

'Hamlet'

William Shakespeare, yon brilliant bard from Stratford Upon Avon, who hath written many witty and tragical dramatic plays of merit, hath also long been a source for that which appeareth on the flickering screen of a popcorn palace. The Carolina Union presenteth a festival of three of the finest Shakespearean films. Hamlet, starring and directed by Laurence Olivier, is at 8 p.m. today. Julius Caesar, which features Marlon Brando as Marc Antony, is at 8 p.m. Nov. 5. MacBeth, directed by and starring Orson Welles, is at 8 p.m. Nov. 19. All films are shown in Carroll Hall. Admission by UNC student ID or Union privilege card.

Campus Calendar

Public service announcements must be turned in at the box outside the OTH offices in the Carolina Union by 1 p.m. if they are to run the next day. Each item will be run at least twice.

TODAY'S ACTIVITIES

The UNC Advertising Club will have a resume writing and interviewing techniques workshop at 7 p.m. in Howell 203. Those interested in advertising careers are urged to attend.

The Campus Y Committee on Undergraduate Education will sponsor a forum on the College Curriculum Report. Meet in the East Wing at Person Hall at 7:30 p.m.

The UNC Basketball Club will meet night at the courts from 8-10. Everyone is welcome.

UNC Sailing Club meeting at 7 p.m. in 431 Greenlaw.

Elizabeth Coker, UNC '86 will show slides of her mission experience in Zaire following the weekly eucharist of the Anglican Student Fellowship at 10 p.m. in the Chapel of the Cross.

Dr. Alfred Field, director of admissions for UNC's graduate economics department, will talk about Graduate School at 4:00 p.m. in Gardner 104. Everyone is invited.

The Global Issues Committee of the Campus Y will meet this at 3 p.m. in room 206 of the Y Building.

The Student Government Budget Review Committee will meet in Suite C of the Union at 5:30 p.m.

The Economics Club is having a meeting for members and anyone else interested. Meet at 4 p.m. in Gardner 104.

Minorities in Mass Media will have a short meeting before the Al Jarreau concert. Please attend! Meet at 7 p.m. in the Hixon James Rec. Room.

AIESEC Board of Directors meeting—Members please attend at 4:00 p.m.

Intramurals: Last week to complete faculty-staff tennis play. Contact Rob Frye at 933-1153. Also, entries due for Invertebrate water polo and IM.

Let the Association of Business Students treat you! We invite all business school faculty and students to our Halloween party from 3:30-5 p.m. in rooms 202 and 204 of the Union. Wine and refreshments will be provided.

AIESEC mandatory meeting for members in large. Tom Brown from National Committee will be here. There will be a potluck supper afterward. Meet at 6 p.m.

The UNC Gymnastic Club will have a mandatory meeting at 7 p.m. in the gymnasium area in Woolen Gym. Come dressed to practice.

Alpha Chi Omega brothers meet in 221 Venable at 5:30 p.m.

There will be a Baptist Student Union meeting for the Council at 6 p.m. at the Battle House.

There will be student-led Bible study at the Battle House at 9 p.m. on the Book of Revelation.

University Placement Services will sponsor a group orientation meeting for public health undergraduate at 3:30 p.m. in the first floor auditorium at the School of Public Health.

IM—There will be a mandatory clinic for soccer referees at 3 p.m. and volleyball at 5:00 in 304 Woolen.

Senior Class Committee will meet at 4:15 in room 206 of the Union.

Dr. Jerry Herbert from the Carolina Study Center will speak on Politics: "A Biblical Perspective for Election '80." This is sponsored by the Mid-Campus Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship. All are welcome at 8:00 in Morehead Collier.

The UNC Ski Club will hold a meeting at 7:30 p.m. in 101 Greenlaw. The January trip to Vermont will be discussed.

College Bowl matches tonight are: 7:00 Synopses vs. Sextis Police—7:30 Dead Boys IV vs. Scum of the Earth—8:15 TEP's Tops vs. Flying Benomills—8:45 MBG's vs. Undertakers—9:30 N.C. Fellows vs. the D.U. Members. See it at 7 p.m. in the Union.

All-campus weekly prayer meeting—Have you joined us yet for prayer for your campus? Meet in the Union at noon.

Gay Awareness Week continues with two workshops: "Religion and the Gay Spirit" and "Civil Rights and Where We Go." in room 202 of the Union at 3:30 and in room 213 and 215 of the Union at 7:30 p.m., respectively.

A New Wave rock 'n' roll band called "The DQ's" will play at The Station in Carrboro tonight.

COMING EVENTS

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, with the cooperation of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, the Sweet Carolines and members of Inter-Varsity Fellowship group, will sponsor a door-to-door trick-or-treat for Unicef drive in all residence halls Thursday.

