZATION DATE Nov. 3 Wake Forest University Law

Nov. 4

> School Wallace Business Forms Inc. Allied Chemical Corp. Burroughs Corp. Equitable Life

> > Assurance Society

Ingersoll-Rand Co.

Merck Sharp & Dohme

Armstrong World Industries Inc. Arthur Andersen & Co.

N.C. Federal Savings & Loan First National Bank in Dallas

Tennessee Eastman

3 Nightly Specials

w/salad bar-$2.49

Monday-Lazagna

Tuesday-

Forum on College Curriculum Report tonight

tonight and Thursday to voice their opinions at forums on the College Curriculum Report before it returns to the Committee on Undergraduate Curricular Reform.

In tonight's forum, sponsored by the Campus Y Committee on Undergraduate Education, several faculty members and students will give their opinions on the report. It will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Person Hall.

At Thursday's forum, representatives from five student groups will discuss the report and members of the curriculum revision committee will be present to

Absentee votes

About 765 Orange County residents have applied for absentee ballots for the election to be held Nov. 4, Superintendent of Elections Bobbie Strickland said Tuesday. She said that number is the average number of applications received in a presidential election year.

Students will have their last chances hear student opinions and answer any Saunders, BSM Chairperson Mark questions on their part, said Samuel Williamson, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. The forum begins at 7:30 p.m. in Gerrard Hall and is sponsored by the College of Arts and Sciences.

Thursday night's forum will open with presentations from the five student representatives and then the floor will be opened for other discussion and questions.

"Any student that comes can give his opinion," Williamson said.

The representatives that have been invited to give presentations at the forum are Student Body President Bob

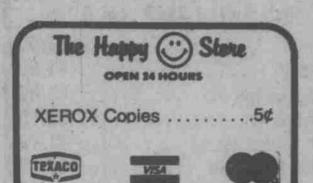

Canady, Residence Hall Association President Peggy Leight, Senior Class President Lisa Goodwin and the

Saunders said he thought the forum would focus on the specific complaints with the report rather than a discussion of the philosophy.

president of Phi Beta Kappa.

—ELIZABETH DANIEL

Keg & Ice delivery reservation 987-9791 or 942-1494

RALEIGH WOMEN'S HEALTH ORGANIZATION

ABORTIONS UP TO 12 WEEKS-$176.00 FROM 13-14 WEEKS-$300.00 15-16 WEEKS-$350.00

> (All Inclusive) -Pregnancy Tests-Birth Control--Problem Pregnancy Counseling-For Further Information Call 832-0535 or 1-800-221-2568 917 West Morgan St. Raleigh, N.C. 27605

An Admissions Representative from the University of Georgia Graduate School of Business Administration

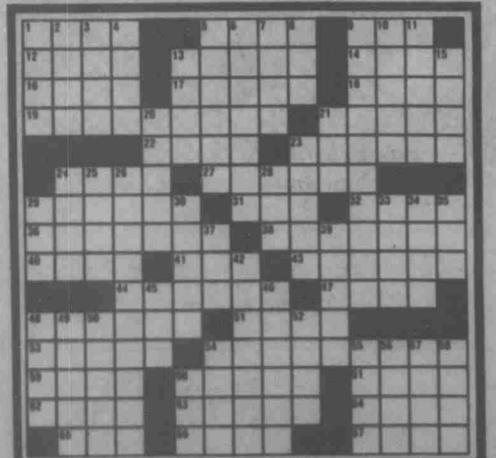

November 5, 1980

to meet with students interested in the MBA Program

Contact the Career Planning and Placement Center for more details and to sign up for an information session

THE Daily Crossword by Melvin Kenworthy 22 Grandstand 48

	WHENCE BY DON'T	ANOTE:		- MP M I	WERESTERN SERVICE		MITTER SECTION AND ADDRESS OF THE PARTY OF T
5	Rigging	24	Field: pref.	53	Blues	23	- boom
	support		Sucking	54	"Onward -	24	Thick rug
9	Made: abbr.	Marin.	fish		Soldlers"		of India
	Roman poet	29	Traditional	59	Pealed	25	Coll. subj.
	Valletta's	31	Dapper	60			Hymn title
	land		Allowance	61			Address to
14	Of the ear		for waste		(Adenauer)		an unknown
16	Lois or	38	Food	62	"Kies Me -"	29	Rep.
	Abbe .		handlers	63	Fred or	30	Empty
17	Dvorak	38	Of eye-		Woody		Chest sound
18	Military		lashes	64	Tissue	34	Indian school	40	Communicate	85	River in	35	Ship's
	letters	41	Relative of		Belgium		chain
19	"The		"Roger"	66	Gang or	37	English
	Cross"	43	Oriental		young		coin: abbr.
	(hymn)		laborer	67	Way out	39	is defeated
21	Villain's	44	Mount of -			42	Door part
	expression	47	Snicker —		DOWN		French
				-1	Alone		article
	Yesterday's	Divers	ria Calvad	2	Elliptic	48	Assembly
-			The second second	3	Deer		line worker
	ARERR	TS	PANEL	4	Baltic	48	Foreboding
110	IDIAITE O	H O	ALIVE		feeder		Peer
118	ARASITT	8 3	REMEE	5	Stable	50	Relative,
- 115	IVIEL GA	D.	PAULEBIS		trough		famillarly
6 1		# I &	CHEST PROPERTY		Changed	52	"Lord is -	i
-15	งเลเกรเกรา	M G	TOBEAR	7	Danish		Today"
111	telenn"	11110	OUTER		glottal	- 2	(hymn)
- 113	IEIAS IDIAIL	বে	SPEARS		sound		Young horse
	ELLOUE	AS	TER		Sunburn	55	London
- 11	EXPO	RT	ERGAS	- 8	"How Firm		museum
17		MA	IL MICHIGAL		A -" (hymn)		Holly
- 10		AIR	AMIDIUNIT		Voyaging	57	Gudrun's
12					I.Q. man	4 5 5	husband
10	usultu S	KY	MIN SIGILLING	13	Wine men	58	Tidy

1960 by Chicago Tribune N.Y. News Synd. Inc. All Rights Reserved

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

MBA PROGRAM

will be on campus

NEED MONEY WE ARE BUYING GOLD AND SILVER! NAVAJO TRADING POST

510 W. FRANKLIN STREET 929-0263 WE ARE BUYING DIAMONDS

We are now buying CLASS RINGS, DENTAL GOLD, WED-DING BANDS, GOLD COINS, GOLD JEWELRY, SILVER JEWELRY, anything MARKED 10K, 14K, 18K GOLD or 999. We test unmarked gold.

WE PAY TOP DOLLAR FOR STERLING SILVER OR SILVER COINS For well-preserved, intact gold jewelry, we'll pay

a premium price

24 Court St. Roxboro 599-8881

510 Franklin St.

Pizza Buffet-$2.49 Wednesday-Spaghetti all-u/can-eat w/salad bar Present this ad Great Potato $2.10 for 2 for 1 Pizza Special 208 W. Franklin St.

only good Thursday-Sunday

THE TRADITIONAL CAMEL'S HAIR JACKET you'll prize for the provinces, your Porsche, pub, playing the ponies. This pure camel's hair is woven in Scotland and peerlessly tailored on our two-button model with framed patch pockets, center vent, leather buttons; in natural camel shade, also in navy and gray.

COOL WEATHER CATCH YOU BY SURPRISE?

Come see us for sweat shirts

sweat pants

jackets

•sweaters

parkas

... we've got everything you need to keep you warm! THERE'S MORE IN YOUR