The African/Afro-American studies Curriculum invites you to attend a poetry reading by students and faculty Thursday at 7 p.m. in room 217 of the Union. Admission is free.

"Do Something on Election Day? Yes...Spill on the Imperialists Con Game!" This will be the topic of a "speech-out" Thursday at noon in the Pit. Presentation by RCP, followed by open mike for audience debate.

Noted poet Philip Levine will give a poetry reading, followed by a reception in 111 Murphy Hall at 8 p.m.

The Iota Kappa Club will hold a meeting Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the South Gallery of the Union. Trips to New

(Harris, Atlanta and Washington, D.C., will be discussed. New members welcome!)

Cellar Door presents a Halloween reading of gruesome tales and verse by strange and scary monsters Thursday from 3:30-5:00 in the Greenlaw Lounge. Costumes will be appreciated and a Dionysian rite will follow.

A representative of the London School of Economics will be available to meet with students interested in studying overseas at the British University. The meeting is very informal and is designed solely to provide general information. Come and meet Dr. Anne Bohn of the London School of Economics between 11 a.m. and noon, Friday in the International Center of the Carolina Union.

NCSEHC MIGRANT FARMWORKER Project presents a slide show on how students are addressing a major social and political problem in the U.S. today. Whatever your field of study, come and learn how you can be involved. Meet in 107 Berryhill Hall at 1 p.m. Thursday.

BLACK INK is having a Halloween Party! Admission will be 30 cents. Win two free tickets for the B&B coronation in the costume contest. Costumes not mandatory for admission to the party, however. See you Friday at midnight in the Upendo lounge.

Friday night, Hillel is having the dedication of the Sam Perlman Memorial Library following a shabbat dinner at 6 p.m. and services at 8:30 p.m. Meet at the Hillel House. Also, as a prelude to Jewish book month, Dr. John Bernstein will be speaking on Saul Bellow's book Hozog. All are invited.

TALF—Triangle Area Lesbian Feminists will hold a potluck dinner Saturday at 7 p.m. at the Friends Meeting House—404 Alexander St., Durham.

Hillel will be having a shabbat dinner on Friday at 6 p.m. Shabbat dinners are $2.00 for affiliates and $2.50 for non-affiliates. Please make your reservation by 5:00 p.m.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

The Campus Y Community Link Report forms are due on Monday for all friendly visitors. Please drop them by the Y or mail them to room 102 of the Campus Y Building.

The 1980 Campus Y Footballs Raffle will be held Sunday, Nov. 9-9. Pre-race check in at 1:00 p.m.—2 mile Run Race at 2:30 p.m., 10 km. at 3:00 p.m. Cost is $5.00 before race day and $6.00 on race day. T-shirts to all runners. Prizes to individual and team winners. Register at 102 Campus Y. Proceeds benefit the Campus Y program.

Intramurals: The "Big Apple Olympics" has been canceled due to lack of interest.

Intramurals—Rec. Program: Applications available for student representative on the IM-Rec Advisory Board—Contact Charlie Brown, Suite C of the Union, or Bert Woodard in the IM office.

ABSENTEE BALLOTS NOTARIZED: FREE—Democratic Headquarters, 102 W. Franklin St., Saturday starting at 9 a.m., Sunday and Monday from 7 p.m.-9 p.m. or see your bank or Student Legal Services, Suite B, Student Union during business hours.

OPEN HEARING ON THE COLLEGE CURRICULUM REPORT

All students and faculty are invited to attend an open hearing on the College Curriculum Report on Thursday, October 30, at 7:30 p.m. in Gerrard Hall. The following student groups have been invited to make comments:

- Student Government
- Black Student Movement
- Residence Hall Association
- President of the Senior Class
- YM/YWCA's Committee on Undergraduate Education
- Phi Beta Kappa

Their comments will be followed by a general discussion of the Report

Public Managers Carnegie Mellon University

The Program leads to an M.S. in Public Management and Policy Analysis. The professional, project-oriented curriculum provides a solid foundation in management skills and produces dynamic managers for the public and private sectors.

100% Job Placement in government, private consulting firms, and corporations since SUPA graduated its first class in 1972.

Financial Aid is available.

For more information, please fill out and return the following coupon.

Name _____
Address _____
City _____ State _____ Zip _____
University/College _____
Major _____ Degree _____
Date of Graduation _____ G.P.A. _____

Send to: William J. Stehler School of Urban & Public Affairs Admissions Office Carnegie Mellon University Margaret Morrison Bldg. Room 110 Pittsburgh, PA 15213

DOONESBURY

by Garry Trudeau

